Despatches from Utica states that the Republican Convention to be held there to-day will undoubtedly renominate the whole state ticket.

President Grant.

It is stated that Senator Conkling in an interview distinctly stated that President Grant does not favor a third term.

MID-NIGHT DESPATCHES.

UNITED STATES

The Irish Team at Credmore.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—It is rumored that the result of the target practice at Credmore of the Irish team has been the taking of many heavy bets in favor of the American team.

Reduction of Rates.

Passenger rates to Liverpool have been reduced to $12 and $15, and it is reported that the Cunard line will spend half a million to defeat any other line on the Boston route. The American line refuses to enter the North Atlantic Steamship Conference.

The Brown-Morris Boat Race.

A large crowd of sporting men left here last night by the Stonington and Fall River routes on their way to St. John, N B., to witness the race between Morris, of Pittsburg, and Brown, of Halifax. Bets in the city are $100 on Brown to 70 on Morris.

More Trouble in the South.

The Times New Orleans special states that the belief there was very general yesterday that further trouble will soon be inaugurated; that Kellogg and all the members of his Government are openly denounced in the streets; that the white league are again in arms, but many of the leaders oppose any conflict with the Federal soldiers; that Kellogg believes war on the negroes will be revived; that the white league was in session last night, and that Kellogg notified General Emery's troops to be sent to Bayon Sara where trouble is expected.

Mayor Havemeyer's Charges.

John Kelly is preparing an answer to the charges made by Mayor Havemeyer against him and said answers will be made public simultaneous with the beginning of a libel suit against the Mayor.

News from the South.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Gov. Kellogg, telegraphs to Attorney General Williams as follows: Reports from the country show that in a number of cases where our parish officers have been ousted old incumbents are going back peaceably. The country is quieter than expected, and in the city all is quiet; so far there are no reports received from Red River.

Another Negro Trouble.

A Washington special states advices from Alabama represent probable trouble and bloodshed there soon. Negroes are shot down on the slightest provocation, and an army officer there says many murders have taken place which are never made public. The Attorney General is satisfied the General Government will have to protect colored citizens there, and the President is determined to make an example of some of the ring leaders. Troops will be sent there.

The State Convention.

UTICA, N.Y., Sept. 23.—The following are the resolutions in full. Republicans of New York in convention assembled adopt the following resolutions:—

1. That the Republicans of New York York reform the principles so often approved by the people, and point to the past achievements of their party as a pledge that it is equal to every new requirement.

2. That we demand obedience to laws and protection of every citizen in the enjoyment of his rights against the assault of Ku-Klux assassins, and while league resolutions which are encouraged by every Democrat success the protection to be given by the States if they can and will, but if the State fail then by general Government in strict conformity with the constitution and the laws.

3. That an armed attempt to subvert the recognised Government of the State is revolution, and revolution must be suppressed, and the supremacy of the law maintained at any and every cost.

4. That the public faith must be preserved inviolate, and the public debt be paid in coin.

5. That we oppose any inflation of public money and endorse the President's veto against inflation, and we are in favor of an early return to specie payment, and at such action on the part of the government as will speedily secure that result.

6. That taxation whether National or State, whether direct or indirect should be kept at the lowest practicable point permitted by the administration, and the requirements of the public credit and should be so adjusted as to be burdensome to all classes.

7. The administration of President Grant has been true to its pledges and distinguished by its achievements in domestic and foreign policy unsurpassed in the history of the country.

BRAIN WORRY.—Many of us pray to be delivered from sudden death, and do we not worry ourselves into it? And if we do can we not help it? "Men do not really die of Heart Disease as often as it is supposed, but of Apoplexy, or Congestion of the Lungs, so they do not die of brain work, but BRAIN WORRY. Scott died of it, Southney, Swift, Horace Greeley, and probably Thackeray."—London Times. As brain worry induces premature dissolution by its depressing influence upon the general nervous health, by eating the brain faster than the waste is repaired, and as the means of sustaining and increasing nervous health is no longer impossible; those who suffer the debilitating influence of mental anguish or extreme mental fatigue, need only resort to the preparation of Hypophosphites invented by Mr. Fellows, as that will conduct the subject safely over the rapids of despair, and create in him strength to grapple with every difficulty. This is no idle assertion but an established fact. 3671

A BEAUTIFUL HORSE.—There is nothing that can contribute so much to render the horse beautiful and elegant, to improve his condition and make him all that is desirable, as "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," it has been used by many persons who own valuable carriage and other horses with decided success, and so well pleased are they with it that they always keep it on hand in case of emergency; it may be given at all times with perfect safety. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ontario, proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers. 3671m

Large lot (7,500) of Stove Pipes. Inducements will be given to parties wishing a quantity for cash only, at C. P. Dorion, 81 and 83 Sparks Street, Ottawa. 3679

A NEW LEAD.—How many times does 50 go into 250,000? It goes 5000 times. Well, that is a good per cent., even for California. Will the best "lead" ever struck pay as much? Certainly not. But there are strong probabilities that an investment of fifty dollars made in the last Grand Gift Concert, in aid of the Public Library of Kentucky will pay that per cent. to somebody. Why not to one of us? And then we have only to wait to the 30th of November for the result.

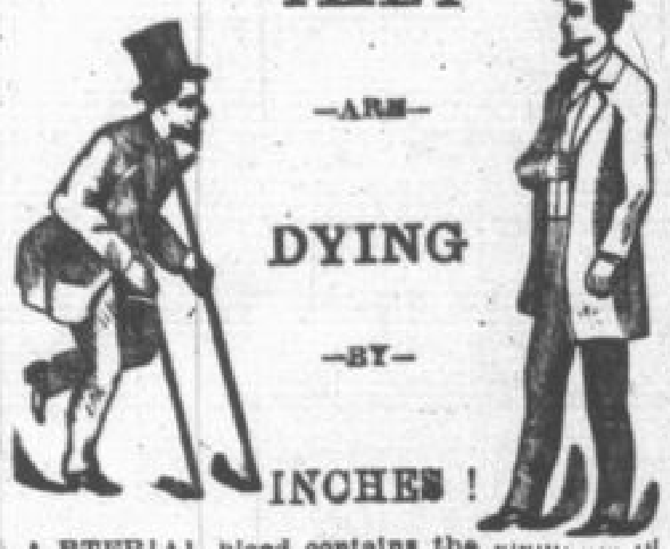
Rheumatism, Scalds, Lameness, Neuralgia, Burns, Soreness, Sore Throat, Boils, Wounds, Hoarseness, Ulcers, Bruises, Headache, Piles, Sprains, Toothache, Colic, Old Sores, All Hemorrhages, Diarrhœa, etc.

POND'S EXTRACT



THEY —ARE— DYING —BY— INCHES !

ARTERIAL blood contains the elements of Vitality and Nutrition, which is emptied into the capillary system and, after supplying the required nourishment, is sucked up by the minute branches of the venous system and carried back to the lungs for vital recuperation. By reason of much that is wrong in living and medical treatment, this stream of blood flowing through the body is not always pure or free from inflammatory particles, which may pass off by insensible perspiration through the skin or with the waste matter through the intestines, but cold or wet may stop their outward escape, and the internal drainage may become inactive, when the corrupt particles are apt to coagulate, causing pestules, scalp eruptions or running sores, bronchitis &c. They may locate about a nerve, causing neuralgia, and by attaching themselves to the arterial tubes and veins, large or small, and inflaming them by their corrosive influence, cause those intensely painful sensations called Rheumatism. Nature struggles to drench out or dislodge if possible these corrosive particles, and the parts become very red from the congestion or pressure of blood therein. This is called Inflammatoro Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout. If nature does not succeed in washing out these acremonious atoms she withdraws the undue supply of blood from such parts, ceases to contend, and performs circulation as best she can; however, the passage of the blood through the affected channels still continues painful. This is Chronic Rheumatism, which may exist without its usual antecedant the Acute kind.

The above only true theory points out the correct treatment of this and other distressing maladies. Dissolve these corrupt particles that have lodged in the afflicted parts, so that in the circulation they may be carried off externally or internally, and having thus removed the cause the effect ceases.

The experiment of twenty years in the London Hospital, England, has demonstrated to the Medical Faculty of Europe, that the only medicine having control over this class of diseases, is the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!

It is the result of a lifetime of scientific study and is now for the first time offered to the Canadian public, prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

A BLESSING TO THE POLICE.

MONTREAL, 18th June, 1864.

DEVINS & BOLTON:

GENTLEMEN,—Having been one of the many martyrs of rheumatism that I meet on my every day rounds, I was induced to try the celebrated DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. I had suffered the last five or six weeks the most terrible acute pains across my loins and back, so severe indeed that I could hardly walk with the help of a stick. I commenced the Diamond Remedy—following the directions carefully. Relief came immediately with the first bottle, improved rapidly with the second, completely cured and freed from pain after finishing my fifth small bottle. You are at perfect liberty either to refer to me privately or publicly, as I feel very thankful for the relief, and sympathize with my fellow sufferers from rheumatism.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. CARDINAL,
Sanitary Police Officer,
51 Labelle street.

In simple cases, sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of two or three bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to

NORTHRUP & LYMAN,
Agents for the Province of Ontario,
Scott street, Toronto,
Or to DEVINS & BOLTON,
Notre Dame street, Montreal,
General Agents for the Province of Quebec.
Price $1 per bottle. Large Bottles $2.

THE SIMPLEST, CHEAPEST, AND BEST

Marking Apparatus in the World

For Marking COTTON, SILK, WOOLLEN, and LINEN, is

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK,

Used with a Common Pen without a preparation.

This ink flows perfectly: will write as easily on the finest muslin as ink on paper. It does not dry up, and retains its virtues longer than any other ink known. It will not injure the finest fabric. Payson's ink has endured the test of forty years, and is now the most popular ink in existence and is unrivalled for uniformity, of quality, and durability. It will mark more neatly, quickly and indelibly than any other apparatus. It requires NO PREPARATION of the fabric.

Price, 37 cts. per Bottle.

Sold by all Druggists, Stationers, and Fancy-Goods Dealers.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES OF FASHION

DRESSMAKING BEING THE ORDER OF THE TIMES.

J. W. RYAN

Has much pleasure in informing his numerous Lady customers and others that MADAME OLLIER, the celebrated Cutter and Fitter of Ladies' Garments, has arrived from her New York and Boston trip, and re-engaged with him to superintend his Dressmaking Department,

No. 234 WELLINGTON STREET

It will be remembered that Madame Ollier came direct from Boston last March to make arrangements with him, but was subsequently induced, by large offers for her valuable services, to go into an old established firm in Centre Town; but finding that she had made a change for the worse, again engaged with him. Madame Ollier's attainments in the art of Scientific Measurements enables her to ensure a perfect fit without putting her customers to the inconvenience of removing a single garment.

BERKELEY, Sept. 1869.—Gentlemen, I feel it a duty I owe to you to express my gratitude for the great benefit I have derived by taking "Norton's Camomile Pills." I applied to your agent, Mr. Bell, Berkeley, for the above named Pills, for wind in the stomach, from which I suffered excruciating pain for a length of time, having tried nearly every remedy prescribed, but without deriving any benefit at all. After taking two bottles of your valuable pills I was quite restored to my usual state of health. Please give this publicity for the benefit of those who may thus be afflicted.—I am, Sir, yours truly, HENRY ALLPASS.—To the Proprietors of Norton's Camomile Pills.

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Examining Warehouse, Toronto," will be received at this Office until MONDAY the 5th day of October next, at noon, for the erection and completion of the above building. Plans and Specifications can be seen at the office of William Irving, Esq., Architect, Yonge Street, Toronto.

Contractors are notified that Tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms,—and in the case of firms—except there are attached the actual signature and the nature of the occupation and place of residence of each member of the same.

For the due fulfilment of the Contract, satisfactory security will be required on real estate or by deposit of money, public or municipal securities, or bank stocks, to an amount of five per cent on the bulk sum of the Contract.

To the Tender must be attached the actual signatures of two responsible and solvent persons residents of the Dominion, willing to become sureties for the carrying out of these conditions as well as the due performance of the works embraced in the contract.

This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender.

By order,
F. BRAUN,
Secretary.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICE.
LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO,
Toronto, 14th September, 1874.

49. No Petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first four weeks of each Session.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, or Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, to be published as follows, viz:—

A Notice inserted in the Ontario Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, or Union of Counties affected, or if there be no paper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest County in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

Times Office, Sept. 23.

There was a good market to day, products of all kinds and pork and beef were plentiful. The demand was fully equal to the supply, consequently sales were quick and quotations firm. Some pork yesterday reached the extraordinary weight of 350 pounds and sold readily at $8.75 per hundred. Butter is slightly on the decline. It is somewhat more plentiful hence the fall in price. Prints varied from 30 to 32 cents per lb, while tub commanded from 26 to 30 cents. Oats were plentiful today, and were bought up readily at an average price of 45 cents. Hay has fallen some in price, this is owing to a falling off in the demand. The following are to-day's quotations.

Electric Oil Thomas' Excelsior Eclectric! — Worth Ten Times in Weight in Gold.

Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures Catarrh, Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. J. Collard, of Sparts, Ontario, writes 'send me 6 dozen Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful.' William Maguire, of Franklin, writes, 'I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes speedily now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes. "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Electric Oil, I am nearly run out: nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes—"Send at once a further supply of Electric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well, and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes—"Send me some more Electric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reed, Ulverton, P.Q., write—"The Electric Oil is getting a great reputation here, and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay." Lemoyne, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P. O., write—"Send us one gross Electric Oil. We find it to take well.

JOB MOSES' FEMALE PILLS.

This well known medicine is no imposition but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, they contain nothing hurtful to the constitution.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, those pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron calomel, antimony or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully reserved.

For all particulars, obtain free, of the agent [illegible], or refer to advertisement.

JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR.

$1.00 and 12½ cents for postage, enclosed to Northop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agents for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills return mail.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The New York Tribune.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF ITALY! so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful state, with Rome as its capital the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemburg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to re-assert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the everchanging phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Tribune, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century scepticism and secularism on the other. Recognising a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionised through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed reform, the Tribune will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

DAILY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $10 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum. Five copies or over, $3 each; an extra copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time; or, if preferred, a copy of "Recollection a Busy Life." by Mr Greeley.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL. The distinctive character 1st which have gained for Dr. DE JONGH'S Oil so much celebrity, the entire confidence of the most eminent members of the Medical Profession, and notwithstanding the active and unscrupulous opposition of many interested dealers, an unprecedented amount of public patronage may be thus concisely enumerated:—

I.—Its genuineness, purity, and uniform strength are ascertained and guaranteed.

II.—It contains all the active and essential principles that therapeutic experience has found to be the most effective in the operation of the remedy.

III.—It is palatable, easily taken, and creates no nausea.

IV.—It is borne with facility by the most delicate stomach and improves the functions of digestion and assimilation.

V.—Its medicinal properties and remedial action have been found to be immeasurably greater than those of any other kind of Cod Liver Oil.

VI.—From the unequalled rapidity of its curative effects, it is infinitely more economical than any which is offered, even at the lowest price.

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST.

The extraordinary virtues of Dr. DE JONGH'S Light Brown Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Consumption may now be considered as fully established. No remedy so rapidly restores the exhausted strength, improves the nutritive functions or produces a more marked and favorable influence on the local malady.

The following high testimony to the efficacy of Dr. DE JONGH'S COD LIVER OIL in Consumption is afforded by ALLEN G. CHATTAWAY, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., of Leominster:—

"Having for some years extensively used Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, both in public and private practice, I have no hesitation in stating its effects are very far superior to those of any other Cod Liver Oil. Nearly four years since, two cases of confirmed Consumption were placed under my care. In both, the lungs were a mass of tubercular deposit, and every possible sound to be heard in phthisis was present. The sole remedy employed was Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL; and now the patients are strong and fat; the diseased (abnormal) sounds nearly inaudible; and in the one case (male), hunting, fishing, and shooting, are freely indulged in, the patient expressing himself quite capable of undergoing as much fatigue as any of his fellow sportsmen."

GENERAL DEBILITY AND EMACIATION.

In cases of prostration and emaciation, where the vital forces are reduced, and where life appears to be even at its lowest ebb, the restorative powers of Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL are remarkably manifested. By its administration the natural appetite is revived, and the functions of digestion and assimilation are improved, reanimated, and regulated; and, when its use has been steadily preserved in, its peculiar tonic and nutritive properties have entirely restored health and strength to the most feeble and deteriorated constitutions.

The actual benefit derived is thus described by ROWLAND DALTON, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., District Medical Officer at Bury St. Edmunds:—

"In giving my opinion of Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, I have no hesitation in saying that I have not the slightest confidence in any other kind. The effects of Dr. DE JONGH'S OIL are sure and most remarkable, especially in that broken down state of health and strength which usually precedes and favors tubercular deposit; and I never recommend any other sort. The Oil I have had from you was for my own use, and it has certainly been the only means of saving my life on two occasions, and even now, when I feel 'out of condition,' I take it, and like it, unmixed with anything, as being the most agreeable way. I could wish that Dr. DE JONGH'S OIL would come into general use, and entirely supersede the Pale and other worthless preparations."

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From innumerable medical and scientific opinions of the highest character in commendation of Dr DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, the following are selected:—

Sir Henry Marsh, Bart., M.D., Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I consider Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil to be a very pure Oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

Dr. David Smith, F.R.S., Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light Brown Oil supplied by Dr. De Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the Oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst so much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness." (Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

Dr. Barlow, F.R.S., Sen Physician to Guy's Hosp[illegible]

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it be a very pure Oil, well fitted for those cases in in which the use that substance is indicated."

Dr. Lawrence, Physician to H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

I invariably prescribe Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil in preference to any other, feeling assured that I am recommending a genuine article' and not a manufactured compound in which the efficacy of this invaluable medicine is destroyed."

Sir Joseph Olliffe, M.D., Physician to the British Embassy at Paris.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, and I have every reason to be satisfied with its beneficial and salutary effects."

. Lankester, F.R.S., Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this Oil is secured in its preparation by the personal attention of so good a Chemist and intelligent a Physician as Dr. De Jongh, who has also written the best Medical Treatise on the Oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferrable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

THE ROYAL READERS.

A NEW SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED ENGLISH READING-BOOKS.

From Mr. M. Patterson, Rector of the Free Church Training School; Moray House, Edinburgh.

"Thanks for the Specimen of your new Reading Books and Sheets. . . . They are admirable in every particular. Nothing, in my opinion, would more contribute to the improvement of Education than the wide circulation of these books, and the intelligent handling of them."

From A. Montgomerie, LL.D., Principal of Ladies' College Glasgow.

"I have examined very carefully the 'Printing,' and Nos. I., II., and III. of the Royal Readers, and have no hesitation in saying that they are, in my opinion, incomparably the best English Reading-Books that have ever been published. The adaptation of the means to the end in view is perfect."

From T. Morrison, M.A., Rector of the Free Church Normal School, Glasgow.

"I have very carefully examined the Royal Readers. The plan is excellent, and the execution, if I may say so, even better. They are out of sight the best series of Reading-books published and should very speedily be widely used. The illustrations constitutes an admirable features and add much to the value of the Readers

DAY FIXED AND A FULL DRAWING ASSURED,

—ON—

MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE FOR

An Easy Fortune.

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned, that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed, and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 31st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT

GENUINE PANCREATINE

PANCREATIC EMULSION.

The efficacy of these Medicines in the treatment of Indigestion, Bronchitis or Pulmonary Catarrh, Consumption, Wasting, &c., &c., depending entirely upon their purity and strength, Messrs SAVORY & MOORE caution the public against imitations of them which are put forth as possessing the same and properties of the true preparations, but which are in reality either saponaceous compounds, ointments or pomades, without a trace of the Pancreatic principle and entirely unfit and useless as medicines. These imitations are calculated to produce serious disappointment and to injuriously affect the reputation which the genuine Pancreatine and Pancreatic Emulsion have acquired. It is therefore highly important that purchasers examine the label on the bottles for the names and Trade Mark

143 NEW BOND STREET, LONDON.

Extract from an Analytical Report on a Foreign Specimen of a so-called Preparation of Pancreatine.

"This compound resembled an ointment or Pomade in appearance and consistency, and was flavored with Essence of Almond or Prussic Acid. It was strongly alkaline, indicating free alkali, which acting upon the fat, produced the usual saponifying result; the whole forming a granular moist mass of fat, soap, glycerine and water. This ointment was physically and chemically different from the true Pancreatic Emulsion which I have also examined, and which, besides being rich in Pancreatic juice, has the delicate appearance and consistency of fresh cream, is palatable and readily taken."

WEST MIDDLESEX.

Glencoe Demonstration—Great Speech by Hon. Mr. Fraser.

There was another item of importance to which reference had been made—that for immigration. Sandfield Macdonald spent very little for immigration, but the moment the Reformers came into power Mr. Mackenzie announced that they intended to spend a great deal more. Immigration had now become a business. We were put into actual competition with all our sister Provinces, with the United States, with the Australian Colonies and the New Zealand Provinces, and with all the railway agencies of the United States who had lands to settle. It was found that they were getting greatly the advantage of us, and so the Government proposed in 1872 to make a larger expenditure. No one expected that the advantage of this expenditure would become apparent immediately. It was expected that in the course of a few years they would see the advantages of that expenditure. It had only been made for two years and the fruit was not yet fully seen, though it was partially. This year they would see that the United States had not had much more than a quarter of the immigration to their shores which they had previously secured, while our immigration would be within a fraction of what it was last year. Mr. Rykert said that in 1871 29,000 immigrants were brought into Ontario at a cost of 25,000 dollars. In this there was only a mistake of about 5,000 dollars, which was moderate for Mr Rykert. (Hear, hear.) The exact figures were 29,712 dollars. In 1873 the Government brought in 38,000 at a cost of 150,000 dollars These gentlemen did not tell them of one fact—that the Government had been paying a bonus which the last Government never paid at all. Ontario had been compelled to pay it because other Provinces countries were paying it. They had had to give assisted passages also because immigrants got them to other Provinces, and they had also had to pay charges for their transportation from Quebec to their destination in Ontario, for they had to run the gauntlet of the Lower Provinces, and the Quebecers were as fully alive to the importance of immigration as we were. They must bear in mind that the actual increased expenditure there was no doubt about, and that the Government defended it on the ground that it was the bounden duty of any Government, whether Grit or Conservative, to induce all immigration to the shores of Ontario that could possibly be brought here, and in order to do that they must put themselves on a level with others in the immigration market. They had had unusual difficulties to contend with this year, but they would show a good figure. (Hear, hear.) He would now give them the general expenditure upon the particularly large items, which they would find at page one of the Public Accounts of 1869 and 1870, and page eight of those of 1871, 1872 and 1873:—Civil Government—1869, 78,787 dollars; 1870, $104,909; 1871, $114,613; 1872, $142,218; 1873, $156,646; 1874 (estimated), $148,877. There had been an increase from year to year in Sandfield Macdonald's time and in that of the present Government. This item covered the expenditure on account of the several departments. Colonization Roads in 1869 were $35,589, 1870, $50,000; 1871, $55,409; 1872, 75,799 dollars; 1873, 145,950 dollars. This was expended in opening up the back country of the Province and trying to develope it In 1874 all they had asked was 100,000 dollars, or about twice as much as Sandfield asked in 1871. For legislation there was expended in 1869, 81,885 dollars; 1870, 84,487 dollars (according to the Public Accounts, but he believed there must be some mistake in the printing that year, 1871, 94,177 dollars, 1872, 99,559 dollars; 1873, 120,400 dollars; 1874, (estimated) 112 050 dollars. Administration of justice, 1869, 162,446 dollars; 1870, 180,004 dollars; 1871, 182,621 dollars; 1872, 191,647 dollars; 1873, 204,604 dollars; 1874 (estimated), 206,060 dollars. The Government were unable to exercise much control over this expenditure. The salaries of the officials were fixed, and all the expenditures except contingencies and repairs around Osgoode Hall, and small matters of that kind, was almost entirely fixed. It went on increasing from year to year, because of the increase in population, courts, and litigation. The difference under this head between 1871 and 1874 was nearly $25,000, and the item for 1873 and 1874 covered 10,000 dollars for the Court of Error and Appeal, which did not appear in any shape in 1871. Lunatic asylums formed another item over which the Government had little or no control as to the circumstances occasioning its increase. The cost of articles for the maintenance of these institutions necessitated an increased expenditure by the Government as by private families. The expenditures under this head had been—in 1869, 120,155, and for the Reformatory, 23,557; 1870, 139,452 dollars, and for Reformatory, 2,473 dollars; 1871, 140,713, and for Reformatory, 21,710 dollars; 1872, 186,857 dollars, and for Reformatory, 23,824 dollars; 1873, 203,401, and for Reformatory, 22,506 dollars. In 1872 and 1873 they had one additional institution, if not two to maintain, and in 1874 they had been compelled to ask for 335,375 dollars, which included the maintenance of the Central Prison, Blind Asylum, and Agricultural College, neither of which items appeared in the Public Accounts of 1871. Immigration in 1869 was 17,595 dollars; 1870, 32,087 dollars; 1871, 36,712 dollars; 1872, 58,749 dollars; 1873, 159,178 dollars; 1874 (estimated), 133,464 dollars. For Agricultural and Mechanics' Institutes the Government were asking 90,200 dollars, against 67,551 dollars in 1869. Under the head of charities there was a difference of about 3,600 dollars, that being about the increase in 1874 For education there was an enormous difference, but this was another matter in which reduction of expenditure was almost impossible, and on which he was sure none of them would regret the expenditure which was made. (Cheers) The figures under this head were:—1869, 275,717 dollars; 1870, 315,887 dollars; 1871, 351,306 dollars; 1872, 421,703 dollars; 1873, 462,963 dollars; 1874 (estimated), 500,200. On the whole expenditure of the year the increase in the expenditure of 1873 over that of 1871 amounted in round numbers to about 642,000 dollars, and he would give them now the items of increase under the various heads to show how that difference was made up. From the figures he had given it would be seen that the difference between 1873 and 1871 was:—On Colonization Roads, 90,541 dollars; Administration of Justice, 21 983 dollars; Asylums, &c., [including Reformatory], 55 082 dollars; Immigration 129,466 dollars; Agricultural and Mechanics' Institute, 6,040 dollars; Education, 111,657 dollars; Public Works and Buildings (chargeable to capital), 123,769 dollars; Legislation, 26,223 dollars; Municipalities Fund, 45 851 dollars, and Civil Government, 42 033 dollars, making a total increase on these items in 1873 over 1871 of 652,675 dollars. (Hear, hear) He thought he had gone sufficiently into the general items of expenditure and accounted for the increases, and now he would refer to the "wasted surplus" as their opponents called it. Mr. Rykert said Sandfield Macdonald had three millions and a half saved when he went out. Well, two items alone would account for the expenditure of all that and a great deal more. He did not think a single elector in any municipality in this Province that was to-day receiving the per capita allowance under the Municipal Loan Fund Distribution would say that the money was wasted. It had come from the people, and the Government were simply giving it back to the people, to the extent of 3,115,816 dollars. (Cheers.) That of itself almost accounted for the whole of Sandfield Macdonald's surplus; but if they bore in mind that in addition to that they had given to railways 1,500,000 dollars appropriated by Sandfield Macdonald, besides 400,000 dollars appropriated under Mr. Blake, and 300,000 dollars being the annual appropriation of 100,000 dollars commencing with 1872, when the Act was passed, they had 2,200,000 more. So that in that way the Government had distributed, partly to municipalities and partly to railways, between five and six million dollars. (Cheers.) If they added to this about another half a million of money, by presenting the amounts set apart to purchase drainage debentures, and to carry on drainage works under the Government, they could have a total so distributed and in no way chargeable to ordinary yearly expenditure of say 5,800,000 dollars, which he hoped would satisfactorily account for the manner in which the surplus of three millions and a half left by Sandfield had been disposed of. (Hear, hear.) And it should be remembered, too, that all this half million of money expended either in purchasing drainage debentures or doing drainage works was really an investment on the part of the Province—an investment of no different character in fact than that made in the purchase of Dominion debentures on which they were receiving interest. (Hear, hear.) Of course it was charged against them that they must be short of money, otherwise they would not be offering for sale municipal debentures in England, but that statement was on a par with the other statements made against them, and on which their opponents sought to condemn them. They were selling these debentures because the Legislature saw fit to make it imperative upon them either to do that or to distribute the debentures pro rata amongst the municipalities. He would give them the section of the Act itself, which might be found at page 185 of the Statutes of 1873: "The said debentures shall, as far as practicable, be equally distributed among the municipalities entitled to receive same under this Act, in proportion to the sums to which the said municipalities are respectively entitled, and the municipality to or for which or to or for the use of which the same are delivered or set apart shall be charged with the debentures according to the market value of the same at the time of such delivery or setting apart; or the Lieut. Governor may, in his discretion, sell the said debentures and pay the proceeds to, or to the use of the municipality entitled thereto, and any balance going to the municipality shall be paid in money." So it would be seen that the Government had but one or two alternatives—either to divide these debentures amongst the municipalities that were entitled to share in the distribution of the surplus, which he need scarcely say could not be done satisfactorily, or to adopt the other course pointed out by the statute and make a sale of them, the whole object of the Legislature being that the Government should once and for ever rid itself of all connection with the old Municipal Loan Fund indebtedness, (cheers), and so hereafter avoid a repetition of the difficulty of compelling payment from those municipalities by the Government. What he had stated would, he thought, fully account for what was called the "wasted surplus" If they thought it was wasted, they had, as to a part of it at least, to deal with the men who preceded this Government and pledged the country to the appropriation for railways. As to the municipalities, what better could have been done with the money than had been done? It would have been very easy for the Government to have held to the money and refused to distribute it, and to have gone back to the people and said—"See how much we have saved!" But would that have been statesmanlike, or acting as the affairs of the Province required?

A SEARCHING INVESTIGATION.—The Halifax Chronicle says:—No matter what the constitution of the incoming Quebec Ministry, whether it be Conservative or Liberal, it is necessary that a searching investigation into the conduct of those drummed out of office to the tune of the "Rogue's March" should be made, and the truth or falsehood of many more charges of corruption, besides that of the Tanneries job, rendered plain. If the culprits are guilty they should be promptly expelled from the Local Legislature, and if possible, subjected to other pains and penalties. The mere acceptance by the Lieutenant Governor of the Ministers' resignation of their portfolios is a bagatelle if they are nevertheless permitted to sit in the Legislature, and, with all their crimes upon their heads, encouraged to strut the political stage as patriots in future.

BRAIN WORRY.—Many of us pray to be delivered from sudden death, and do we not worry ourselves into it? And if we do can we not help it? "Men do not really die of Heart Disease as often as it is supposed, but of Apoplexy, or Congestion of the Lungs, so they do not die of brain work, but BRAIN WORRY. Scott died of it, Southey, Swift, Horace Greeley, and probably Thackeray."—London Times. As brain worry induces premature dissolution by its depressing influence upon the general nervous health, by eating the brain faster than the waste is repaired, and as the means of sustaining and increasing nervous health is no longer impossible; those who suffer the debilitating influence of mental anguish or extreme mental fatigue, need only resort to the preparation of Hypophosphites invented by Mr. Fellows, as that will conduct the subject safely over the rapids of despair, and create in him strength to grapple with every difficulty. This is no idle assertion but an established fact. 3671

INFLAMATION OF THE LUNGS.—Clifton, N. B., 17th February, 1873. Sir: In behalf of my family, I wish to acknowledge a debt of gratitude I owe Mr. James I. Fellows. My daughter had been ill with inflammation of the Lungs, had raised large quantities of blood and purulent matter, attended with every symptom of Consumption. After obtaining the attention of two eminent physicians, who afforded her no relief, she was persuaded to try Fellows Syrup of Hypophosphites. Upon taking two bottles we had every reason to believe she would be cured. Her physicians were surprised to find her improvement so rapid, and advised her to continue its use, which she did until her complete recovery. Two years have elapsed, during which time she has neither taken nor required any medicine, enjoying good health, and urges all who are afflicted with any Lung or Chest trouble to use the Hypophosphites without fail. My wife, also having been in bad health for some time, and having had Typhoid Fever in December last, which left her much prostrated, was advised by the physicians to use this remedy to build her up. Before taking half a bottle she found herself much benefited, and still continues to use it. I believe, under kind Providence, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has been the means of restoring both my wife and daughter, and I hope the afflicted will avail themselves of its use, for although it is widely used, I think its value is not appreciated. Yours truly, JOSEPH A. EVANS. 3677

The Ottawa Times

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1874.

We learn by special telegram that the Provincial Fair next year will be held in Ottawa. The question lay between Kingston and Ottawa and was decided in favour of the latter by a decisive majority.

The Hon. T. W. Anglin, Speaker of the House of Commons, arrived in this city yesterday, and is staying at the Russell House.

Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, left last evening for Toronto. He will return on Saturday.

Mr. Jodoin has been unseated in Chambly, for corrupt practices on the part of supporters.

A requisition of about four hundred names, many of them the most influential men in the North Riding of Renfrew, was presented Mr. William Murray, asking him to become a candidate in the Ministerial interest. He accepted, and is likely to be elected by a large majority over White, who was unseated for corrupt practices at his last election.

The London Herald asserts that Captain Norris, the Liberal candidate for the vacant seat in Lincoln, "makes repudiation "of the Treaty one of the strongest "planks in his platform"—that is, his address to the electors. It is really impossible to say how far the rabid Opposition of the Herald and its Tory compatriots will carry them in the end. If there were a particle of foundation for such a statement, there would be less ground for complaint, but we are bound to say that there is not even a tittle of truth in it. It becomes quite nauseous to have to refer to allegations which defy the truth with such bare-faced impertinence.

We see it stated that a grand demonstration of the Reformers of South Grenville is fixed for Tuesday next, the 29th inst., at Prescott. The Skating Rink has been secured for the purpose, and everything augurs well for the success of the affair. The Hon. A. Mackenzie, Premier of Canada; Hon. Oliver Mowat, Premier of Ontario; Hon. L. S. Huntingdon, President of the Privy Council; Hon. D. A. Macdonald, Postmaster General; Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State for Canada; Hon. A. McKellar, Provincial Secretary; Hon. T. B. Pardee, Commissioner of Crown Lands; Dr. Brouse, M. P., and Hon. C. F. Fraser, Minister of Public Works, Ontario; have signified their intention of being present on the occasion.

THE TORY CONVENTION.

The Tory Convention at Toronto is reported to be proceeding swimmingly. The Hon. James Skead, of this city, has been elected President, and of the four Vice-Presidents appointed, two—Messrs. J. G. Worts of Toronto, and Adam Brown of Hamilton—are free-traders and supporters of the Reciprocity Treaty. That is promising well, at any rate. We are told they have adopted a platform. Doubtless this was very necessary, as they never had much footing to stand upon—of course they must have a platform. Who ever heard of a dozen boys starting a mock political organisation without they made for themselves a platform. A few choice headings might be quoted to show the nature of this document—for curiously enough it is a document, although they have called it a platform,—such, for example, as Party "Exigencies," of the effect of which we have had sufficient experience within the past few years under Tory rule. Tory party exigencies are and ever have been Tory politics—as for principles, nobody expects anything in that way from them, and thus nobody ever gets disappointed. "Letting of public contracts' is another of the planks of this wonderful platform. Of course the reason is easily understood. The way in which the late Tory Government filched from the public Exchequer under the head of secret service money, was but a prelude to filching on a more extended scale, and it ended with a big job in the way of a "public contract" which was somewhat too much for them. Of course we have the eternal cry of "British connection" cropping up again. One would almost fancy they might wait till the echo of the mighty testimony of the representative of Her Majesty in Canada had died out of our national atmosphere—testimony which paid a high but merited tribute to the unity of our loyalty as a people—before they vaunted their silly trash. There is one paragraph in the manifesto, however, which demands more attention than the rest of the balderdash with which it is crammed. It is as follows:—

> "That in this country where all stand on an equal footing, no special privileges can be conceded to any creed or nationality without danger to the State, and any demands for such special privileges cannot be regarded without suspicion."

Now, we desire to be informed what has called forth this special resolution. Is it the demand for "special privileges"—privileges which they would if they could withhold from others—made by the Toronto quartette on behalf of the Orangemen last year? We trow not, for then every Tory who assented to the paragraph would have stultified himself in the most complete manner. Special privileges were never demanded on behalf of any other body of men, and certainly none were made in behalf of any nationality, that we were aware of. There is one nationality which in Canada, as in every other country under the sun, has always a knack of providing a man qualified to take a leading part in national or party affairs, as we have only to look to the gentleman who has been elected President of the Tory Convention, and at least three of the Vice Presidents, to see; but they have made no demand to that effect. Their ability, energy and perseverance make positions of prominence seek them—not they the positions. What the paragraph means, we can confidently assert, in view of recent utterances by the organs of the party and the party leaders, simply this, if it means anything at all: that Toryism henceforth will be war upon Roman Catholics, and "Dick Turpin's ride" on the Protestant horse. We challenge contradiction in this respect, or at any rate an explanation which will prove, not simply our assertion groundless, but the actual meaning of the resolution. We should, for the country's sake, regret were we right and rejoice were we wrong. But we are not wrong, unfortunately. We are, however, prepared to take up the glove which has been thrown down—prepared to prove to the Tories that the day is past when they can play that particular card. We can tell them at the outset that they may succeed by this means in alienating from them some Catholic supporters, but in gaining Protestant Reformers to their side, never a one.

THE VETERANS OF 1812.

Our readers will remember that Her Gracious Majesty the Queen issued a Royal Warrant in February of this year, to the effect that it had been represented that men who had seen active service in the British army in and prior to the year 1815 were often living without any settled or sufficient means of support, and that by reason of wounds, age, or infirmity, they were unable to earn anything towards their own subsistence; and it was signified as the royal pleasure that the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital should award a pension or increase of pension to the amount of not more than one shilling and sixpence sterling per day to each of such persons. The warrant appeared to some of those interested to be open to the admission of Canadian volunteers who served in 1812 to this pension list, and on the 20th May the Minister of Militia, through Major Futvoye, communicated with the Colonial Office, requesting information as to whether this construction were admissible. The reply of Major-General Hutt, Secretary of Chelsea Hospital, rather favoured the impression which had already been formed, and desired that any claims which might have been or were likely to be made should be sent forward, when they would be adjudicated upon by the Commissioners separately. There was a general expression of pleasure at the anticipated result of the correspondence, and those of the heroes of 1812 who still survived were gladdened by the expectation that their heroic services in defence of their country might after all receive at the hands of their sovereign, some fitting acknowledgment of their patriotic and otherwise insufficiently recognised valour. When we say insufficiently recognized, we of course wish not to be misunderstood. There was a recognition made of their noble conduct, in so far as they earned for themselves the eternal gratitude, esteem, and reverence of the people of Canada, but nothing was done to give those sentiments expression in a tangible form. Whether those veterans had a legal claim to the pension thus ordered to be assigned to their comrades of the regular army or not, Canadian feeling was as one in regarding their services as of equal value, and thus in equity fairly entitled to similar recognition. The applications of such as thought they were entitled to consideration—at least as many of them as were handed to the Department in time—were forwarded to the proper Imperial authorities without delay, and in due course a final adjudication was made, the result of which has been communicated to Major Futvoye. As will be seen from the annexed document, the decision, especially in consideration of the encouragement derived from the former despatches is rather disappointing. We cannot but regret that it is so, yet we are bound to be thankful that those interested have at least lost nothing by the unsuccessful endeavours made on their behalf, but have had practical assurance of the deep interest in their condition which is felt by the Government and people of Canada. If the advantages they had reason to expect do not accrue to them in this instance from a service which was of itself unselfish and patriotic—a service which was offered in the first instance without hope of favour or reward, and from the highest of all motives—they at least have the satisfaction of knowing that this was due to no want of promptitude on the part of the Administration of the Dominion, who left no stone unturned to secure for them the same advantages as have been conferred upon the soldiers of the regular army who fought side by side with them in that memorable struggle. Unfortunately the good intentions of the Canadian Government could not alter what was unalterable, as it was of course impossible to affect thereby the intentions of the British Secretary of War after those intentions had taken the form of a Royal warrant. It appears from the appended communication that one man who served in the militia of Canada in 1812, and who never belonged to the regular forces, was admitted to the pension list, but as is explained it was previous to the decision of the Secretary of War as to the intention of the warrant, and inadvertently at that. The following is the communication:

ROYAL HOSPITAL, CHELSEA, S. W.,
Secretary's Office, 10th Sept. 1874.

SIR,—I am directed by the Lords and others, Commissioners of this Hospital, to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th ult., relative to claims to pension from Imperial Funds proceeding from men who served prior to the year 1815 in Corps of Canadian Militia and Volunteers, and to inform you that, having obtained the advice of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for War as to the bearing of Her Warrant of 21st February last on cases of this nature, the Commissioners find that the Warrant was intended to apply solely to service in the Regular Forces of the Crown. They regret, therefore, that they must decline to extend the benefits of this Hospital to any men who served exclusively in local Canadian Forces, and they request that you will be good enough to make this decision known to all persons who may apply to you for information on this subject. With regard to the numerous applications which have already reached this office from men of this class, the Commissioners will cause a separate reply to be sent to each, explaining the grounds on which they are obliged to refuse a pension. These replies will be forwarded to the private addresses of the applicants, when shown in their papers, but as in many instances they have omitted to give an address, replies to such men will be sent to your office in the hope that you may be able to send them to their destination.

The Commissioners desire me to add, to save misapprehension that, prior to the date of the decision of the Secretary of State for War, they inadvertently admitted to the Pension List one man who served in the Militia of Canada and never belonged to the Regular Forces of the Crown.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
[Signed.] GEORGE HUTT,
Secretary.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondents will be good enough to furnish to the Editor their real names, otherwise their communications over fictitious signatures cannot be inserted.

South Renfrew Election.

To the Editor of THE TIMES.

SIR,—The electors of South Renfrew seem to manage their political affairs in a kind of a hap-hazard manner, which cannot fail sooner or later to recoil upon them selves. In other counties they have party conventions, which meet together to decide upon their candidates, the whole party agreeing to support the man thus chosen. Here we appear to have nothing of the kind. The result is that candidates come forward on their own account, without regard to probabilities of success or to the interest of their respective parties. And so we are placed now in this predicament, we must either support Mr. McDougall, who no doubt does not please every member of the party in all respects, or have as our representative one who by his ignorance of politics, or even of the history of his country, and his schoolboy style of making speeches, would make us the laughing stock of the whole Dominion if he sat in the House of Commons as our member. Between these alternatives there can but be one choice, and Mr. McDougall having done what he could as an honorable man to atone for his only error, it becomes the duty of all Reformers to support him.

Yours truly,
A REFORMER.

Sept. 25th, 1874.

Music.

To the Editor of THE TIMES:

SIR,—On Wednesday evening last, the citizens of Ottawa were again treated to that enjoyable concert given by the band of the G. G. F. Guards, but we cannot help noticing with regret that on the last two occasions there seems to have been a kind of a competition between them and the band of the O. B. G. Artillery. It seems as if this latter band cannot play on any other night than that on which the band of the G. G. F. Guards entertains the public on Parliament. Hill People would very much like to see the band of the O. B. G. Artillery turn out and entertain the public in the same manner as the G. G. F. Guard's Band do, but not on the same night. There would thus be plenty of room for both. There is a general impression that their Commanding Officer, Major Eagleson, cannot be aware of the fact, for it is not credited for one moment that he would allow matters to go on in such a manner.

Hoping not to intrude too much on your space,

I remain,
Yours, &c.,
A CITIZEN.

Ottawa, Sept. 25, 1874.

The Magazines.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE for September. New York: The Leonard Scott Publishing Co., 41 Barclay Street, New York.

Blackwood's Magazine for September comes to us from the Leonard Scott Publishing Co.

The leading political article is a 'Review of the Session,' in which the writer takes comfort in the political situation, and assures us that 'the tone of the public mind is more healthy, and the prospects of sound government are more assured.'

The serials 'Alice Lorraine' and 'Valentine and his Brother' are continued, and in both of them the storm elements, which have been gradually gathering are about to burst.

The Tribute in Memoriam to Charles Sumner is by W. W. Story, with whose contributions, both in prose and poetry, the pages of Blackwood are occasionally enriched.

No. 6 of the 'International Vanities' comes to us like a letter from an old friend. It treats of Diplomatic privileges, and tells us how the telegraph and rapid postal delivery have diminished the importance of the profession of history and present condition of ambassadorial prerogative are pleasantly contrasted. The writer is of opinion that diplomatic privileges now mean in practice little more than the power of smoking untaxed tobacco. Whether the right of inviting the Sovereign to dinner should be counted as one more real advantage depends entirely on one's view of the charm of Royal Society.'

In the article on 'The Greek Fool,' the student will find many ancient facetiæ and absurdities illustrating 'a species of the 'fool' genus with which the British public is only half familiar;' and in that on 'The Ancient Classics' we are introduced to the valuable series of books now publishing, entitled 'Ancient Classics for English Readers,' a series whose object is to make the 'reader acquainted with the character, situation, and sentiments of each classic author, with the scope of his argument when the subject is philosophical, with the nature of the story when it is dramatical.'

In the 'Disappointing Boy,' we meet with a youth spoiled by his mother, proving a severe trial to his father.

'Pilchards and Pilchard-Catchers' describes the Cornish coast, the fishing, and other occupations of the people.

Surely this is plenty of good reading.

The choicest selections of dress goods in the city, at Maclaren & Chalmers.

T. E. MOORE opens his new establishment at 74 Sparks street. Every one should attend his cheap sale the next three days, as he will positively close them on Saturday. T. E. MOORE. 3680

The ladies are delighted at getting the latest styles in dress goods at such low prices at Maclaren & Chalmers.

FALL IMPORTATIONS.—N. Faulkner, Sign of the Maple Leaf, Sussex street, will offer for sale from Tuesday, 22nd inst., 500 Ladies' Waterproof Mantles, 40 per cent below cost. Large stock of Ladies' Underclothing, to be sold without reserve. 100 pieces Hoyle's prints at 13 cents; 100 pieces Ashton prints, at 12½ cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 17 cents for 13 cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 20 cents for 17½ cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 27½ cents for 23 cents; 200 pieces homemade flannel, worth 55 cents for 45 cents; 50 dozen Men's grey woollen drawers and shirts, worth $1 for 80 cents; 50 dozen Men's flesh-coloured drawers and shirts, worth $1 25 for $1.00. A complete assortment of Dry Goods and Millinery on hand, selling at a small advance over cost, owing to the scarcity of money. A call is respectfully solicited, and an inspection of the stock before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the place, Sign of the Maple Leaf. 3679.

CITY AND VICINITY

EXPORTS.—The value of the exports from the Port of Prescott, for the month ending August 31st, was $39,796.

BANKRUPT STOCK.—The bankrupt stock of Mr Guillaume Martineau, an insolvent on Duke street, at the Chaudiere, and valued at $18,378, was sold yesterday by Mr. Bermingham for seventy-two and one-half cents in the dollar.

ACCIDENT.—A little child of Mr. Thomas Corrigans', accidently fell from the Verandah, where it was playing. Fortunately the little creature escaped without any severe injuries. Dr. Gibb was summoned and pronounced the child's injuries of a trifling nature.

HEAVY LOSS.—Mr. John Clarke, of Nepean, had the misfortune to lose a valuable stud horse, the animal having died yesterday. The horse, which was valued at something like $2,000, took first prize at the recent Agricultural Show held in this city.

Berlin Wool Work, a nice assortment Ottomans, Banner Screens, Slipper Patterns, Toilet Bags, &c, &c., to be sold cheap. Come and secure a "sweet pretty pattern," something that will entice you to stay home at night for the sake of wearing them. To be had at 73 Sparks Street. J. H. Patterson. 3681.

PARLIAMENT FENCE.—The eastern end of the Parliament fence is now being hurried on to completion. It will effect a junction with the western end of Dufferin Bridge and when finished will make a fine appearance. The fire and light committee should take immediate steps towards the lighting of the new bridges, as it would be a matter of much convenience to the public.

DELEGATES FROM PRESCOTT.—Dr. Brouse, M. P., and William Ellis, of the Town of Prescott, have gone to Toronto as delegates of the South Grenville Agricultural Society to attend the annual meeting of the Agricultural and Arts Association. The Telegraph says they will cast their votes for Ottawa, which it considers justly entitled to the Exhibition once in every five years.

ARRIVALS AT THE RUSSELL HOUSE.—Wm H Cowan, L J Lajoie, A Deschamps, W Moberley, J Stevenson and wife, N O Greene, Miss Millar, Montreal; J E Gilley, Thurso; F Jones, Kemptville; N L Camier, Toronto; Thos P Davis and wife, St John, N B; John Supple and child, Pembroke; T W Anglin, St John, N B; Robert Marsden, F F Frost, Smith's Fall's; Capt Allan Fraser and wife, J D Pierce, Whitehall, New York.

METROPOLITAN RIFLE MATCH.—The Rifle match under the auspices of the Metropolian Rifle Association, which was to have taken place yesterday, did not come off, owing to some hitch in the management. A number of intending competitors filed an appearance, but were told that arrangements were not yet completed and that the match would have to stand over till after the Guard's meeting was completed, some day next week.

THE TAYLOR BURGLARY.—Wm. Riley the noted burglar, in connection with the Taylor burglary and robbery in New Edinburgh has been sentenced to seven years in the Penitentiary by Judge Lyon. This ought to serve as a warning to house-breakers and any light fingered gentry, who may chance to reside in the city. Riley is an old inmate of the penetentiary, and bids fair from his reckless behaviour to become a permanent resident of that Institution.

TRUMAN STORR.—The young man who met with his death under such painful circumstances at the Union House on Wednesday, will be interred with Military honors this afternoon at 2 o'clock. He was a member of No. 4 Company, Ottawa Garrison Artillery. He also belonged to the Orange Young Britons, Young Men's Christian Association and Good Templars, all of which organizations will no doubt be fully represented at the obsequies. The remains are to be taken to Beechwood Cemetery.

REMIT ON UNION.—The Congregation of Bank street Canada Presbyterian Church took up the question of Presbyterian Union on Wednesday evening. The Rev. Mr. Moore, Pastor of the church occupied the chair. Mr. J. H. P. Gibson, who acted as Secretary pro tem, read the Remit on Union as sent down from the General Assembly. A resolution was then put to the meeting for the adoption of the Preamble, Basis, and Resolutions, which was carried without a single dissentient voice. Thus progresses the cause of union.

INDECENT ASSAULT.—David Bowen, arrested some time ago for an indecent assault on a young girl of six or seven years of age, on Sandy Hill, was yesterday brought before Judge Lyon, he having elected to be tried summarily upon the charge for which he was indicted. He was sentenced to two months imprisonment in the common gaol, a very light punishment for so grievous an offence. Mental aberration is pleaded in justification of so trivial a punishment. Penetentiary and a periodical flogging would have been more commensurate with so heinous a crime.

ODD FELLOWS.—Mr. Henry Mattingly who met with his death so suddenly on Wednesday at the Union House, was a member of the Metropolitan Lodge of Odd Fellows of this city, at the time of his death. This benevolent Society, with the usual characteristic spirit of the order, handed to the widow of the deceased the sum of $40 to which she is entitled for funeral purposes. This she can retain however as the Carpenters and Joiners Association has guaranteed the amount of such expenses. A meeting of the order is called for this evening to make all the necessary arrangements for his funeral which takes place next Sunday afternoon.

THE TULES ON FIRE.—All over the States the tules are on fire with enthusiasm on the subject of the next and last Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, to come off November 30, 1874. Until recently it was thought that the excitement was confined to the cities and towns, but reliable accounts show that the rural districts are as much in earnest on the subject as the cities. Indeed, the fact is not surprising when it is known that this is positively the last chance which can be given and at this Concert 2,500,000 dollars in cash will be distributed to the ticket-holders in such prizes or gifts as 250,000 dollars, 100,000 dollars 50,000 dollars, 25,000 dollars, 20,000 dollars. For further information, address Governor T. E. Bramlette, Lousville, Ky. 3681.

RINK MUSIC HALL.—Last night Mr. E. H. Brink made his appearance and gave one of his best impersonations. We feel a pleasure in congratulating him in his return to the boards and he certainly gave us one of his old time impersonations. His William in Blackeyed Susan was a most energetic and natural performance and obtained the heartiest applause from his admirers. Miss McMillan achieved a decided success in her Scotch dance. The Dumb Man of Manchester was also an unqualified success. A more arduous and clever pantomimic performance we have never seen than Mr. McMillan's representation of the Dumb Man. To night is for the benefit of W. A. Gregston, when he offers a monster bill. Charles Dickens' unequalled drama of Oliver Twist. Miss McMillan in a fancy dance. Oliver Porerty, the champion American Contortionist, in his acts and a farce. Mr. E. H. Brink also appears as Bill Pikes, a character which he has made a study and in which he stands pre-eminent.

Police Court.

Before M. O'Gara, P M.

THURSDAY, Sept. 24.

Robert Patton, arraigned for being drunk and disorderly on Dalhousie street, was fined $2 and costs.

Joseph Brokenshir was up again on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was fined $5 and costs; but in default he had to go down for two weeks.

Joseph Groulx arrested on a charge of having participated in a shooting affray on Tuesday last, was remanded for further evidence.

Literary Society.

A meeting of the young men, members and adherents of Bank street Church, was held last night in that building, with a view to the promotion of a Young Men's Literary Society.

Mr. William Allan occupied the chair, and Mr. J. H. P. Gibson acted as Secretary.

A resolution was passed, organizing a Literary Society, to be composed of the young men of the Church, with a view to the mutual improvement of its members; the office-bearers to consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary-Treasurer, and a Committee of Management of seven persons.

BY LAWS.

Messrs. James Lang, Samuel Moore, J. K. Stewart, John McKinnon, and J. H. P. Gibson, were appointed a Committee to draft a Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the Association, and to report at an adjourned meeting to be held some day next week.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of office-bearers was then proceeded with, and resulted as follows:—

President, J. H. P. Gibson.
1st Vice President, James Robertson.
2nd Vice President, John K. Stewart.
Secy.-Treasurer, Robert Forgie.

MANAGING COMMITTEE.

Messrs. John McKinnon, James Lang, N. McKinnon, W. J. Robertson, S. Moore, J. Stoddard and W. M. Hutchinson.

The Rev. Mr. Moore, Pastor of the Church, was elected Patron of the Association, and the Hon. Malcolm Cameron, an honorary member.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at 8 o'clock, to receive the report of the By-law Committee.

THE UNITED WESLEYAN CONFERENCE.

SIXTH DAY.

TORONTO, Sept. 23.

Last evening there was an open meeting of the Conference for the reception of official and other representatives from several Methodist Conferences.

DR. Ryerson opened the services by giving out a hymn, and then called on the Rev. Geo. Young of Manitoba to lead in prayer.

After an appropriate speech from the chairman, he introduced the Rev. Gervase Smith, the representative of the British Conference. He handed to the President the address of the parent body, which was read by the Rev. Mr. Scott.

Mr. Smith then delivered a speech which for variety, richness and eloquence, has seldom been surpassed. It was repeatedly applauded, and all through the hour and a half was listened to with unabated interest.

The Rev. J. H. Robinson, of the New Connexion Church in England, in a frank, brotherly, warm-hearted speech gave in his adhesion to the New Church, and bespoke the continuance of kindly relations with the English New Connexion Church, which sorely regretted to lose her Canadian child, but which invoked the richest blessings on her head. For himself, he felt a little lost, but if he remained in Canada he would cast in his lot with the United Wesleyan Church.

The fine spirited speech of the Rev. Robt. Boyle, of the Primitive Methodist Conference, breathing only fraternal regard, was an evidence that in his own expressive figure the 'partition was being attenuated and the walls lowered' between the two churches.

Of like import was the friendly speech of R. Walker, Esq., of Toronto, his lay associate.

The Rev. Messrs. Gardner and Benson, of the M. E. Church, of Canada, spoke in similar strains.

As Dr. Ryerson truly remarked, the proceedings of the evening were no small advance towards a more perfectly seeing eye to eye, and let us hope to a speedy union into one Canadian Methodist Church.

The Venerable Bishop Richardson, of the same church, probably the most aged living Bishop in the world, pronounced the Benediction.

The intense and unabated interest of the audience in the services was manifested in their insisting on an address from Dr. Sangster after the Benediction was pronounced.

The General Conference had only one session to-day, and nearly the whole day was taken up with discussions on the report of the Committee on the Discipline. The constitution of the Committee to station ministers, caused great differences of opinion, and the report was adopted only in part.

A resolution was introduced expressing sympathy with the Episcopal reform movement, but it was not deemed advisable to interfere in the differences of other churches, and a motion for an indefinite postponement was carried by a large majority.

By resolution, Rev. J. H. Robinson, of the English New Connexion Conference, was invited to take part in the proceedings if he thought proper to do so.

MARRIED.

At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, in this city on the 23rd inst., by Rev. Father Dandurand, Administrator, Arthur Marrier, to Louisa, youngest daughter of the late Alexander Ethier, all of Ottawa.

At Trinity Church, Cornwall, on the 23rd inst., by the Rev. Canon Preston, assisted by the Rev. S. Gower Poole and the Rev. Arthur Jarvis, Frederick James Boswell, son of Judge Boswell, of Cobourg, to Charlotte, only daughter of the late Samuel Hart, of Cornwall.

WHOLESALE

Ready-Made

CLOTHING.

HAVING disposed of my Dry-Goods Establishment, I am now giving my personal attention to my Wholesale Ready-made Clothing Business. My stock is now ready for inspection, and will be found to compare favourably with any in the market.

Having had a long experience in the Ottawa Trade, I understand its requirements, and have my Clothing manufactured with a view to meet the wants of this market. It is my intention to keep on hand nothing but the best of Goods, both in point of quality and finish, believing as I do, that never in the history of the trade was there such a demand for a first-class article in Ready-made Clothing. I have employed

ONE OF THE BEST CUSTOM CUTTERS

Ever in this section, as Foreman.

He also has a good knowledge of the growing wants of this market. The party to whom I refer is

Mr. GEORGE DIXON

So very favourably known throughout the Ottawa Valley.

This circumstance is merely mentioned to show that it is my purpose to place in the market a class of Clothing to meet the growing tastes of the public.

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Examining Warehouse, Toronto," will be received at this Office until MONDAY the 5th day of October next, at noon, for the erection and completion of the above building. Plans and Specifications can be seen at the office of William Irving, Esq., Architect, Yonge Street, Toronto.

Contractors are notified that Tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms,—and in the case of firms—except there are attached the actual signature and the nature of the occupation and place of residence of each member of the same.

For the due fulfilment of the Contract, satisfactory security will be required on real estate or by deposit of money, public or municipal securities, or bank stocks, to an amount of five per cent on the bulk sum of the Contract.

To the Tender must be attached the actual signatures of two responsible and solvent persons residents of the Dominion, willing to become sureties for the carrying out of these conditions as well as the due performance of the work embraced in the contract.

This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender.

By order,
F. BRAUN,
Secretary.

PROVINCIAL FAIR!

Exhibition to be Held in Ottawa Next Year!

TORONTO, Sept. 25.

The Provincial Fair next year will be held in Ottawa. The question lay between Kingston and Ottawa, and was decided in favor of the latter by a decisive majority.

Canada Brewers' Association — Entomological Society — Assault — Annual Meeting

TORONTO, Sept. 23.

The weather was very fine all day, and the attendance at the Provincial Exhibition very large, about 35,000 persons being present. Hon. Alexander Mackenzie and Hon. George Brown were present. Excursion trains from the country were crowded, people riding on the platform, steps, and roofs.

The Canada Brewers' Association held their annual meeting on Monday evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—John Severn, Brockville, President; Jas. Rochester, Ottawa, Vice-President, and Jas. Taylor, St. Catherines, Secretary-Treasurer. It was resolved that the next annual meeting be held in Toronto on the second Wednesday in June next. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws.

At a meeting of the Entomological Society, Rev. J. S. Bethune was elected President; R. T. Rodgers, of Kingston, Vice-President; J. H. McMehan, of London, Secretary-Treasurer, and Wm. Saunders, London, Editor.

A man, who refused to give his name, was arrested to-day on suspicion of robbing passengers on the street cars. Nearly $2600 in Canadian and United States currency and a gold watch were found on him.

The annual meeting of the Provincial Association of Mechanics' Institutes was held this evening. Resolutions were passed that the Ontario Government should be asked to increase the annual grants to Mechanics' Institutes having over 200 members, at the rate of $50 for each additional fifty. Jas. Young, M. P., was elected President; M. Sweetman, Vice-President; W. Edward, Secretary-Treasurer, and Messrs. Begg, Ormiston, McCrae, and Klatz Executive Committee.

Entertainment—At Home—Obit—Inquest—Tour of Inspection.

QUEBEC, Sept. 23.

The Lieutenant Governor entertained the Right Hon. W. Forster, M. P., for Bradford, Sir T. Powell Buxton, Vice-Admiral Wellesley, C. B., Commander Pole, R. N., the Hon. Premier DeBoucherville and the members of the Executive Council at a dejeuneur this afternoon at Spencer Wood.

Vice Admiral Wellesley, C. B., and the Captain and officers of H. M. S. 'Bellerophon' have issued an 'At Home' to-morrow Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 6:30.

Captain John Henry Edwards, of the barque 'Neptune, of Cork, lying at Hall's booms, died last night on board his vessel, from gastritis. An inquest was held to-day.

The Coroner held an inquest this morning on the body of an old woman named Angele Labreque, who died yesterday evening at the jail. Verdict, 'Death by the visitation of God.'

J. U. Gregory, Esq., of the Marine and Fisheries Department, left yesterday in the steamer 'Secret' for Gaspe, where he will be met by the steamer 'Lady Head,' and will then proceed on a tour of inspection to the Island of Anticosti and other stations on the Lower St. Lawrence.

HAMILTON.

Cricket—Another Poisoning Case

HAMILTON, Sept. 23.

An exciting game of Cricket took place on the grounds here this afternoon between the Hamilton and London Clubs, as a return match. The Londoners were victorious by seven runs. The game was decided on the first innings.

Mr. John Lane and his two children have been poisoned in the same manner that the family of Mrs. Forsyth were, by eating fruit sweetened with sugar containing colchicum seeds. The Grocer who sold the sugar immediately recalled all that had been disposed when they discovered that it had the seeds in it.

St. JOHN, N. B.

The Great Boat Race.

St. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 23.

The final arrangements for the boat race between Brown and Morris on the 25th, have been completed. The stakes have been deposited, and Dr. Thos. Walker chosen as referee. The race is arranged to come off at seven o'clock on the morning of the 25th. The Intercolonial Railway will run special trains and the W. U. Telegraph Company are fitting up a temporary station close to the course. Both men are in condition and are practising daily. A close contest is expected.

HALIFAX.

The Wrecked Barque Anna—Medical Prosecution — The Brown Morr's Boat Race.

HALIFAX, Sept. 23.

Later reports of the wreck of the Swedish barque 'Anna,' at St. Paul's Island, on the 8th instant, state that eleven of the crew were drowned: she was driven ashore on the north side of the Island during a heavy gale. The master, mate and three seamen were thrown on the rocks on portions of the wreck and escaped, much bruised. The ship was unmanageable when she struck, the principal sails having been carried away.

The Provincial Medical Board brought an action against Dr. Edward H. Blacklee for practising as a Physician and Surgeon without being registered here; the magistrate gave a decision in favor of the Board and mulcted the Doctor in the full amount claimed, $80.

A large number will go from here to witness the boat race at St. John on Friday.

Considerable interest is being taken in the municipal election which comes on on the 1st October.

PEMBROKE.

PEMBROKE, Sept. 24.

A requisition of about four hundred names, many of them the most influential men in the North Riding of Renfrew, was presented Mr. Wm. Murray, asking him to become a candidate in the Ministerial interest. He accepted, and is likely to be elected by a large majority over White, who was unseated for corrupt practices at his last election.

SEAFORTH.

Coroner's Verdict.

SEAFORTH, Sept. 23.

The Coroner's Jury investigation into the death of David Baird, found dead in Mrs. Mulligan's shanty, returned an open verdict, and discharged the parties under arrest. Subsequently the matter was taken up by the Magistrates, and Mrs. Mulligan, Mrs. Bejard, and a man named Joseph France, who has been living with Mrs. Mulligan, were committed to Goderich jail. To-day the body was exhumed, and a post mortem examination will be held to-night.

Both engines were wrecked and the postal car attached to the western train was burnt, the fire being communicated from the lamp to the mail matter. The fire made such rapid progress that one of the postal clerks named Bradford was burnt to death and the bulk of the mail matter was destroyed. The baggage car of the same train was also burnt with the greater portion of the contents of the platforms of a number of the passenger train. None of the passengers were injured, but one of the train hands received a slight flesh wound. The west bound train had arrived at Smithton and was preparing to go on the side track when the eastern train which was behind time suddenly come up and the collision took place.

MEETING OF THE LUMBERMEN'S ASSOCIATION AT EAST SAGINAW.

Resolution Bitterly Opposing the Proposed Reciprocity Treaty.

Pursuant to a provision of the articles of association adopted by the Lumbermen's Convention at Williamsport, in June, for the organization of a National Association, a large number of lumbermen from all parts of the country assembled at the Lumbermen's Exchange, in this city, yesterday, at 2 p.m. The meeting was called to order by Vice-President Thorp, of Wisconsin, who made a very neat speech, calling attention to the importance of the questions which had called together from such widely separated districts so large a delegation of representative lumbermen, and congratulating the members of the Association on the favourable auspices under which they commence their labours.

Mr. C. V. De Land was chosen Secretary pro tem, and R. G. Horr, Treasurer pro tem. The articles of association were read, and an invitation extended to the lumbermen present to join the Association.

A motion to appoint a Committee on resolutions, consisting of nine members, was made by Mr. Estabrook.

Mr. Durand moved to amend by dividing the Committee and appointing a Committee of one from each district to suggest the necessary steps to secure a curtailment of the lumber product, and a similar Committee on the question of Reciprocity.

Mr. Price, of Wisconsin, was in favor of the original resolution, that greater scope could be secured and better results obtained.

Mr. Estabrook explained that the Committee proposed by him was not intended to interfere with the action of the Committee appointed at Williamsport.

The Chairman thought it proper to allow the regular Committee to make their report.

The Chairmen of the respective Committees stated that they would be ready to report in the morning, and the amendment of Mr. Durant having been withdrawn the original motion was adopted, and the following Committee appointed:—J. S. Estabrook, D. M. Peck, T. W. Palmer, O. H. H. Ingraham, J. W. Gaskill, C. Davis, E. S. Brown, W. T. Price, and J. H. Pearson.

The Hon. Moses W. Field, of Detroit, had been invited to address the meeting and had prepared a lengthy documentary and argumentative speech against Reciprocity, but owing to the lateness of the hour he only gave a summary of the points which were forcible arguments against the Treaty, showing that in its operation it it was all in favor of foreign countries, and owing to the Treaties with other countries, by which we are compelled to give every Government, save Spain, all the benefits conferred on the most favored, the moment we adopted Reciprocity with Canada we opened the door for free importations, closing the Custom Houses as a source of revenue, and given to the people of other countries the full benefits of our markets without any corresponding benefits. He showed that in four years the quantity of salt imported had been doubled, and the customs paid had decreased 50 per cent., and the same state of facts could be showed concerning other products. There was imported during the last fiscal year over 10,000,000 dollars worth of lumber, paying a duty of over $2,000,000, and this we were called upon to rebate. While we gain the free navigation of about 80 miles of Canadian canals, we give the benefit of over 800 miles of canals besides the benefits of unrestricted commerce on Lake Michigan. He denied that any Commission would award anything to the fisheries; there was nothing to be gained, and we received the market afforded by a poor, oppressed people, of 4,000,000, and in return give the benefit of a good market for prosperity. He denounced the whole thing as a swindle, and said its adoption would be a usurpation warranting a revolution. He gave the most emphatic assurance that the Michigan delegation would be found at their posts and a unit in opposition to the Treaty. This speech was frequently applauded, and we only regret that it could not be delivered as prepared.

Mr. G. H. Stebbins was called for and made some pointed remarks showing the disastrous consequences of the proposed Reciprocity Treaty, and closed by urging decisive action on the part of the Lumbermen.

Mr. Prince, of Wisconsin, was called on and made a telling speech against Reciprocity, after which the meeting adjourned to 10 a.m.

EAST SAGINAW, Sept 16 1874.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Lumbermen, held in this city to-day, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

RECIPROCITY.

Whereas, The Canadian Lumbermen hold large tracts of, Government pine land limits at low rates, and without risk of loss of standing timber by fire, as such losses fall upon the Government, while we must buy lands at much higher prices and incur the growing loss by fire, and

Whereas, Wages in Canada are lower than with us, and they pay no taxes to support our Government, save duties on lumber, etc., sent to this country, and are almost exempt from taxes on their own business at home, while we share the cost of supporting town and county, State and Nation; and

Whereas, The lumber industry of the United States is of great importance not only to owners of mills and timber, but to 300,000 men employed at fair wages, and to our farmers, manufacturers, and merchants, to whom it opens a profitable and large home market; therefore

Resolved, That as the so-called Reciprocity Treaty asked for by the British and Canadian official would grant men in another country our privileges, while they have no share of our burdens or risks, and thus discriminate in favour of strangers as against those of our own household, and consumers of lumber still more in the power of foreigners ready to monopolize markets and control prices for their own benefit and profit, we earnestly oppose it as unjust and dangerous to the interests of our own industry, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That the admission, duty free, of any article into the production of which American labour enters, while the articles on which that labour in whole or in part subsists are subjected to a duty, is an oppressive and unjust discrimination against the labour producing the article so admitted free.

Resolved, That the secrecy with which said scheme was developed, and the introduction of said Treaty for ratification by the Senate so near the close of the session, make it very apparent that its promoters hoped for the consummation of this iniquity before the vigilance of the people or their legislators awakened to the gravity of the question.

Resolved, That we regard with indignation the mingled audacity and insolence displayed in said treaty in the request, by a foreign power, that our Government, through its Senate, should attempt to bind the future Legislature of our country for twenty five years in the collections of its revenue under said obligation of such a treaty.

Resolved, That said treaty, if ratified, would result in the paralysis of our industrial pursuits and interests, and accomplish the invigoration of those of British America, and that while a manufacturing empire would spring up all along the border under the British flag, our workshops would be destroyed and our smokeless chimneys serve only as monuments of our folly.

Whereas, It is apparent that there is an overstock of lumber now manufactured and on the market in various sections of our country, which fact has reduced the prices so low that manufactures have received little or nothing for their timber standing in the forests, and also an unpromising outlook of our financial affairs the coming season. Unless we can reduce the amount produced, disaster and ruin must inevitably reach the whole lumber trade; therefore,

Resolved, That we do hereby pledge ourselves, individually and as an association, to use all honourable means to bring the supply of that great staple within the limits of the demand, and to that end we hereby agree to reduce the manufacture of our mills the coming season at least one-third below the amount manufactured for the last ten years; and we, as lumber manufacturers, will endeavour to make the importance in so doing so plain to all our brother lumbermen as to secure their cooperation with us in the securing of this object, provided that the spirit and practice of this resolution shall be generally agreed to among lumbermen with whose products we come in competition.

The proceedings were characterized by the utmost harmony and earnestness. There were present a large number of delegates from all leading lumbering districts of the country.

Adjourned till to-morrow.—Enterprise.

A very valuable property of eight buildings, corner of O'Connor and Albert streets, having 132 feet on Albert-st. by 99 on O'Connor, and now bringing in a rental of $1170 per annum, which can be increased. To be sold cheap and on easy terms, by J. BERMINGHAM.

That splendid property, a double brick house with stone basement, adjoining St. Alban's church Daly-st., having each six airy bedrooms, drawing room, dining room, and basement breakfast room, with kitchen, pantries, closets, stables, coach house, &c., &c. They are now rented for $500. $500 can be got for them. To be sold cheap for cash.

East half of lot 26, North side Clarence-st., with double frame building thereon. Rented for $200 per annum. Will be sold at a bargain by J. BERMINGHAM.

A handsome brick residence on Gloucester-st., Centre Town, with six good bedrooms, dining room, drawing room, kitchen, pantries, cellar, &c., &c.; good yard, and sheds recently built; well finished, having many modern improvements. Will be sold cheap.

West half of lot 27, S. Rideau-st., with a commodious and comfortable brick cottage, having five good bedrooms, parlor and sitting room, kitchen, &c. Good yard and shed accommodation. Now rented for $180 per annum. To be sold cheap by J. BERMINGHAM.

East half of lot 21, Boulton street, with two tenements rented for $ 2 per month, to be sold very cheap and on very easy terms by J. BERMINGHAM.

Lots 6 and 48 North Biddy, 41, 42 and 48 South Nepean street, all good building lots. Lots 94 South Stewart and 55 North Wilbred streets Sandy Hill, two choice lots, well situated and in a healthy and respectable locality.

A house and twenty-six acres of land about half a mile from Cumming's Bridge, township of Gloucester, Rideau front, the residence of the late Agar Yielding, Esq. The new bridge now erecting across the Rideau here, brings the property in this locality close to the city, thereby enhancing its value. This will be sold cheap by J. BERMINGHAM.

A most comfortable and commodious cottage in Rochesterville, on Rochester street, opposite the Catholic Church, having a double parlor, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, six good bed rooms, coach house, stables, sheds, closets and two extensive water tanks, all new. This property which has many recommendations will be sold cheap. The finishers are still on the premises, and if purchased at once, the buyer can have that chance of making any alterations before they leave. Will be sold a bargain by J. BERMINGHAM.

A valuable property on the corner of Preston and Spruce streets, Rochesterville, with five good dwellings; can rent for about $700 per annum. This is good property; will be found an excellent investment, and will be sold cheap by J. BERMINGHAM.

A block of land in Rochesterville, having 107 feet on Rochester street by 165 on Lydia street, with buildings thereon; this is finely situated in an elevated position, and close to the Catholic Church. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM for particulars.

100 Acres of Good Land south half of lot 28 in the fifth of Templeton, six miles from Ottawa, Sixty acres cleared; good log house, barn and stables. Will be sold a bargain by J. BERMINGHAM.

50 Acres, south half of north half of lot 16 in the ninth O. F. nine miles from Ottawa, good land and well timbered.

50 Acres of rich land, cleared and cultivated, with good orchard, dwelling and outbuildings, within about three miles of Ottawa, in the third concession Gloucester, Ottawa, front, will be sold cheap. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

200 Acres of excellent land, within four miles of the city, township of Gloucester. A big bargain.

That most valuable property known as Eastman's Springs, with ten acres of very fine land. This property is within twelve miles of the city of Ottawa, and is very valuable, not alone for the fertility of its soil, but for the numerous mineral springs with which it abounds. The quality of these springs are so well known to the people of Ottawa and surroundings, that it is unnecessary to say anything in their praise. Suffice it to say that they are admitted to be the best in this part of Canada. A little expenditure in laying out and ornamenting the grounds and building a large hotel, is all that is required to make them a most remunerative speculation and the Saratoga of Canada. The Springs consists of Saline, Sulphur, Gas, and Minerals, and are admitted to be most valuable for their curative qualities. For full particulars apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

A furnished house on Gloucester street, Centre Town, to rent. Price moderate.

A magnificent Steinway Piano, nearly new for sale. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

A Seven and a quarter octave Piano, D. P. Hale & Co., New York, quite new, to be sold cheap by J. BERMINGHAM.

TUESDAY, the 22nd Day of September, 1874,

At the hour of Noon, in one Lot, by Mr. NEIL McDONAGH, Auctioneer.

The following lands and premises, that is to say: being composed of Lot Number Fifteen, in the Eleventh Concession of the said Township of Fitzroy, containing

TWO HUNDRED ACRES,

More or less; about Fifty Acres are under cultivation. There are erected on the property two dwelling houses, a barn, stable and shed.

The property is about four miles from Fitzroy Harbour. There are two good roads, one on each end of the lot.

$800 of the purchase money can remain on mortgage at 8 per cent., half yearly, on the same terms as the mortgage under which the sale will be held. The property will be sold subject to a reserved bid.

One-tenth of the purchase money to be paid at the time of sale to Vendors' Solicitors; the balance within one month, without interest; or if the purchaser elects to give a mortgage for $800, then the balance of the purchase money, less $800, to be paid within one month without interest.

Upon payment of the purchase money, or upon execution of the Mortgage and payment of balance of purchase money, the purchaser will be entitled to his conveyance, and to be let into possession.

For further particulars and conditions of sale, apply to Messrs. HOSKIN & SPRAGGE, Solicitors, Toronto; E. A. BATES, Esq., Arnprior, and the said Auctioneer.

Dated Toronto, August 15th, 1874.

POND'S EXTRACT

ARTERIAL blood contains the elements of Vitality and Nutrition, which is emptied into the capillary system and, after supplying the required nourishment, is sucked up by the minute branches of the venous system and carried back to the lungs for vital recuperation. By reason of much that is wrong in living and medical treatment, this stream of blood flowing through the body is not always pure or free from inflammatory particles, which may pass off by insensible perspiration through the skin or with the waste matter through the intestines, but cold or wet may stop their outward escape, and the internal drainage may become inactive, when the corrupt particles are apt to coagulate, causing pestules, scalp eruptions or running sores, bronchitis &c. They may locate about a nerve, causing neuralgia, and by attaching themselves to the arterial tubes and veins, large or small, and inflaming them by their corrosive influence, cause those intensely painful sensations called Rheumatism. Nature struggles to drench out or dislodge if possible these corrosive particles, and the parts become very red from the congestion or pressure of blood therein. This is called Inflammatoro Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout. If nature does not succeed in washing out these acremonious atoms she withdraws the undue supply of blood from such parts, ceases to contend, and performs circulation as best she can; however, the passage of the blood through the affected channels still continues painful. This is Chronic Rheumatism, which may exist without its usual antecedant the Acute kind.

The above only true theory points out the correct treatment of this and other distressing maladies. Dissolve these corrupt particles that have lodged in the afflicted parts, so that in the circulation they may be carried off externally or internally, and having thus removed the cause the effect ceases.

The experiment of twenty years in the London Hospital, England, has demonstrated to the Medical Faculty of Europe, that the only medicine having control over this class of diseases, is the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!

It is the result of a lifetime of scientific study and is now for the first time offered to the Canadian public, prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

A BLESSING TO THE POLICE.

MONTREAL, 18th June, 1884.

DEVINS & BOLTON:

GENTLEMEN,—Having been one of the many martyrs of rheumatism that I meet on my every day rounds, I was induced to try the celebrated DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. I had suffered the last five or six weeks the most terrible acute pains across my loins and back, so severe indeed that I could hardly walk with the help of a stick. I commenced the Diamond Remedy—following the directions carefully. Relief came immediately with the first bottle, improved rapidly with the second, completely cured and freed from pain after finishing my fifth small bottle. You are at perfect liberty either to refer to me privately or publicly, as I feel very thankful for the relief, and sympathize with my fellow sufferers from rheumatism.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. CARDINAL,
Sanitary Police Officer,
51 Labelle street.

In simple cases, sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of two or three bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send, or it to

Marking Apparatus in the World

For Marking COTTON, SILK, WOOLLEN, and LINEN, is

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK,

Used with a Common Pen without a preparation.

This ink flows perfectly: will write as easily on the finest muslin as ink on paper. It does not dry up, and retains its virtues longer than any other ink known. It will not injure the finest fabric. Payson's ink has endured the test of forty years, and is now the most popular ink in existence and is unrivalled for uniformity, of quality, and durability. It will mark more neatly, quickly and indelibly than any other apparatus. It requires NO PREPARATION of the fabric.

Price, 37 cts. per Bottle.

Sold by all Druggists, Stationers, and Fancy-Goods Dealers.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT IN REAL ESTATE,

(By J. Bermingham.)

A Great Bargain—Lot No. 56, corner of Preston and Spruce streets, opposite post office, Rochesterville, with a good two story Brick House thereon, nearly new, with all the necessary out offices and a never failing spring, to be sold very cheap and on very easy terms. Come and inquire price, it will astonish you, it will be sold before two weeks, some one will get a big bargain from J. BERMINGHAM.

West ½ of Lot 27, south Rideau street, with a most comfortable Brick House thereon, rented for $220 per annum, has to be sold for half its value within fourteen days. It would cost nearly double as much to build the house now, as is wanted for house and ground. Such a bargain was never offered before in this city, some one should secure it at once. Apply to

J. BERMINGHAM.

Lots 37, South Maria, and 37 North Gloucester streets, 66 x 99 each, to be sold very cheap, and on very easy terms, a small sum only required down, balance in ten annual payments. There is a big speculation in this. Who will come first and purchase? One thousand dollars can be made on it before long. Apply to

J. BERMINGHAM.

A Lot 54 x 99, about 100 yards from Cumming's Bridge, outside City limits, thereby avoiding city taxation, very cheap, only $25 down, balance as may be agreed on. Apply at once to

J. BERMINGHAM,
York Street.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES OF FASHION

DRESSMAKING BEING THE ORDER OF THE TIMES.

J. W. RYAN

Has much pleasure in informing his numerous Lady customers and others that MADAME OLLIER, the celebrated Cutter and Fitter of Ladies' Garments, has arrived from her New York and Boston trip, and re-engaged with him to superintend his Dressmaking Department,

No. 234 WELLINGTON STREET

It will be remembered that Madame Ollier came direct from Boston last March to make arrangements with him, but was subsequently induced, by large offers for her valuable services, to go into an old established firm in Centre Town; but finding that she had made a change for the worse, again engaged with him. Madame Ollier's attainments in the art of Scientific Measurements enables her to ensure a perfect fit without putting her customers to the inconvenience of removing a single garment.

BERKELEY, Sept. 1869.—Gentlemen, I feel it a duty I owe to you to express my gratitude for the great benefit I have derived by taking "Norton's Camomile Pills." I applied to your agent, Mr. Bell, Berkeley, for the above named Pills, for wind in the stomach, from which I suffered excruciating pain for a length of time, having tried nearly every remedy prescribed, but without deriving any benefit at all. After taking two bottles of your valuable pills I was quite restored to my usual state of health. Please give this publicity for the benefit of those who may thus be afflicted.—I am, sir, yours truly, HENRY ALLPASS.—To the Proprietors of NORTON'S CAMOMILE PILLS. 2805

JOB MOSES' FEMALE PILLS.

This well known medicine is no imposition but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, they contain nothing hurtful to the constitution.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, those pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron calomel, antimony or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully reserved.

For full particulars, obtain free, of the agent a pamphlet, or refer to advertisement.

JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR.

$1.00 and 12½ cents for postage, enclosed to Northop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agents for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills return mail.

For sale by all druggists. 25

Electric Oil Thomas' Excelsior Eclectric — Worth Ten Times in Weight in Gold.

Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures Catarrh, Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. J. Collard, of Sparta, Ontario, writes 'send me 6 dozen Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful.' William Maguire, of Franklin, writes, 'I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes spendidly now.' H. Cole, of Ionia, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Electric Oil, I am nearly run out: nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes —"Send at once a further supply of Electric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well, and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes—"Send me some more Electric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reed, Ulverton, P.Q., writes—"The Electric Oil is getting a great reputation here, and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay." Lemoyne, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P. O., write—"Send us one gross Electric Oil. We find it to take well."

Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 5 cents.

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

In aid of the

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.

DAY FIXED AND A FULL DRAWING ASSURED,

—ON—

MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE FOR

An Easy Fortune.

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned, that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed, and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 31st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that is the last which will ever be given under this charter and by the present management.

That it will positively and unequivocally take place as announced, on

MONDAY, 30TH NOVEMBER,

That the music will be the best the country affords, and that

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The New York Tribune.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF ITALY! so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemburg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c, under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to re-assert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the everchanging phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Tribune, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century scepticism and secularism on the other. Recognising a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionised through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed reform, the Tribune will devote its best energies regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL. The distinctive character ist which have gained for DR. DE JONGH'S Oil so much celebrity, the entire confidence of the most eminent members of the Medical Profession, and notwithstanding the active and unscrupulous opposition of many interested dealers, an unprecedented amount of public patronage may be thus concisely enumerated:—

I.—Its genuineness, purity, and uniform strength are ascertained and guaranteed.

II.—It contains all the active and essential principles that therapeutic experience has found to be the most effective in the operation of the remedy.

III.—It is palatable, easily taken, and creates no nausea.

IV.—It is borne with facility by the most delicate stomach and improves the functions of digestion and assimilation.

V.—Its medicinal properties and remedial action have been found to be immeasurably greater than those of any other kind of Cod Liver Oil.

VI.—From the unequalled rapidity of its curative effects, it is infinitely more economical than any which is offered, even at the lowest price.

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST.

The extraordinary virtues of DR. DE JONGH'S Light Brown Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Consumption may now be considered as fully established. No remedy so rapidly restores the exhausted strength, improves the nutritive functions or produces a more marked and favorable influence on the local malady.

The following high testimony to the efficacy of DR. DE JONGH'S COD LIVER OIL in Consumption is afforded by ALLEN G. CHATTAWAY, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., of Leominster:—

"Having for some years extensively used DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, both in public and private practice, I have no hesitation in stating its effects are very far superior to those of any other Cod Liver Oil. Nearly four years since, two cases of confirmed Consumption were placed under my care. In both, the lungs were a mass of tubercular deposit, and every possible sound to be heard in phthisis was present. The sole remedy employed was DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL; and now the patients are strong and fat; the diseased (abnormal) sounds nearly inaudible; and in the one case (male), hunting, fishing, and shooting, are freely indulged in, the patient expressing himself quite capable of undergoing as much fatigue as any of his fellow sportsmen."

GENERAL DEBILITY AND EMACIATION.

In cases of prostration and emaciation, where the vital forces are reduced, and where life appears to be even at its lowest ebb, the restorative powers of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL are remarkably manifested. By its administration the natural appetite is revived, and the functions of digestion and assimilation are improved, reanimated, and regulated; and, when its use has been steadily preserved in, its peculiar tonic and nutritive properties have entirely restored health and strength to the most feeble and deteriorated constitutions.

The actual benefit derived is thus described by ROWLAND DALTON, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., District Medical Officer at Bury St. Edmunds:—

"In giving my opinion of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, I have no hesitation in saying that I have not the slightest confidence in any other kind. The effects of DR. DE JONGH'S OIL are sure and most remarkable, especially in that broken down state of health and strength which usually precedes and favors tubercular deposit; and I never recommend any other sort. The Oil I have had from you was for my own use, and it has certainly been the only means of saving my life on two occasions, and even now, when I feel 'out of condition,' I take it, and like it, unmixed with anything, as being the most agreeable way. I could wish that DR. DE JONGH'S OIL would come into general use, and entirely supersede the Pale and other worthless preparations."

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From innumerable medical and scientific opinions of the highest character in commendation of DR DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, the following are selected:—

Sir Henry Marsh, Bart., M.D., Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I consider Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil to be a very pure Oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

Dr. David Smith, F.R.S., Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light Brown Oil supplied by Dr. De Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the Oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst so much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness." (Extract from "Consumption: its early and Remediable Stages.")

Dr. Barlow, F.R.S., Sen Physician to Guy's Hosp.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure Oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use that substance is indicated."

Dr. Lawrence, Physician to H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

"I invariably prescribe Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil in preference to any other, feeling assured that I am recommending a genuine article and not a manufactured compound in which the efficacy of this invaluable medicine is destroyed."

Sir Joseph Olliffe, M.D., Physician to the British Embassy at Paris.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, and I have every reason to be satisfied with its beneficial and salutary effects."

Lankester, F.R.S., Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this Oil is secured in its preparation by the personal attention of so good a Chemist and intelligent a Physician as Dr. De Jongh, who has also written the best Medical Treatise on the Oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

THE ROYAL READERS.

A NEW SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED ENGLISH READING-BOOKS.

From Mr. M. Patterson, Rector of the Free Church Training School; Moray House, Edinburgh.

"Thanks for the Specimen of your new Reading Books and Sheets. They are admirable in every particular. Nothing, in my opinion, would more contribute to the improvement of Education than the wide circulation of these books, and the intelligent handling of them."

From A. Montgomerie, L.L.D., Principal of Ladies' College Glasgow.

"I have examined very carefully the 'Printing,' and Nos. I., II., and III. of the Royal Readers, and have no hesitation in saying that they are, in my opinion, incomparably the best English Reading-books that have ever been published. The adaptation of the means to the end in view is perfect."

From T. Morrison, M.A., Rector of the Free Church Normal School, Glasgow.

"I have very carefully examined the Royal Readers. The plan is excellent, and the execution, if I may say so, even better. They are out of sight the best series of Reading-books published and should very speedily be widely used. The illustrations constitutes an admirable features and add much to the value of the Readers

Caution.

PANCREATIC EMULSION.

The efficacy of these Medicines in the treatment of Indigestion, Bronchitis or Pulmonary Catarrh, Consumption, Wasting, &c., &c., depending entirely upon their purity and strength, Messrs SAVORY & MOORE caution the public against imitations of them which set forth as possessing the remedial properties of the true preparations, but which are in reality either saponaceous compounds, ointments or pomades, without a trace of the Pancreatic principle and entirely unfit and useless as medicines. These imitations are calculated to produce serious disappointment and to seriously affect the reputation which the Genuine Pancreatine and Pancreatic Emulsion have acquired. It is therefore highly important that purchasers examine the label on the bottles for the names and Trade Mark

"SAVORY & MOORE,"

The Original and only Manufacturers, Chemists to the Queen, H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, H.I.M. Napoleon the Third, His Highness the Khedive of Egypt, &c.

143 NEW BOND STREET, LONDON.

Extract from an Analytical Report upon a Foreign Specimen of a so-called Preparation of Pancreatine.

"This compound resembled an ointment or Pomade in appearance and consistency, and was flavored with Essence of Almond or Prussic Acid. It was strongly alkaline, indicating free alkali, which, acting upon the fat, produced the usual saponifying result; the whole forming a granular moist mass of fat, soap, glycerine and water. This ointment was physically and chemically different from the true Pancreatic Emulsion which I have also examined, and which, besides being rich in Pancreatic juice, has the delicate smooth appearance and consistency of fresh cream, is palatable and readily taken."

WEST MIDDLESEX.

Glencoe Demonstration—Great Speech by Hon. Mr. Fraser.

[Concluded.]

We required as much as possible the development of our Provincial interests, the development of our back country, and of all those other interests which must be nurtured, if we would keep this Province of Ontario at the head of the march of progress. (Cheers.) But he was gratified to be able to announce that after allowing for all these charges and liabilities, either for railway aid, distribution amongst the municipalities, or drainage and after meeting this year's expenditure, there would still be in hand a surplus of fully a couple of millions (cheers), and this without taking into account the large asset of between two and three millions belonging to the Province and now held by the Dominion but which the Opposition, in their patriotic zeal for Ontario interests and Ontario credit here and abroad, were endeavoring to make out was only a myth. (Cheers.) Mr. Rykert at St. Thomas was this:—"The Grits knew their time was nearly up, and hence they were trying to spend every dollar they had. When their successors got into office they would find the magnificent sum of $18 left to divide." In face of the actual facts that statement carried with it its own commentary. Upon the truth or falsity of a statement that only $18 of the surplus of Ontario was now left, even Mr. Rykert might hesitate to come to judgment. But after all they had heard from the Opposition since they left the Ontario House last session, one would have thought that men who talked so loudly as they had, who had denounced the Government so furiously, who had preached to the country so frequently that the present occupants of the Treasury benches were the worst set of corruptionists that ever had a hand in Government affairs, would have covered the journals of the House last session with resolutions condemning them. Would they believe that from the beginning to the end of the session those gentlemen made only four motions, all told, relating to the financial affairs of the Province, and that the effect of all these motions when they took the actual dollars and cents into consideration, was to ask the Government to increase the expenditure that they were proposing for 1874 by a total of about 10,000 dollars? (Cheers). One of these motions, which which were to be found on page 232 of the journals, proposed to strike out of the appropriations a sum of $3,000, which had nothing to do with the nominal expenditure of the year, but was a sort of accidental item. It was given to John Montgomery in satisfaction of his claim on the Province for alleged losses. He claimed a large amount for property lost by him during the rebellion, and it was shown that there had been an investigation of his claim many years ago, and that it had been found to be valid in part. The Government thought it would be a fair thing, under all the circumstances, to give him 2,600 dollars, and they put that sum in the estimates. Another item which they asked the Government to reduce, without giving any special reason for it, was one that referred to the Central Prison. The Government were asking for the completion of the Central Prison a sum of 41,690 dollars, and these gentlemen, without showing where any saving could be made, or suggesting how any reduction could possibly be effected, asked them in a resolution, which would be found on page 227, to reduce it to 25,000 dollars, thus making a proposed saving of about 16,000 dollars. The other motion, to be found on page 226, asked the House to condemn the Government because they hadd not placed in the estimates a sum of 30,000 dollars to pay criminal witnesses. The only other matter on which they made a motion was on the question for concurrence in the vote for immigration, to be found on page 228, and on that item coming up in the House a motion was made by Mr. Boultbee. He moved to this effect:—

"That although this House is willing to vote all sums necessary for the public service, it cannot but regret that the Public Accounts of the past year, as well as the estimates submitted at the present session, show an expenditure tending towards an excess of expenditure over revenue, and a consequent diminution of the surplus accumulated by the late Government, and this House is of the opinion that the public interest renders it imperative that the financial affairs of this Province shall for the future be so conducted that the estimated expenditure shall not exceed the income."

It so happened that a supporter of the Government, Mr. Hardy, moved an appropriate amendment to this motion of Mr. Boultbee's. Mr. Hardy's amendment was:—'That this House desires to express its wish that the Government shall not, during the current year, relax its efforts to encourage emigration to this Province.' Mr. Boultbee, on the division, bolted—ran out of the House, and did not stay to vote for his own motion; but Mr. Gifford, his seconder, remained to do—what?—to vote for the amendment of Mr. Hardy. All the members of the Opposition present, including Mr. Rykert, voted for the amendment thus endorsing the action of the Government in referrence of immigration, and by the same vote refusing in effect to endorse Mr. Boultbee's resolution. Every member voted "yes," and not one voted 'nay.' When, therefore, it was thus proven that these gentlemen did not dare, by their votes in the House, to say that the Government had expended too much, he was doing no more than the fair thing in saying that there was nothing in what they had told the people but claptrap. [Cheers.] But however much they had condemned them on these points they had not dared to say that their legislation had been bad; they had not been able to place a finger on any act of the Liberal Government of Ontario which had not been beneficial to the Province. The Municipal Loan Fund Act was of itself a grand measure for any Administration to make a record. [Cheers]. The Government had sought as far as they could to make elections pure, although it suited the Opposition now to sneer at the Reform party, and say that because some of their friends had been unseated they were never in favor of purity of election. He [Mr. Fraser] had never pretended to say that money had not been spent upon their side, but they had been anxious year after year and Parliament after Parliament to make the law so stringent that bribery should not prevail, and that election petitions should be tried before judges instead of partisan Election Committees. They had been anxious to put down corruption by the law of the land, and the other side were not. The had in a great measure made it necessary to carry out elections purely, and by nothing more than by that grand measure the ballot. [Cheers]. Their opponents said they would be losers by putting the Ballot Act in force, but the Reform part was what it had always been, holding principle higher than expediency. [Cheers]. It might have been an an expedient thing for any Government to prefer open voting, but looking all that fairly in the face they found that there was a grand principle to be carried out, and they were equal to the emergency and did not shrink from it. So, too, they had dealt with the income franchise, so too with the voters' lists, and so they had introduced important amendments to several existing laws, such as the Stamp Act relating to Division Courts, making these people's courts cheaper. (Hear, hear.) The people who talked about direct taxation were talking the direst nonsense. If one could live here a hundred years he would find direct taxation would be as far off as it was now, so it was now, so far as the affairs of the Province were concerned. (Hear, hear.) The Government had also made it less expensive for the young fellows to get married. [Laughter.] Where it used to cost almost a week's wages, it now cost only about a day's pay. [Laughter.] And on this point he would say a word or two to his Catholic friends. There had been for many years a question as to the legal validity of some of their marriages—not of course as to their validity in the eyes of the Church, but as to their validity before the law. This Administration had settled that matter once and for ever, and all these marriages had now been made straight and right. Although the Conservatives had been in power for twenty years in this Province, and had the support of a great number of his (Mr. Fraser's) co-religionists, they had never passed such a law, but had left the matter uncertain all those years. He found that those members of the Opposition intimated at all their meetings that his Catholic friends should follow no such person as the present Commissioner of Public Works, but should adhere to the straight old Tory ranks. Owing to the peculiar position to the Separate School matter years since his Catholic friends and himself might have been looked with umbrage at a great deal that was said and printed in connection with that subject at that time, but they should remember that long before that they and the Protestant Reformers of this country were together fighting the battle of civil and religious liberty, (cheers), and but for that alliance they might to this day have had a State Church in this country as Ireland had till lately. But for that union they would not have had the secularization of the clergy reserves and many other good measures, and, though there was some question about separate schools, they, at least, had no great reason to complain of its solution. Their place now was the old one, by the side of the Reformers. If they enjoyed civil and religious equality under the laws here, it was due to the grand efforts of the Reformers in old days and its preservation was safe in their hands now. (Cheers). He fancied, at all events, that Catholics would be more likely to trust to his judgment and his advice than that of Mr. Rykert, Mr. Boultbee, and Mr. Lauder. (Cheers and laughter). He warned his Catholic friends against making themselves hewers of wood and drawers of water any longer to the men who had just gone out of power after holding it for twenty years. (Cheers.) They might rely on it that he would only remain in office so long as his co-religionists got fair play. They were getting fair play now from the Reform party, and he believed there was not a liberal Protestant in this country who would not wish them to have that fair play. (Loud cheers) Unfortunately, they had for years been helping to build up an organization, only to have its heel set upon their necks, and he hoped they would do so no longer. (Cheers.) If his Catholic friends throughout the Province thought that he (Mr. Fraser) in any way deserved the position he held, he hoped they would support the men who would go to Toronto to support the present Ontario Government, and not those who would go there to pull it down.

The hon. gentleman resumed his seat amid enthusiastic cheering.

THE TULES ON FIRE.—All over the States the tules are on fire with enthusiasm on the subject of the next and last Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, to come off November 30, 1874. Until recently it was thought that the excitement was confined to the cities and towns, but reliable accounts show that the rural districts are as much in earnest on the subject as the cities. Indeed, the fact is not surprising when it is known that this is positively the last chance which can be given and at this Concert 2,500,000 dollars in cash will be distributed to the ticket-holders in such prizes or gifts as 250,000 dollars, 100,000 dollars 50,000 dollars, 25,000 dollars, 20,000 dollars. For further information, address, Governor T. E. Bramlette, Louisville, Ky. 3681.

FALL IMPORTATIONS.—N. Faulkner, sign of the Maple Leaf, Sussex street, will offer for sale from Tuesday, 22nd inst., 500 Ladies' Waterproof Mantles, 40 per cent. below cost. Large stock of Ladies' Underclothing, to be sold without reserve. 100 pieces Hoyle's prints at 13 cents; 100 pieces Ashton prints, at 12½ cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 17 cents for 13 cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 20 cents for 17½ cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 27½ cents for 23 cents; 200 pieces home-made flannel, worth 55 cents for 45 cents; 50 dozen Men's grey woollen drawers and shirts, worth $1 for 80 cents; 50 dozen Men's flesh-coloured drawers and shirts, worth $1.25 for $1.00 A complete assortment of Dry Goods and Millinery on hand, selling at a small advance over cost, owing to the scarcity of money. A call is respectfully solicited, and an inspection of the stock before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the place, Sign of the Maple Leaf. 3679.

BRAIN WORRY.—Many of us pray to be delivered from sudden death, and do we not worry ourselves into it? And if we do can we not help it? "Men do not really die of Heart Disease as often as it is supposed, but of Apoplexy, or Congestion of the Lungs, so they do not die of brain work, but BRAIN WORRY. Scott died of it, Southney, Swift, Horace Greeley, and probably Thackeray."—London Times. As brain worry induces premature dissolution by its depressing influence upon the general nervous health, by eating the brain faster than the waste is repaired, and as the means of sustaining and increasing nervous health is no longer impossible; those who suffer the debilitating influence of mental anguish or extreme mental fatigue, need only resort to the preparation of Hypophosphites invented by Mr. Fellows, as that will conduct the subject safely over the rapids of despair, and create in him strength to grapple with every difficulty. This is no idle assertion but an established fact. 3671

INFLAMATION OF THE LUNGS.—Clifton, N. B., 17th February, 1872. Sir: In behalf of my family, I wish to acknowledge a debt of gratitude I owe Mr. James I. Fellows. My daughter had been ill with inflammation of the Lungs, had raised large quantities of blood and purulent matter, attended with every symptom of Consumption. After obtaining the attention of two eminent physicians, who afforded her no relief, she was persuaded to try Fellows Syrup of Hypophosphites. Upon taking two bottles we had every reason to believe she would be cured. Her physicians were surprised to find her improvement so rapid, and advised her to continue its use, which she did until her complete recovery. Two years have elapsed, during which time she has neither taken nor required any medicine, enjoying good health, and urges all who are afflicted with any Lung or Chest trouble to use the Hypophosphites without fail. My wife, also having been in bad health for some time, and having had Typhoid Fever in December last, which left her much prostrated, was advised by the physicians to use this remedy to build her up. Before taking half a bottle she found herself much benefited, and still continues to use it. I believe, under kind Providence, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has been the means of restoring both my wife and daughter, and I hope the afflicted will avail themselves of its use, for although it is widely used, I think its value is not appreciated. Yours truly, JOSEPH A. EVANS. 3677

Every one who has 50 cents to spend should take it to T. E. Moore's Novelty Cheap Sale, 72 Sparks street. He will offer cheaper bargains the next three days than ever. 2580

The Ottawa Times

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1874.

Mr. George A. Drummond writes to us from Montreal to say that in our reference to him in the THE TIMES of Wednesday, we were in error. He states that he is not now, nor has he ever been a Director of the Pyrites Company, nor has he had anything to do with its inception or management.

THE TORY CONVENTION.

We called attention, yesterday, to the fact that a clause dealing with the question of "special privileges," was inserted in the platform of the Tory Convention at Toronto. We now learn that this clause was dropped before the meetings of the Convention were opened to the press, on the ground that it clashed with those very interests which we mentioned as having been espoused by the quartette during the last session of the Ontario Legislature. It never came up for discussion in the presence of reporters; no mention of the subject was made in public; the resolution was not submitted to the meeting at which the others were formally adopted, nor does it now appear in the "platform" at all. But there must have been some sinister intention hidden under it, and its publication in Tory papers, in view of its suspicious withdrawal, shows the lack of good sense which marks the conspirators: we call them conspirators, for they followed the example of Dr Tupper and his friends at Halifax, and held their meetings with closed doors. Surely no such secresy was necessary if their discussions threatened no truly loyal institution of the country, or had no base designs upon any portion of our population. If they were not conspiring against the peace of the Dominion, what were they doing? Why was the "special privileges" resolution proposed, and why was it withdrawn? These are questions which will soon have to be answered at the polls. The people, they may be assured, will not forget to ask them. We are convinced that whoever they may be whose interests the said resolution was intended to affect, the simple fact of its being dropped is no proof that the sinister purposes it had in view were at all altered. That there is to be a Tory war upon some class in the community we assert without hesitation, and the fact of that resolution being cut out, so far from being a proof that the war will not be proceeded with forthwith, is only the clearest proof conceivable that it will be just exactly the opposite way, and that it will take shape, too, of the knife of the cowardly assasin who only strikes in the dark. Truth to tell, there is a smell of powder about the whole thing—a lack of manliness and straightforwardness which excites the profound suspicion. For cowardice and braggadocio, commend us to the true blue Tory.

INSUFFICIENT SCAFFOLDING.

On reference to another column, it will be seen that a correspondent indignantly calls attention to the continual sacrifice of life resulting from insufficient scaffolding; and to the character of the proceedings at the inquiry into the cause of the fearful accident of Wednesday. We heartily endorse much—indeed all—that he says upon the question, and cannot help regarding it as a disgrace to humanity that the law permits the erection of these structures—dangerous to life and limb at best, and even when erected on the most careful and sufficient principle—without being subject to some sort of official inspection, and according to defined specifications. It is only when we are brought face to face with such heartrending calamities as that witnessed the other day that we are properly impressed with the importance of the subject. Ottawa, however, has been in the presence of accidents of a similar nature frequently enough within the past year or two to give the subject something more than a passing interest. Our sympathy wells out just now very properly to the friends and relations of the unfortunate victims, but we have forgotten that there are those in our midst who may have by similar catastrophes in the past deprived of their only means of support, and who may be bewailing their untimely losses in the midst of a poverty and wretchedness which can command no sympathy because no startling occurrence brings them prominently before the public. The heart would be hard indeed that refused to ache sympathetically for the poor heartbroken parents of the young man Storr. We believe the scene at the funeral yesterday was perfectly heartrending. A deeper feeling still must be excited regarding the case of the helpless widow Mattingly and her tender children, left alone and unprovided for in a strange land and among strange and unknown people. The sympathy of long tried and trusted friends—and who can overestimate the importance of that sympathy to those who have been suddenly and without warning deprived of their nearest and dearests?—is even beyond their reach. A more forlorn condition it would be impossible to conceive or one more calculated to inspire with pity every one who hears the story. A gentleman of some prominence suggested to us yesterday afternoon the propriety of starting a subscription to assist Mrs. Mattingly in whatever endeavors she may be able to make on behalf of her fatherless children, and we are glad to see that a similar suggestion has been made to and favorably received by our contemporary the Citizen. We have no doubt that an object so humane will not be allowed to fail of accomplishment, either on account of apathy on the part of the public or want of those who are ready and willing to become trustees or collectors of the fund. A dollar or two of a subscription would be no great tax upon an ordinary citizen, and a very great help to the distressed, which is a necessary consequence of the ill-starred disaster.

But the individual suffering, however much it may demand our attention in the meantime, does so more on account of its cause than of its simple existence. If enquiry were made we have little hesitation in asserting that there would be much privation found to exist in our midst arising from causes equally beyond the control of the sufferers, and with as little means of relief. What we are most concerned about is the system, which is fraught with consequences so fatal. For many years the number of accidents, frightful and deadly in their character, which arose from boiler explosions was such as to attract public attention to it, and set legislation thinking as to how they could best provide some means of checking both the number and the enormity of the disasters which resulted. Now we have a regular system of official inspection of boilers and steam engines, provided for at the public expense, to which every structure of that nature must be submitted, and the effects have been certainly most marked and beneficial. Why should we not have the principle extended so as to apply, not only to scaffolds, but to erections of every kind, the stability of which is necessary to the safety and preservation of the lives of men who are engaged upon them. Something ought to be done and must be done to put an end to this continual sacrifice of human life—a sacrifice which is made simply because of the cupidity of contractors or the carelessness of their employees. We might here take occasion to remark, as our correspondent has done, upon the sinister farce of instituting an inquiry into the matter by the coroner, and the result of which was the impotent verdict arrived at by the jury. If Coroner's inquests have become simply official white-washing machines, whose only power or purpose is to clear from the consequences of their delinquency parties responsible for the erection and maintenance of such traps for the destruction of unsuspecting human beings, it would be well that the public should know it. It is all very well to dilate upon the difficulty of finding out in what way such untoward occurrences happen. If to ascertain this were not attended with difficulty, if searching inquiry were not necessary, if those who are responsible for them did not usually take shelter behind subterfuges which only strict and keen scrutiny could remove, it would be a manifest absurdity to put the public to the expense and inconvenience of Coroner's inquests at all. What a cruel mockery it was to deprive the sorrowing parents of poor young Storr, and the half-frantic widow of Mattingly of the custody of the mortal remains of their departed dearones for such a length of time—a poor solace to be sure, but, nevertheless, a desirable one—and after all only for the purpose of arriving at the important conclusion that it was impossible to tell who was the author of their bereavement. We have no desire to cast any undue reflection upon any one concerned, but this we know and do say, that a deplorable accident has occurred in our midst; that without a moment's notice two men, in the best of health and the prime of life, have been hurled into eternity; that a wife and a helpless young family have been deprived by these means of their only support, while an aged father and mother have been ruthlessly robbed of a promising, and, we believe helpful son; and the means provided by the law for ascertaining how this occurred have so entirely failed of their purpose that a jury has simply declared, after taking evidence, that they know practically nothing about it except what everybody else knows that it occurred. If this be satisfactory to the public, to satisfy them must be easy; and they may be assured that the same information will often be vouchsafed them.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Deaths from Falling Scaffolds.

To the Editor of THE TIMES;

SIR,—I must say that I have read with pain the report in your paper of the proceedings at the inquest, respecting the death of two unfortunate men by the breaking of a scaffold on Wednesday afternoon. There is not a year passes in which we have not deaths in the Dominion from such causes. I have myself seen most painful cases in Toronto and Montreal.

In my opinion both the inquiry at the inquest and also the verdict were insufficient. A well constructed scaffold of sound materials would not break and suddenly plunge men into eternity, and their families into unspeakable misery. If the scaffold in question had been sound and properly constructed and afterwards "tampered with" as, according to your reporter, was the opinion of persons at the inquest, then that fact should have been rigorously inquired into. But this hypothesis seems to me difficult to admit; for it would presuppose malice of a nature almost too devilish to believe, unless prompted by some overpowering motive. Nothing of this sort appears, or in fact can be imagined.

The natural inference therefore, is, that the two unfortunate men were done to death either from carelessness in building the scaffold, or from building it with rotten materials; and it seems to me to be a perfect mockery that the only persons examined on this point at the inquest should be precisely those who had interest to conceal any defects, namely, the individual workman employed in putting it up and the contractor himself. An enquiry stopping at this point is not only a mockery of justice, but a scandalous and disgraceful outrage in the face of these facts.

I have heard it stated that nails were used in the construction of the broken scaffold only 1¼ inch in length. However this may be every circumstance connected with the construction, including the sufficiency of the materials, ought to have been carefully enquired into.

My own opinion has long been that we shall have unsuspecting workmen yearly sacrificed from falling scaffolds, and their families plunged into misery, unless some means can be devised or law passed which shall make both contractors and foremen of works responsible.

CITY AND VICINITY

GUARDS' RIFLE MATCH.—The Guards' Rifle Meeting commences at the Rideau rifle range this morning, at 9 o'clock. A lively competition is anticipated.

AMERICAN YACHT.—A very handsome little steam yacht, flying the Stars and Stripes, arrived yesterday from the River St. Lawrence, via Kingston, and is anchored in the Canal Basin.

THE TURF.—A trotting match will take place next week on the Perth Course, between 'Baulky Bill,' owned by Mr. Jackson, of Carleton Place, and Mr. James Connolly's mare of this city, for $200 a side.

REWARDED.—The popular and enterprising butchers Messrs. Satchell Bros., have taken at the Provincial Fair 1st prize and silver cup for best pair of fat cattle; 1st for best fat ox or steer, and third for the same class.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A woman was thrown from a buggy last week while attending the Perth races, through the carelessness of the driver. Her skull was fractured so badly that she has since died from the effects of the injuries sustained.

OTTAWA RIVER NAVIGATION COMPANY.—The Steamer "Queen Victoria," employed during the former part of the season in running between Ottawa and L'Orignal has been withdrawn, thereby discontinuing the Saturday afternoon trips.

SOUTH RENFREW AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY—The annual exhibition of the South Renfrew Agricultural Society will be held on the new grounds of the Society in the Village of Renfrew on Tuesday and Wednesday, 6th and 7th of October, when about $1,000 will be offered in prizes.

"LITTLE MRS. ——."—Those who have any curiousity to see the "Little Mrs ——." picture, which has been the subject of so much discussion and excitement throughout Ontario, may have a view of it, free of charge, at Wilson & Bros., Store, Sparks Street, to day. Do not fail to call, as it will be on exhibition for one day only.

THE LAST DAY.—Bargains greater than ever, gold watches, silver watches, gold chains, travelling bags, dressing cases, singing bird, cigar stands, ladies companions, elegant gold sets and an immense variety of useful and fancy articles to be had for 50 cents each, at L. E. Moore, 72 Sparks Street. Do not fail to attend.

THE LAST DAY.—Bargains greater than ever, gold watches, silver watches, gold chains, travelling bags, dressing cases, singing bird, cigar stands, ladies companions, elegant gold sets and an immence variety of useful and fancy articles to be had for 50 cents each, at L. E. Moore, 72 Sparks Street. Do not fail to attend.

THE LOST LUMBER BARGE.—It is pleasing to know that the Hon. James Skead has not met with so serious a loss by the burning of the barge near Montreal as at first reported. It is notwithstanding bad enough, especially as the stuff was uninsured. The capacity of the barge was only 150 000 feet, and she was loaded with third class deals, and they are nothing like so valuable as those of first quality.

BASE BALL.—To-day, at one o'clock, the 'Almonte Club' and the 'Hurons' of this city will play on the Base Ball Grounds, foot of Elgin street, after which the 'Prescott's' and 'Ottawas' will engage in a game. The 'Prescott's' have attained the reputation of being a first class amatuer club having defeated the 'Ogdensburg's' in a match recently played in the latter city. This will doubtless prove an exciting and interesting game.

THE "CONQUEROR'S" SOCIAL.—The friends of the "Conqueror" Hose Company, will be gratified to learn that the sale of tickets for the Social to be held in the Rink Music Hall on the 6th of October, progresses most favourably. It is expected that the affair will be one of the most successful of the kind ever held in the city. Tickets can be purchased of any member of the Company.

ANOTHER SCAFFOLD BREAKS.—A rumour was current yesterday to the affect that another scaffold had fallen from a building being erected in Rochesterville, and that two men, who had fallen a distance of 30 feet, were seriously hurt. It was thought the accident of Wednesday would have acted as a warning in this direction, but it now really seems that some more effective system must be adopted to compel contractors to build proper scaffolds.

HURON AND QUEBEC RAILWAY.—A large meeting of the ratepayers of village of Richmond was held in the Town Hall on Wednesday evening the 23rd inst., Mr. W. H. Butler, reeve of the village in the chair. Mr. Fowler laid before the meeting the new railway project which fully met the approval of the meeting. A resolution was passed asking the Corporation to grant a bonus of $10,000 towards aiding the enterprise.

ON DIT:—That Dr. Mostyn will be the Conservative candidate for North Lanark at the approaching election. The Reformers are, however, on the alert and are already organizing for the contest. A series of meetings are being called in different parts of the County with a view to selecting delegates for the Convention shortly to be held to nominate a candidate. Dr. Mostyn is a popular man and a good sort of fellow, but he will be leading a forlorn hope, if he expects to place North Lanark under the bann of Toryism.

CRICKET—GRAND MATCH.—A match, probably the last this season, will be played to-day on the Rideau Hall ground, between an English Eleven and a Canadian Eleven. Unusual preparations have been made to make this, the closing match, an exciting one. Both Elevens are very strong, and some excellent playing may be anticipated. The splendid Band of the Governor General's Foot Guards will be in attendance from 3 to 6 p. m. We hope to be able to chronicle the result of a very fine game. Wickets to be pitched at 11 a.m.

THE SHOW FAIR IN ALMONTE.—Our readers will bear in mind the big Agricultural and Arts Show Fair to be held in Almonte on Tuesday and Wednesday next, 29th and 30th September. This Exhibition is expected to be the best of the kind ever held in the County. A sum of over $1,000 is set apart to be distributed in prizes, and in addition special prizes will be given to all articles worthy of merit, although not on the prize list. The Directors probably have done wrong in only charging 10cts to see such an exhibition as expected; twenty five cents would be little enough to pay to see such a display of the products of our county as will be on exhibition on those days.

A NIGHT IN THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF COMMONS. This is the subject of a lecture to be delivered on Monday evening in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Metcalf Street, by Professor Allan Curr, Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, London, England. The lecture will include amusing and descriptive sketches of its manners and men taken from personal knowledge and observations, including John Bright, Gladstone, Disraeli, &c. Professor Curr has delivered the lecture in nearly every town in England, Scotland and Ireland, and in several cities of America, and is spoken of by the public press as one of the most exciting, interesting and amusing lectures ever delivered. Tickets can be obtained at Durie's and Henderson's Book stores.

C. O. O. F.—At an emergent meeting of the Metropolitan Lodge of Odd Fellows, held last night, a resolution of condolence and sympathy to the widow of the late Henry Mattingly was passed. It was also decided to attend his funeral in regalia with the usual crape on the arm, as a badge of mourning. A band will also be in attendance. The Sister Lodge of the I. O. O. F. have also expressed their intention of joining in with their brethren of the Canadian Order in the obsequies

PRAISEWORTHY.—Mr. H. V. Noel has handed to Mr. Slocombe, Treasurer of the St. George's Society, the sum of ten dollars as a donation for the benefit of the widow and family of the late Mr. H. Mattingly, who met with his death under such painful circumstances at the new wing of the Union House on Wednesday last. This act on the part of Mr. Noel is well worthy of emulation by such of our citizens as are disposed to deal charitably with a family that have been subjected to a sad bereavement.

GUN ACCIDENT.—Mr. Egerton McConnell, son of Mr. Richard McConnell, met with a somewhat serious misfortune from a gunshot wound received while out shooting on Thursday afternoon. It would seem that he was drawing his gun over a log in the woods and the piece discharged in an accidental manner, lodging its contents in the right arm. It was shattered in the most fearful manner. Dr. Church was sent for and attended to the dressing of the wound, which he pronounced one of a serious character but not dangerous.

RINK MUSIC HALL.—Last evening "Oliver Twist" was performed to a fair house. The acting was everything that could be desired. Mr. Brink's 'Bill Sykes' being admirable and as near the author's meaning as could be desired, whilst the acting of Miss Florence Webster was simply perfection. Her dying scene was the most absorbing piece of acting we have ever seen. Mr. Gregston's 'Fagan' was a good piece of character acting and the tout ensemble perfect. To-night a grand double bill is offered, viz: "Buffalo Bill," "Musical Olio" and "High Treason." The performance on account of length will commence at 7.30.

ARRIVALS AT THE RUSSELL HOUSE.—G Blackburn Manchester; J P Grout, A G Fenwick, Edward Scotell J H Bury, Montreal; H Macfarlane, L Watford, James A Gordon, Sherbrooke; F Harris, New York; Mr and Mrs David Linford, Rome, N Y; Miss Lillie Baillie, Brooklyn; Steven Tatch, New York; A A Buell, Jas J Spinning, Wm H Ward, New York; Alex LaRochel, Sorel; P S Nicholls and wife, Boston; Rusk Harris, Toronto; W H Linsley, New Britain, P. McFarlane, Water co; John C Quinn, New York; Miss Storm, Miss Stuart, F O Spinner, Washington, D C; Mrs Shumacker, Mrs Moore, child and servant, Jacksonville, Florida; Gen McArthur and wife, Troy, N Y; W W Reid, Glasgow; D C McDougall, Renfrew.

County of Ottawa Agricultural Exhibition.

Yesterday the Village of Aylmer was aglow with excitement, occasioned by the fact of its being the day of the Annual Exhibition of the County of Ottawa. The day was beautiful and all that could be desired by both visitors and exhibitors. There was an unusually large attendance, and much interest evinced on all sides as to the success of the show. Messrs. Alonso Wright, M.P., Robert Kenny, T.W. Symmes, E B. Eddy, M.P.P., John Mather R. H. Klock, Harvey Parker, Hiram Robinson, Hector McLean, David Moore, Andrew Pritchard, George Radmore, Luther Eddy, James Cassidy, Nathan Jowsey, Joshua Ellard, William Allen, George Link and T. X. Bovier are the Officers and Directors of this Society, and they assuredly spared no exertions to make the show a success. Mr. Alonso Wright, M.P., the President, was particularly active—in fact he was the moving spirit of the Exhibition. He entertained the Directors, Judges, and members of the Press to a luncheon, at noon, at which time an intermission of an hour was given. There were a large number of entries of both horses and cattle this year, particularly of the former, and they were decidedly an improvement on previous years. In sheep the exhibitors were fewer, but those shown looked well. In hogs there was a great variety, and many fine looking animals. This part of the exhibition took place in rear of the Convent, and the prize animals were exhibited in an enclosed ring formed in that locality. The other part was held in the market building further down street where an admission of ten cents introduced the visitors, to perhaps after all, the most interesting part of the show. Vegetables, roots, fruit and such like products occupied one side of the extensive Hall and were greatly admired. The Ladies' Department and Fancy Work occupied the one end of the building, and the number and variety of articles exhibited, was greatly in excess and much superior to, the same department in the recent exhibition held in the city. On the other side, Horticultural products in an endless variety adorned the hall and showed to good advantage. Without the building agricultural implements, poultry, and other special articles were on exhibition. The Exhibition on the whole was a success and reflects creditably on the farmers of the County of Ottawa. Subjoined is a list of the premiums awarded.

Funeral of Trueman Storr.

The funeral of the unfortunate young man, Trueman Storr, who was so hurriedly launched into eternity on Wednesday last, took place yesterday afternoon, and was a fitting testimony of the high esteem in which he was held by that class of the community in which he mingled. He was followed to his last resting place by, it is safe to say, all his friends. A member of the Ottawa Brigade Garrison Artillery, a member also of the Young Men's Christian Association, Orange Young Britons, a Son of Temperance, and a Good Templar, it was of course naturally to be expected that each and all of these bodies would be represented at the funeral.

About half past two o'clock the funeral cortege, left the residence of Mr. Storr, the unfortunate young man's residence and proceeded by way of Wellington and Rideau Streets to Beechwood Cemetery. A firing party consisting of a number of men from the Artillery, preceded the body which was placed on a gun carriage, the coffin being covered with the Union Jack. Following were the immediate friends of the deceased, and the officers of the corps, including Major Eggleson, Major Crombie, Capt. Cluff, Lieuts. Ryan, Graham and Surgeon Corbett. Then followed the Orange Young Britons, wearing their badges draped in mourning the Good Templars and Sons of Temperance, and a number of men belonging to the Painters' Union of which the deceased was a member.

The funeral was one of the most respectable which has taken place in the city for some time, and was witnessed by large crowds of people.

The Band of the O. B. G. A., was present.

Cameron Temple, No. 338, I. O. G. T.

At the regular meeting of this Temple held this evening, the following expressions of sorrow and sympathy were submitted and unanimously approved:

That, whereas with deep regret, this Temple having learned of the sad and painful circumstance whereby Bro. Truman Storr, formerly a member of this, but more recently of Elliott Temple, has been suddenly removed out of time into eternity, therefore the members of this Temple, in heartfelt sympathy with the bereaved family, hereby tender to them their sincere expressions of sorrow, and earnestly pray that He, who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind, may impart to each and all of them the consolation and support they so much need in this their painful bereavement, and that this mysterious dispensation of Providence may work for their eternal good.

We also sincerely trust that our Worthy Deputy Bro. Storr, his bereaved wife and family, may, in this dark hour of their trial, have their feet firmly placed upon the Rock of Ages being assured that the Judge of all the earth will do right, and though a sudden stroke has severed from them a beloved son and brother, and from us Templars a useful member, let us unitedly hope that he has only withdrawn from these imperfect Temples and been received into that Temple above, not the creation of man—eternal in the heavens over which the Infinite and Eternal Right Worthy Chief Templar reigns. To that pure and everlasting Temple may each and all strive to attain.

Signed on behalf of the Temple by EDWARD WILLIAMS, W. C. T.

WHOLESALE

Ready-Made

CLOTHING.

HAVING disposed of my Dry-Goods Establishment, I am now giving my personal attention to my Wholesale Ready-made Clothing Business. My stock is now ready for inspection, and will be found to compare favourably with any in the market.

Having had a long experience in the Ottawa Trade, I understand its requirements, and have my Clothing manufactured with a view to meet the wants of this market. It is my intention to keep on hand nothing but the best of Goods, both in point of quality and finish, believing as I do, that never in the history of the trade was there such a demand for a first-class article in Ready-made Clothing. I have employed

ONE OF THE BEST CUSTOM CUTTERS

Ever in this section, as Foreman.

He also has a good knowledge of the growing wants of this market. The party to whom I refer is

Mr. GEORGE DIXON

So very favourably known throughout the Ottawa Valley.

This circumstance is merely mentioned to show that it is my purpose to place in the market a class of Clothing to meet the growing tastes of the public.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICE.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO,
Toronto, 14th September, 1874.

49. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first four weeks of the Session.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, or Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, [illegible] specifying the nature and object of the application, to be published as follows, viz:—

A Notice inserted in the Ontario Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, or Union of Counties affected, or if there be no paper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest County in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

For further particulars see Ontario Gazette.

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Examining Warehouse, Toronto," will be received at this Office until MONDAY the [illegible] day of October next, at noon, for the erection and completion of the above building. Plans and Specifications can be seen at the office of William Irving, Esq., Architect, Yonge Street, Toronto.

Contractors are notified that Tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms,—and in the case of firms—except there are attached the actual signature and the nature of the occupation and place of residence of each member of the same.

For the due fulfilment of the Contract, satisfactory security will be required on real estate or by deposit of money, public or municipal securities, or bank stocks, to an amount of five per cent on the bulk sum of the Contract.

To the Tender must be attached the actual signatures of two responsible and solvent persons, residents of the Dominion, willing to become sureties for the carrying out of these conditions as well as the due performance of the works embraced in the contract.

This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender.

By order,
F. BRAUN,
Secretary.

Burglary—Accident—Theatrical.

TORONTO, Sept. 25.

About eleven o'clock last night four men broke into house No. 38 Duchess street and assaulted the occupant, John Brickford, who was in bed at the time. The intruders were all more or less under the influence of liquor, and apparently committed the offence through their wantonness. Two of them were identified, and information was given to the police authorities.

Yesterday afternoon between five and six o'clock, whilst the workmen engaged in the erection of the new building on Adelaide street, opposite the Court House, were in the act of hoisting up some stone material, a large piece of stone fell from the top of the building and struck a man who happened to be passing on the head, inflicting a wound of some three inches in extent. The force of the blow rendered the man insensible for a time.

MONTREAL.

Fire Matters—Fire — Masonic—Committed.

MONTREAL, Sept. 25.

The Fire Committee met yesterday afternoon at No. 2 Station on a visit of inspection. The promptness of the men at this station in the event of fire is well known, and much credit is due to Mr. McCrobie for the introduction of an arrangement which tends much to assist them. The arrangement in question is in connection with the alarm box, and attached by wires to the gas metre, doors, clock, &c. Immediately on the gong sounding, the gas is turned up, horses are released from their stalls, front doors opened, and a clock stops, all simultaneous with the alarm. This of course saves labor, and what is more important, time, and by the clock which stops the length of time can be reckoned, that the staff have been absent. The horses are extremely docile, and so well trained that immediately on being released they proceed to their proper positions either in advance of salvage waggon or reel. The men having been put through their motions, the Committee expressed themselves well pleased with what they had seen, and adjourned to the Champ de Mars to witness some experiments.

Last night a fire destroyed $30,000 worth of chemicals, drugs and hardware in Yuile's wholesale establishment, on St. Paul Street. The ethers, phosphorus and other inflammable substances exploded and burned furiously with an intense heat driving the firemen out of the building; some of them were badly burned and bruised. With desperate exertions they returned to the charge, when the whole front of the store was bathed in the flames. They got the fire out by 1 a.m. The total loss on stock is $50,000. Mr. Ewen, spice merchant, owns it; full insurance in the Scottish, Imperial, Royal and other companies.

The Grand Lodge of Quebec continued its sittings yesterday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—M W Bro James Dunbar, Quebec, Grand Master; R W Bro James O'Halloran, Q C, Cowansville, Deputy Grand Master; R W Bro Geo O Tyler, Three Rivers, D D G M, Quebec District; R W Bro Thos Milton, D G M, Montreal District; R W Bro Wm W Lynch, M P P, Knowlton, Bedford District; R W Bro Wright Sleeper, Coaticooke, St Francis District; R W Bro Danl Tuomey, Sherbrooke, G S Warden; R W Bro Saml Johnson, Montreal, G J Warden; R W Bro Rev H W Nye, Iron Hill, Grand Chaplain; R W Bro Alexander, Montreal, Grand Treasurer; R W Bro John McLean, Montreal, Grand Registrar; R W Bro John H Isaacson, Montreal, Grand Secretary; R W Bro Stratney, Montreal, Grand Tyler. Elective Members of the Board of General Purpose:—M W Bro Thos White, Montreal; R W Bro Charleston, Quebec; M W Bro J H Graham, Richmond; W Bro S E Whitman, Freleighsburg. During the afternoon the officers were duly installed by M W Bro J H Graham, and the Grand Lodge closed a most pleasant and harmonious meeting at about six o'clock.

Col. Wiley and Chief McLaughlin and others are committed for trial at the Court of Queen's Bench on a charge of forcible entry into the Crystal Palace and detainer. They are out on bail.

QUEBEC.

Appointments—Personal — Elections.

QUEBEC, Sept. 25.

The Lieut. Governor has been pleased to make the following appointments:—The Hon. Henri Gedeon Malhiot, the Hon Levi Ruggles Church and the Hon. Auguste Real Angers, Queen's Counsel in and for the Province of Quebec.

Mr. Solicitor-General Angers left town to-day for Montmorenci, to meet his constituents.

The writs for Quebec County, Three Rivers and Montmorenci were issued today. It is expected that the nominations for Quebec and Montmorenci will be held on the 5th prox. There is to be no election at present for Sherbrooke. As Mr. Robertson has accepted office within 60 days after his resignation, as provided by statute, he need not be re-elected.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

The Brown-Morris Boat Race—Speaker Anglin's Outbuildings and part of his House Destroyed by Fire.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 25

The boat race was postponed for the present on account of the thick fog. It may come off to-day.

A large fire last night burned several barns and stables, and one dwelling house, which were totally lost.

The outbuildings in rear of Hon. Speaker Anglin's house were burned and the house itself was badly damaged. Mr. Anglin and his family are away from home. The house was closed at the time of the fire. The amount of insurance is not yet known.

LATER.—Owing to a heavy fog, the race is postponed until seven o'clock to-morrow morning. Over 5,000 spectators line the banks of the Kennebeccasis River. Everything is quiet and orderly. Betting with odds is in favor of Brown, finding few backers.

HALIFAX.

American Coal — Western Counties Railway—Election Case—Dominion Cabinet.

HALIFAX, Sept. 25.

A cargo of American soft coal has arrived here in the schooner 'George S Hunt,' from Baltimore, for the use of the English war vessels.

The first sod of the Digby section of the Western Counties Railway was turned yesterday in the presence of a large crowd.

The Pictou controverted election case is being investigated by Judge Johnston. Lively scenes are furnished by the opposing counsel, and blows were exchanged between them on Wednesday.

Provincial Secretary Vail received a communication to day offering him a seat in the Dominion Cabinet and the office of Minister of Militia, which he will probably accept. A reconstruction of the Local Government will follow.

PORT DALHOUSIE.

Smothered to Death.

PORT DALHOUSIE, Sept. 25.

Yesterday, Charles Cooney was cleaning out a bin in the Welland Railway elevator when 500 bushels of wheat was let in, which jammed into the spout and smothered him.

A battle ensued, 14 Apaches being killed, and several taken prisoners. The troops lost one scout, and one friendly Indian killed and two wounded.

Reduction of Hours of Labor.

BOSTON, MASS. Sept. 25.—An adjourned meeting of the Cotton Manufacturing interests was held in Boston to-day, at which about 2,000,000 spindles were represented. Reports recommending the reduction of working to four days of ten hours each per week, or such other division of time as will secure some result during three months, were accepted; also a proposition recommending the Cotton Manufacturers of New England to reduce their products from and after October 1st, and inviting all New England Manufacturers to meet again in Boston on the 8th of October, to take such action as the state of business may seem to require.

Base Ball.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25—The base ball match to-day resulted in a victory for Chicago 1; Atlantic 3. The game was an unusually poor one, both sides indulging freely in muffing.

THE NORTHERN COLONIZATION RAILWAY.

Progress of the Work.

Last week Mr. McQuisten, the City Surveyor, in company with several other civil engineers, and the contractors, made a tour of inspection over the line of the Northern Colonization Railway between here and Ste. Scholastique. The work in the deep cut near Hochelaga is progressing finely. The line of road crosses the Back River about a mile above Lajeunesse's but it has not yet been decided on which bank the station shall be placed. The cribs for protecting the bridge at this point from rafts are all in, while the abutment on the north side is completed, but still have to be removed 35 feet further out by order of the Provincial Government. The abutment on the south side is well on towards completion. The road runs thence across Isle Jesus to a point about a mile below Ste. Rose. The work of grading along this section, with the exception of a heavy cut at Ste. Rose, is about finished, and it will be completed before winter with the help of a steam shovel. The bridge at Ste. Rose is almost ready for the superstructure, three piers having been completed, and the 'caisson' sunk for the fourth, while the abutments are above the water level. On the branch line to St. Jerome, a distance of fourteen miles, the grading is done, with the exception of a large cut, in which a steam shovel will be at work shortly. At St. Therese the bridge across the Chien River and public road is ready for the superstructure. The grading from this point is about completed to St. Scholastique, where one of the abutments of the Belle Riviere Bridge is finished, and the other nearly so. From this, for a distance of two miles, no grading has been done, on account of a difference in connection with obtaining titles for the land required. The dispute is, however, settled, and this portion (very light work) of the road will be graded within a month to St. Eustache. The abutments of the bridge across the North River at Lachute are completed and the pier is well advanced. At the west branch close to the above, the bridge is finished. From here to a point above Grenville, the grading is all but completed. From there to Montreal all the culverts are in, with a few exceptions. Ties have been delivered all along sufficient to lay the track from Montreal to Grenville; a large amount of fencing material is also on the ground; and cargoes of rails are on the way from England; if they arrive on time the track will be laid this fall between Grenville and St. Therese.

FURTHER NORTH,

the contracts have been let from Grenville to Hull, and work is being proceeded with on that section. Contracts have been given out for the bridges over the Nation, Lievre, and Gatineau Rivers and work commenced. With steam shovels at the three principal cuts, the road bed will be ready for the rails between St. Jerome, St. Therese and Montreal this fall. At present over 2,000 men are employed on the road. The work is stated to be done in the most substantial manner, the masonry at least equalling that of any road on the continent.

By this time next year it is expected trains will be running from Montreal to Hull.

THE UNITED WESLEYAN CONFERENCE.

SEVENTH DAY.

TORONTO, Sept. 24.

After the usual preliminaries, on the order of the day being called for the consideration of the name of the Church, it was on motion laid over until Friday.

Leave of absence was granted to the Hon. S. S. Shannon, of Halifax, and also to Messrs. Richardson, Langford, and J. N. Freeman

The Committee to prepare a Seal for the General Conference reported a draft, which was received.

The first report of the Committee on the Course of study was adopted. It provides for a preliminary course, and for four successive years of probation.

The third report of the Committee on Missions was read, and ordered to be printed.

The Nominating Committee reported four several Committees for the preparation of replies to addresses from kindred churches.

Rev. A. Hurlbert presented a resolution expressive of pleasure in the visit, pulpit services and admirable addresses of the Rev. Gervase Smith, representative of the British Conference. It was referred to the Committee on Official Correspondence,

On motion, the subject of regulations with reference to Probationers was referred to the Committee on the Course of Study.

The Committee on Temperance submitted a first report, which was read by Dr. Clarke, and ordered to be printed.

On invitation, a large portion of the members of the Conference visited the Provincial Exhibition. The delegates from the Maritime Provinces were specially gratified on seeing the magnificent produces of Ontario.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

In the evening a Conference missionary meeting was held, Judge Wilmot, of New Brunswick, presiding.

Rev. John Borland, representative of French and Indian Missions, Rev. J. Mulligan, from Newfoundland, and Rev. S. Young, from Manitoba, delivered interesting addresses.

THE LAST SENSATION.

How a Port Huron Girl Ran Away from Home and became a Trapeze Performer.

From the Port Huron Commercial.

About eight years ago there lived in Port Huron a man who was well-known to most of our citizens. He was a painter and photographer by profession. His children were three daughters, of more than ordinary personal attractions, whom he seemed to try to bring up as nearly as he knew how in the way they should go. He was a strict member of the Methodist Church, and endeavored to conduct the affairs of his family with all the stern vigor of discipline provided for by the doctrine of that church.

After the departure of the family from this place, but little was heard of them. Bits of gossip came now and then telling how the father had given up art and taken to the ministry, and how the daughters, in spite of their training, were not turning out very well. Rumours came that one of them had taken up the precarious calling of a performer on the trapeze, that she had been seen in various places acting in that capacity, but after all there were few who read from time to time in the newspapers of the breakneck performances of "The Sanyeahs," dreamed that one of them was a Port Huron girl, and the daughter of a Methodist preacher.

Last week, however, the visit of the Washburn Variety Troupe to this city confirmed the stories that had been heard. On the afternoon of the day on which that delectable organization honored our city, a young lady dressed rather showily, and with jewels flashing on every finger, walked into the editorial rooms of the Commercial and introduced herself as the youngest of the three children who had been left here eight years previously. Upon the occasion of her first visit to the home of her childhood she could not resist the impulse to call upon some of those with whom she had played at that happy time. She went away a child nine years old, and came back a woman in her experiences of toil and trouble and strange events. Her form was slender and graceful, and her face fair, but there was a weary look in her eyes, and a faltering softness in the tones of her voice at times, although her address was that of a woman who had seen a great deal of the world—that told a story to which her spoken words bore no witness.

She said her sister next older than herself was the Madame Sanyeah we had heard of, and that she was legally married to the man whose name she bore. He had been attracted by her pretty face and engaging ways and made her his wife. Then he had taught her to join with him in the perilous flying trapeze performance, and she had shared his dangers, until one day in one of the most thrilling feats her nerves failed her and she fell. Her arm was shattered, and when she left the doctor's care her career as a gymnast was ended, for one arm was stiffened so that she might never use it again. Then the younger sister had taken her place. She naively bore testimony to the peril of her calling. She had only four month's experience, she said, and had one fall, which laid her up for many days, but she liked the business after all, and so did her sister until she was disabled.

She named some of the ladies she had visited that day, among them her Sunday school teacher, and some of the girls she had played with in the days gone by, now young ladies.

ARTERIAL blood contains the elements of Vitality and Nutrition, which is emptied into the capillary system and, after supplying the required nourishment, is sucked up by the minute branches of the venous system and carried back to the lungs for vital recuperation. By reason of much that is wrong in living and medical treatment, this stream of blood flowing through the body is not always pure or free from inflammatory particles, which may pass off by insensible perspiration through the skin or with the waste matter through the intestines, but cold or wet may stop their outward escape, and the internal drainage may become inactive, when the corrupt particles are apt to coagulate, causing pestules, scalp eruptions or running sores, bronchitis &c. They may locate about a nerve, causing neuralgia, and by attaching themselves to the arterial tubes and veins, large or small, and inflaming them by their corrosive influence, cause those intensely painful sensations called Rheumatism. Nature struggles to drench out or dislodge if possible these corrosive particles, and the parts become very red from the congestion or pressure of blood therein. This is called Inflammatory Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout. If nature does not succeed in washing out these acremonious atoms she withdraws the undue supply of blood from such parts, ceases to contend, and performs circulation as best she can; however, the passage of the blood through the affected channels still continues painful. This is Chronic Rheumatism, which may exist without its usual antecedant the Acute kind.

The above only true theory points out the correct treatment of this and other distressing maladies. Dissolve these corrupt particles that have lodged in the afflicted [illegible] that in the circulation they may be car[illegible] externally or internally, and having thus re[illegible] the cause the effect ceases.

The experiment of twenty years in the London Hospital, England, has demonstrated to the Medical Faculty of Europe, that the only medicine having control over this class of diseases is the

CURE!

It is the result of a lifetime of scientific study and is now for the first time offered to the Canadian public, prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

A BLESSING TO THE POLICE.

MONTREAL, 15th June, 1884.

DEVINS & BOLTON:

GENTLEMEN,—Having been one of the many martyrs of rheumatism that I meet on my every day rounds. I was induced to try the celebrated DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. I had suffered the last five or six weeks the most terrible acute pains across my loins and back, so severe indeed that I could hardly walk with the help of a stick. I commenced the Diamond Remedy—following the directions carefully. Relief came immediately with the first bottle, improved rapidly with the second, completely cured and freed from pain after finishing my fifth small bottle. You are at perfect liberty either to refer to me privately or publicly, as I feel very thankful for the relief, and sympathize with my fellow sufferers from rheumatism.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. CARDINAL,
Sanitary Police Officer,
51 Labelle street.

In simple cases, sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of two or three bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send or it to

BERMINGHAM'S
Real Estate Bulletin
READ AND PROFIT!

He sold property during the month of July at Private Sale, in

City Houses, City Lots and Farms,

Amounting in the aggregate to $63,000.

He has now for sale some most valuable properties, as may be seen from the following, which is but a small portion of what he has on hand:

A very valuable property of eight buildings, corner of O'Connor and Albert streets, having 182 feet on Albert-st. by 99 on O'Connor, and now bringing in a rental of $1470 per annum, which can be increased. To be sold cheap and on easy terms, by
J. BERMINGHAM.

That splendid property, a double brick house with stone basement, adjoining St. Alban's church Daly-st., having each six airy bedrooms, drawing room, dining room, and basement breakfast room, with kitchen, pantries, closets, stables, coach house, &c., &c. They are now rented for $500. $600 can be got for them. To be sold cheap for cash.

East half of lot 20, North side Clarence-st., with double frame building thereon. Rented for $200 per annum. Will be sold at a bargain by
J. BERMINGHAM.

A handsome brick residence on Gloucester-st., Centre Town, with six good bedrooms, dining room, drawing room, kitchen, pantries, cellar, &c., &c.; good yard, and sheds recently built; well finished, having many modern improvements. Will be sold cheap.

West half of lot 27, S. Rideau-st., with a commodious and comfortable brick cottage, having five good bedrooms, parlor and sitting room, kitchen, &c. Good yard and shed accommodation. Now rented for $180 per annum. To be sold cheap by
J. BERMINGHAM.

East half of lot 21, Boulton street, with two tenements rented for $ 2 per month, to be sold very cheap and on very easy terms by
J. BERMINGHAM.

Lots 6 and 48 North Biddy, 41, 42 and 48 South Nepean street, all good building lots. Lots 34 South Stewart and 35 North Wilbrod streets Sandy Hill, two choice lots, well situated and in a healthy and respectable locality

A house and twenty-six acres of land about half a mile from Cumming's Bridge, township of Gloucester, Rideau front, the residence of the late Agar Yielding, Esq. The new bridge now erecting across the Rideau here, brings the property in this locality close to the city, thereby enhancing its value. This will be sold cheap by
J. BERMINGHAM.

A most comfortable and commodious cottage in Rochesterville, on Rochester street, opposite the Catholic Church, having a double parlor, sitting room dining room, kitchen, six good bed rooms, coach house, stables, sheds, closets and two extensive water tanks, all new. This property which has many recommendations will be sold cheap. The finishers are still on the premises, and if purchased at once, the buyer can have that chance of making any alterations before they leave. Will be sold a bargain by
J. BERMINGHAM.

A valuable property on the corner of Preston and Spruce streets, Rochesterville, with five good dwellings; can rent for about $700 per annum. This is good property; will be found an excellent investment, and will be sold cheap by
J. BERMINGHAM

A block of land in Rochesterville, having 167 feet on Rochester street by 165 on Lydia street, with buildings thereon; this is finely situated in an elevated position, and close to the Catholic Church. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM for particulars.

100 Acres of Good Land south half of lot 23 in the fifth of Templeton, six miles from Ottawa, Sixty acres cleared; good log house, barn and stables. Will be sold a bargain by
J. BERMINGHAM.

50 Acres, south half of north half of lot 16 in the ninth O. F. nine miles from Ottawa, good land and well timbered.

50 Acres of rich land, cleared and cultivated, with good orchard, dwelling and outbuildings, within about three miles of Ottawa, in the third concession Gloucester, Ottawa, front, will be sold cheap. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

200 Acres of excellent land, within four miles of the city, township of Gloucester. A big bargain.

That most valuable property known as Eastman's Springs, with ten acres of very fine land. This property is within twelve miles of the city of Ottawa, and is very valuable, not alone for the fertility of its soil, but for the numerous mineral springs with which it abounds. The quality of these springs are so well known to the people of Ottawa and surroundings, that it is unnecessary to say anything in their praise. Suffice it to say that they are admitted to be the best in this part of Canada. A little expenditure in laying out and ornamenting the grounds and building a large hotel, is all that is required to make them a most remunerative speculation and the Saratoga of Canada. The Springs consists of Saline, Sulphur, Gas, and Minerals, and are admitted to be most valuable for their curative qualities. For full particulars apply to
J. BERMINGHAM.

A furnished house on Gloucester street, Centre Town, to rent. Price moderate.

A magnificent Steinway Piano, nearly new for sale. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

A Seven and a quarter octave Piano, D.P. Hale & Co., New York, quite new, to be sold cheap by
J. BERMINGHAM.

A second-hand Cottage Piano for sale by
J. BERMINGHAM.

A very fine house on Metcalf street to rent. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

A large quantity of English and German Chromos on hand, for sale cheap.

200 pairs of Grey Shanty Blankets, large size, and 100 pairs White do., for sale cheap by
J. BERMINGHAM.

200 Horse Blankets on hand, all fit for shanty purposes. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT IN REAL ESTATE.
(By J. Bermingham.)

A Great Bargain—Lot No. 56, corner of Preston and Spruce streets, opposite post office, Rochesterville, with a good two story Brick House thereon, nearly new, with all the necessary out offices and a never failing spring, to be sold very cheap and on very easy terms. Come and inquire price, it will astonish you, it will be sold before two weeks, some one will get a big bargain from
J. BERMINGHAM.

West ½ of Lot 27, south Rideau street, with a most comfortable Brick House thereon, rented for $300 per annum, has to be sold for half its value within fourteen days. It would cost nearly double as much to build the house now, as is wanted for house and ground. Such a bargain was never offered before in this city, some one should secure it at once. Apply to
J. BERMINGHAM.

Lots 37, South Maria, and 37 North Gloucester streets, 66 x 99 each, to be sold very cheap, and on very easy terms, a small sum only required down, balance in ten annual payments. There is a big speculation in this. Who will come first and purchase? One thousand dollars can be made on it before long. Apply to
J. BERMINGHAM.

A Lot 54 x 99, about 100 yards from Cumming's Bridge, outside City limits, thereby avoiding city taxation, very cheap, only $50 down, balance as may be agreed on. Apply at once to
J. BERMINGHAM,
York Street.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES OF FASHION
DRESSMAKING BEING THE ORDER OF THE TIMES.
J. W. RYAN

Has much pleasure in informing his numerous Lady customers and others that MADAME OLLIER, the celebrated Cutter and Fitter of Ladies' Garments, has arrived from her New York and Boston trip, and re-engaged with him to superintend his Dressmaking Department,

No. 234 WELLINGTON STREET

It will be remembered that Madame Ollier came direct from Boston last March to make arrangements with him, but was subsequently induced, by large offers for her valuable services, to go into an old established firm in Centre Town; but finding that she had made a change for the worse, again engaged with him. Madame Ollier's attainments in the art of Scientific Measurements enables her to ensure a perfect fit without putting her customers to the inconvenience of removing a single garment.

BERKELEY, Sept. 1869.—Gentlemen, I feel it a duty I owe to you to express my gratitude for the great benefit I have derived by taking "Norton's Camomile Pills." I applied to your agent, Mr. Bell, Berkeley, for the above named Pills, for wind in the stomach, from which I suffered excruciating pain for a length of time, having tried nearly every remedy prescribed, but without deriving any benefit at all. After taking two bottles of your valuable pills I was quite restored to my usual state of health. Please give this publicity for the benefit of those who may thus be afflicted.—I am, Sir, yours truly, HENRY ALLPASS.—To the Proprietors of NORTON'S CAMOMILE PILLS.

Electric Oil Thomas' Excelsior Eclectric — Worth Ten Times in Weight in Gold.

Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures Catarrh, Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. J. Cottard, of Sparta, Ontario, writes "send me 6 dozen Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more — its cures are truly wonderful." William Maguire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, it takes splendidly now." H. Cole, Ontario, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Electric Oil, I am nearly run out; nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes—"Send at once a further supply of Electric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well, and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes—"Send me some more Electric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reed, Ulverton, P.Q., writes—"The Electric Oil is getting a great reputation here, and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay." Lemoyne, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P. Q., write—"Send us one gross Electric Oil. We find it to take well."

Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 5 cents.

A BEAUTIFUL HORSE.—There is nothing that can contribute so much to render the horse beautiful and elegant, to improve his condition and make him all that is desirable, as "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," it has been used by many persons who own valuable carriage and other horses with decided success, and so well pleased are they with it that they always keep it on hand in case of emergency; it may be given at all times with perfect safety. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ontario, proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers. 3671m

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

In aid of the

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.

DAY FIXED AND A FULL DRAWING ASSURED,

—ON—

MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE FOR

An Easy Fortune.

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned, that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed, and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 31st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT

Is the last which will ever be given under this charter and by the present management,

That it will positively and unequivocally take place as announced, on

MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER,

That the music will be the best the country affords, and that

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DR WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The New York Tribune.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF ITALY! so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemburg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to re-assert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the ever changing phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Tribune, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century scepticism and secularism on the other. Recognising a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionised through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed reform, the Tribune will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

DAILY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $10 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum. Five copies or over, $3 each; an extra copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time; or, if preferred, a copy of "Recollection a Busy Life," by Mr Greeley.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL. The distinctive characteristics which have gained for Dr. DE JONGH'S Oil so much celebrity, the entire confidence of the most eminent members of the Medical Profession, and notwithstanding the active and unscrupulous opposition of many interested dealers, an unprecedented amount of public patronage may be thus concisely enumerated:—

I.—Its genuineness, purity, and uniform strength are ascertained and guaranteed.

II.—It contains all the active and essential principles that therapeutic experience has found to be the most effective in the operation of the remedy.

III.—It is palatable, easily taken, and creates no nausea.

IV.—It is borne with facility by the most delicate stomach and improves the functions of digestion and assimilation.

V.—Its medicinal properties and remedial action have been found to be immeasurably greater than those of any other kind of Cod Liver Oil.

VI.—From the unequalled rapidity of its curative effects, it is infinitely more economical than any which is offered, even at the lowest price.

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST.

The extraordinary virtues of DR. DE JONGH'S Light Brown Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Consumption may now be considered as fully established. No remedy so rapidly restores the exhausted strength, improves the nutritive functions or produces a more marked and favorable influence on the local malady.

The following high testimony to the efficacy of DR. DE JONGH'S COD LIVER OIL in Consumption is afforded by ALLEN G. CHATTAWAY, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., of Leominster:—

"Having for some years extensively used Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, both in public and private practice, I have no hesitation in stating its effects are very far superior to those of any other Cod Liver Oil. Nearly two years since, two cases of confirmed Consumption were placed under my care. In both, the lungs were a mass of tubercular deposit, and every possible sound to be heard in phthisis was present. The sole remedy employed was DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL; and now the patients are strong and fat; the diseased (abnormal) sounds nearly inaudible; and in the one case (male), hunting, fishing, and shooting, are freely indulged in, the patient expressing himself quite capable of undergoing as much fatigue as any of his fellow sportsmen."

GENERAL DEBILITY AND EMACIATION.

In cases of prostration and emaciation, where the vital forces are reduced, and where life appears to be even at its lowest ebb, the restorative powers of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL are remarkably manifested. By its administration the natural appetite is revived, and the functions of digestion and assimilation are improved, reanimated, and regulated; and, when its use has been steadily preserved in, its peculiar tonic and nutritive properties have entirely restored health and strength to the most feeble and deteriorated constitutions.

The actual benefit derived is thus described by ROWLAND DALTON, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., District Medical Officer at Bury St. Edmunds:—

"In giving my opinion of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, I have no hesitation in saying that I have not the slightest confidence in any other kind. The effects of DR. DE JONGH'S OIL are sure and most remarkable, especially in that broken down state of health and strength which usually precedes and favors tubercular deposit; and I never recommend any other sort. The Oil I have had from you was for my own use, and it has certainly been the only means of saving my life on two occasions, and even now, when I feel 'out of condition,' I take it, and like it, unmixed with anything, as being the most agreeable way. I could wish that DR. DE JONGH'S OIL would come into general use, and entirely supersede the Pale and other worthless preparations."

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From innumerable medical and scientific opinions of the highest character in commendation of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, the following are selected:—

Sir Henry Marsh, Bart., M.D., Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I consider Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil to be a very pure Oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

Dr. David Smith, F.R.S., Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light Brown Oil supplied by Dr. De Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the Oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst so much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness." (Extract from "Consumption. Its Early and Remediable Stages.")

Dr. Barlow, F.R.S., Sen. Physician to Guy's Hosp.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure Oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use that substance is indicated."

Dr. Lawrence, Physician to H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

"I invariably prescribe Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil in preference to any other, feeling assured that I am recommending a genuine article and not a manufactured compound in which the efficacy of this invaluable medicine is destroyed."

Sir Joseph Olliffe, M.D., Physician to the British Embassy at Paris.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, and I have every reason to be satisfied with its beneficial and salutary effects."

Lankester, F.R.S., Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this Oil is secured in its preparation by the personal attention of so good a Chemist and intelligent a Physician as Dr. De Jongh, who has also written the best Medical Treatise on the Oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

THE ROYAL READERS,

A NEW SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED ENGLISH READING-BOOKS.

From Mr. M. Patterson, Rector of the Free Church Training School, Moray House, Edinburgh.

"Thanks for the Specimen of your new Reading Books and Sheets. They are admirable in every particular. Nothing, in my opinion, would more contribute to the improvement of Education than the wide circulation of these books, and the intelligent handling of them."

From A. Montgomerie, L.L.D., Principal of Ladies' College Glasgow.

"I have examined very carefully the 'Printing,' and Nos. I., II., and III. of the Royal Readers, and have no hesitation in saying that they are, in my opinion, incomparably the best English Reading-Books that have ever been published. The adaptation of the means to the end in view is perfect."

From T. Morrison, M.A., Rector of the Free Church Normal School, Glasgow.

"I have very carefully examined the Royal Readers. The plan is excellent, and the execution, if I may say so, even better. They are out of sight the best series of Reading-books published and should very speedily be widely used. The illustrations constitute an admirable feature and add much to the value of the Readers."

CLARKE'S

WORLD FAMED BLOOD MIXTURE

Trade Mark—"BLOOD MIXTURE."

The Great Blood Purifier and Restorer

For cleansing and clearing the blood from all impurities, cannot be too highly recommended.

For Scrofula, Scurvy, Skin Diseases and sores of all kinds it is a never-failing and permanent cure.

It cures old sores,
Cures ulcerated sores on the neck,
Cures ulcerated sore legs,
Cures blackheads, or pimples on the face,
Cures scurvy sores,
Cures cancerous ulcers,
Cures blood and skin diseases,
Cures glandular swellings,
Clears the blood from all impure matter,
From whatever cause arising.

As this mixture is pleasant to the taste, and warranted free from anything injurious to the most delicate constitution of either sex, the proprietor solicits sufferers to give it a trial to test its value.

Thousands of testimonials from all parts.

Sold in bottles 2s 3d each, and in cases, containing six times the quantity, 11s each—sufficient to effect a permanent cure in the great majority of long-standing cases, by all chemists and patent medicine vendors throughout the world.

Caution.

PANCREATIC EMULSION.

The efficacy of these Medicines in the treatment of Indigestion, Bronchitis or Pulmonary Catarrh, Consumption, Wasting, &c., &c., depending entirely upon their purity and strength, Messrs SAVORY & MOORE caution the public against imitations of them which are put forth as possessing the remedial properties of the true preparations, but which are in reality either saponaceous compounds, ointments or pomades, without a trace of the Pancreatic principle and entirely unfit and useless as medicines. These imitations are calculated to produce serious disappointment and to injuriously affect the reputation which the genuine Pancreatine and Pancreatic Emulsion have acquired. It is therefore highly important that purchasers examine the label on the bottles for the names and Trade mark

"SAVORY & MOORE."

The Original and only Manufacturers Chemists to the Queen, H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, H.I.M. Napoleon the Third, His Highness the Khedive of Egypt, &c.,

143 NEW BOND STREET, LONDON.

Extract from an Analytical Report upon a Foreign Specimen of a so-called Preparation of Pancreatine.

"This compound resembled an ointment or Pomade in appearance and consistency, and was flavored with Essence of Almond or Prussic Acid. It was strongly alkaline, indicating free alkali, which acting upon the fat, produced the usual saponifying result; the whole forming a granular moist mass of fat, soap, glycerine and water. This ointment was physically and chemically different from the true Pancreatic Emulsion which I have also examined, and which, besides being rich in Pancreatic juice, has the delicate smooth appearance and consistency of fresh cream, is palatable and readily taken."

CELEBRATED
WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE,
DECLARED BY CONNOISSEURS
TO BE
THE ONLY GOOD SAUCE.

CAUTION AGAINST FRAUD

The success of this most delicious and unrivalled Condiment having caused certain dealers to apply the name of "Worcestershire Sauce" to their own inferior compounds, the Public is hereby informed that the only way to secure the genuine is to ASK FOR LEA AND PERRINS' SAUCE, and to see that their names are upon the wrapper labels, stopper, and bottle.

Some of the foreign markets having been supplied with a spurious Worcestershire Sauce, upon the wrapper and labels of which the names of Lea and Perrins have been forged, L. and P. give notice that they have furnished their correspondents with power of attorney to take instant proceedings against Manufacturers and Vendors of such, or any other imitations by which their right may be infringed.

Ask for LEA & PERRINS' Sauce, and see Name on Wrapper, Label, Bottle, and Stopper.

A Letter from Toronto in 1819.

From the London Advertiser.

SIR,—In Blackwoods Magazine for March, 1820, there is a characteristic epistle of the famous Eltrick Shepherd to Christopher North, accompanying a quaint letter which a relation of his had sent from Canada a short time before. It seems to me that this Canadian letter written fifty five years ago, might afford your readers some amusement, and I therefore send you a copy, with part of Hogg's letter as an introduction.

ELTRIVE, March 3rd, 1820.

DEAR CHRISTOPHER,—I enclose you a very curious letter from a cousin german of my own to his son, who still remains in this country. It has given me so much amusement that I thought it might be acceptable to you for publication in the magazine. The writer was a highly respected shepherd in this country, and as successful as most men in the same degree of life; but for a number of years bygone he talked and read about America till he grew perfectly unhappy, and at last, when approaching his sixtieth year, actually set off to seek a temporary home and a grave in the new world; but some of his sons had formed attachments at home and refused to accompany him. He was always a singular and highly amusing character, cherishing every antiquated and exploded idea in science, religion, and politics. He never was at any school, and what scraps of education he had attained had all been picked up by himself. Nothing excites his indignation more than the theory of the earth wheeling round on its axis, and journeying round the sun. He had many strong logical arguments against it, and nailed them all with Scripture. When he first began to hear tell of North America, twenty years ago, he would not believe me that This was not it, and thought he saw it from the Castle Hill of Edinburgh. Hogg then goes on to relate, in his broadly humorous style, an absurd theological dispute between this strange cousin-german of his, and another man; the old shepherd at last going down on his knees to pray for "the puir auld heretic," as he called his antagonist, who was so much enraged at this method of silencing him, and the grim and ghastly prayer made on his behalf, that he would have knocked the petitioner down with his stick, crying out, 'Gie over, Jamie Laidlaw, I tell you gie over! I winna be prayed for that gate!' if Hogg and some others had not held him back by main force. Hogg stipulated that his cousin's letter should be printed with all its errors of orthography and syntax untouched, but its curious spelling and lavish use of capital letters made it such a puzzle to read, that in these respects I have made some alterations. And now I will allow the writer speak for himself.

YORK, Sept. 19, 1819.

DEAR ROBERT:—I will write you this to let you know that we are all still alive, which is a great mercy. We came here on the 25th of April, but as there was no land ready measured, we were obliged to take a house for this summer, and an acre of a garden; we had to stay in it till we get the crop off the garden. When we are ready for going to our land we have got each of us one hundred acres. Andrew's is a little off from us. Walter and me has two hundred acres in one lot. We had to draw it all by ballot in two hundred acre lots. Andrew and George Bell, from Eskdale, is in one lot. We are mostly all Scotsmen, and has got a township to be all together, or what is called a parish in Scotland. They give sixty thousand acres for one township. There is a great many people settling here. Government bought a large tract of country from the Indians [illegible] miles from York, and very good land, so that people was all for going in it, it being so near the Capital of the Province, but we were too long of getting our grant, and the land was all taken up near the town, and we will be fifty miles from York, but the land is good, for Walter and Andrew has been on it. Andrew has a fine stream of water running through the middle of his lot, but I am afraid that Walter and me will be scarce of water unless we dig a well. We have eighteen months to do our settling duties in; we have to clear five acres each and put up a house, and then we get our deed for ever to ourselves and heirs. Robert, I will not advise you to come here, as I am afraid you will not like this place, so you may take your own will when you did not come along with us. I do not expect ever to see you here. I am very glad you have got a place for you and your wife. May the good will of Him that dwelt in the bush rest on you and her and may you be a blessing to one another. If I had thought that you would have deserted us I would not have come here. It was my aim to get you all near me made me come, but man's thoughts are vanity, for I have scattered you far wider, but I cannot help it now. Those whom I have here are far more contented than I am; indeed, I can do very little for the support of a family, for the work here is very heavy; it is no place for old men like me, though it is a fine country, and produces plenty. Robert, if this comes to you, as I expect it will, you may take it over to Wolfhope and let William see it, an' I have sent one to him by the man that takes them to Scotland. We have had our health middling well since we came here until six weeks ago, when Wat was taken with the ague. He had it only about two weeks, when he got better. Then Andrew took it, and he has had it this month, but is now getting better, but very weak. They have wrought all this summer with people in the town for six shillings a day, but did not get their victuals; they have made a good deal of money, but we have to pay dear for the house, but we have a good garden that we can live upon, and have sold a good deal out of it; a hundred dozen of cucumbers and thirty bushels of potatoes. We had peas ten feet high and beans twelve feet—some hundreds after one. It has been a very warm summer here, and there is a fine crop of every kind of grain, and hundreds of people coming from the old country to eat it; we get the finest of the wheat here. Twelve stone of it is twenty-seven shillings. We took fifteen acres of meadow hay to mow and win from one Mr. Magill; it was three dollars the acre, and we made it in three weeks, and he has given us as much les hay for nothing as will winter our cow, but we had it to mow and win. He is a very rich man, and has befriended me more than all the farmers in Etter, Ettrick or Yarrow could have done. The money here with merchants and people and trade is as plenty as ever I saw it in any town in Scotland. There is a market here every day for beef and mutton, and people comes in from the country with butter and cheese and eggs, potatoes, onions, and carrots, and melons, swashms, and pumpkins, with many things unknown in Scotland. The people here speak very good English; there is many of our Scots words that they cannot understand. They live far more independent than King George, for if they have been any time here, and got a few acres of their farm cleared, they have all plenty to live upon, and what they have to sell they get always money for it, for bringing it to York. There is a road goes straight north from York into the country, for fifty miles, and the farm houses are almost all two stories high; some of them will have as good as twelve cows and four or five horses; they are growing very rich, for they pay no taxes, but just a perfect trifle, and ride in their gig or chaise like lords. We live in this place far better than the States; we have got sermons three times every Sabbath; they are the Baptists that we hear; there is no Presbyterian Minister in this town as yet; but there is a large English chapel, and a Methodist chapel, but I do not think the Methodists is very sound in their doctrines; they save all infants, and suppose that a man may be justified to-day and fall from it to-morrow. The English minister reads all he says, unless it be his clerk crying always at the end of every period, Good Lord deliver us. If Thomas Hogg could come over and hear the Methodists one day it would serve him from cracking about it for year, for the minister prays as loud as he can, and the people all down on their knees keep crying amen, so that you can scarce hear him, and I have seen some of them jumping up as if they would have gone to heaven soul and body through the loft, but their body was a filthy clog to them, for they always fell down again. They have their field meetings, where they preach night and day, where some thousands attend, and some will be asleep, and some falling down under conviction, and others eating and drinking. Now, Robert, if this comes to you write to us how you all are, and all the news you can think of, and whether you think William will come here or not. We have got as much land as will serve us all, but neither you nor William would like America at first, as everything is new here, and people have everything to learn. There are not many carts here, but all waggons, with four wheels. I have seen three yoke of oxen to one wagon, and they plough with oxen. Many of their ploughs have but one stilt and no cotter! The wages is not so good here as formerly on so many people coming from Britain and Ireland. Tell John Riddell that I have as much hickory on my farm as will be fishing wands for thousands, and many of them a hundred feet high, and they are no use to us but to burn; but it is the best firewood in the world. I will say no more, but wish that the good Jacob may be your God, and may he be your guide for ever and ever is the sincere prayer of your loving father till death.

JAMES LAIDLAW.

Pay your letters to the sea, or they will not come to us.

A NIGHT IN THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF COMMONS. This is the subject of a lecture to be delivered on Monday evening in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Metcalf Street, by Professor Allan Curr, Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, London, England. The lecture will include amusing and descriptive sketches of its manners and men taken from personal knowledge and observations, including John Bright, Gladstone, Disraeli, &c. Professor Curr has delivered the lecture in nearly every town in England, Scotland and Ireland, and in several cities of America, and is spoken of by the public press as one of the most exciting, interesting and amusing lectures ever delivered. Tickets can be obtained at Durie's and Henderson's Book stores.

THE TULES ON FIRE.—All over the States the tules are on fire with enthusiasm on the subject of the next and last Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, to come off November 30, 1874. Until recently it was thought that the excitement was confined to the cities and towns, but reliable accounts show that the rural districts are as much in earnest on the subject as the cities. Indeed, the fact is not surprising when it is known that this is positively the last chance which can be given and at this Concert 2,500,000 dollars in cash will be distributed to the ticket-holders in such prizes or gifts as 250,000 dollars, 100,000 dollars 50,000 dollars, 25,000 dollars, 20,000 dollars. For further information, address, Governor T. E. Bramlette, Louisville, Ky.

BRAIN WORRY.—Many of us pray to be delivered from sudden death, and do we not worry ourselves into it? And if we do can we not help it? "Men do not really die of Heart Disease as often as it is supposed, but of Apoplexy, or Congestion of the Lungs, so they do not die of brain work, but BRAIN WORRY. Scott died of it, Southney, Swift, Horace Greeley, and probably Thackeray."—London Times. As brain worry induces premature dissolution by its depressing influence upon the general nervous health, by eating the brain faster than the waste is repaired, and as the means of sustaining and increasing nervous health is no longer impossible; those who suffer the debilitating influence of mental anguish or extreme mental fatigue, need only resort to the preparation of Hypophosphites invented by Mr. Fellows, as that will conduct the subject safely over the rapids of despair, and create in him strength to grapple with every difficulty. This is no idle assertion but an established fact.

INFLAMATION OF THE LUNGS.—Clifton, N. B., 17th February, 1873. Sir: In behalf of my family, I wish to acknowledge a debt of gratitude I owe Mr. James I. Fellows. My daughter had been ill with inflammation of the Lungs, had raised large quantities of blood and purulent matter, attended with every symptom of Consumption. After obtaining the attention of two eminent physicians, who afforded her no relief, she was persuaded to try Fellows Syrup of Hypophosphites. Upon taking two bottles we had every reason to believe she would be cured. Her physicians were surprised to find her improvement so rapid, and advised her to continue its use, which she did until her complete recovery. Two years have elapsed, during which time she has neither taken nor required any medicine, enjoying good health, and urges all who are afflicted with any Lung or Chest trouble to use the Hypophosphites without fail. My wife, also having been in bad health for some time, and having had Typhoid Fever in December last, which left her much prostrated, was advised by the physicians to use this remedy to build her up. Before taking half a bottle she found herself much benefited, and still continues to use it. I believe, under kind Providence, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has been the means of restoring both my wife and daughter, and I hope the afflicted will avail themselves of its use, for although it is widely used, I think its value is not appreciated. Yours truly, JOSEPH A. EVANS.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1874.

Hon. Mr. Mackenzie arrived from the West yesterday morning. Mr. Laflamme, M. P., and Mr. Masson, M. P., are in the city, the latter at the Russell House.

The appointment of Mr. W. A. Ross to the Judgeship of the County of Carleton is gazetted. The selection is a good one, and will, no doubt, give satisfaction to the profession and the public. We congratulate Mr. Ross on his elevation.

The Secretary of the Dominion Rifle Association on Saturday received a communication from the Directors of the National Rifle Association, New York, extending a general invitation to members of the Dominion Rifle Association to be present at the annual prize meeting, commencing 29th September, at which there are several open competitions. Lieut.-Colonel Gildersleeve, the Secretary, guarantees all-comers a hearty welcome and fair play.

A decision of much importance was given in the case of the Hon. George Brown against the Kincardine Review, for libel, at the Circuit Court, Brampton, on Saturday, before Mr. Justice Morrison. As is well known, the libel complained of was that which has been circulated by the Tory organ of this city and others, and was originally published in a Toronto weekly newspaper. Counsel for the defendant pleaded not guilty, but called no witnesses, and the Hon J. H. Cameron, who appeared for Mr. Brown, having intimated that money was not the object of the suit, but the vindication of his client's character, the jury returned a verdict of guilty—damages $100.

The Kingston News learns that "strong pressure" is being brought to bear upon Mr. R. T. Walkem to induce him to offer himself in the Tory interest for Addington, and of course predicts that in case he "Not for Joe," however, upon this occasion. In the meantime, the Whig reminds us that Mr. D. J. Waggoner, Mr. Shibley's opponent last January, has thus been formally requested to stand from under, and assures us that this is likely to be not a little galling "to his lofty soul." It is just possible, however, that Mr. D. J. is not going to be dictated to in this fashion. He would be very foolish if he did. He ought to fight it out to the bitter end, as he did before. The result, of course, would be all the same.

It will be remembered in connection with the Northumberland controverted election, that Mr. Bethune, counsel for the respondent, served notice upon the petitioner on the 19th instant, to the effect that the charge of corrupt practices by agents would be admitted, but repudiating the charge of personal responsibility or connivance thereat. No reply was given, and when the court met at Cobourg on Friday, to enquire into the matter, Mr. Bethune submitted the same plea, and called a witness to substantiate its correctness formally. The judge then declared the evidence sufficient to void the election, which was all that was required to be done in the premises, unless the charge of personal corruption were pressed. Counsel for the respondent persisted in pressing this latter count, and the case went on, the investigation continuing up to a late hour on Saturday, when judgment was delivered deciding that the charge had not been established.

THE PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION

The Provincial Exhibition at Toronto has just been closed, and may upon the whole be pronounced to have been a very great success. To the agriculturist especially the Provincial Exhibition is an object of supreme interest, and we may say without hesitation that it would be almost impossible to believe, unless the fact were placed before our eyes so patently, that a new country like Canada could have reached so near the mark of perfection in all that pertains to the field and the farm. The class of live stock exhibited may not have been marked by that marvellous purity of breed, which can be found occasionally at the great central shows of England and Scotland, but for those characteristics which are inherent in the hardy, useful animal, commend us to the average sample exhibited at our local Canadian fairs, and of which the Provincial Exhibition is simply a reproduction upon a more extended scale. It is too late in the day to attempt to show the advantages of those yearly competitions; we might with as much appropriateness proceed to demonstrate the benefits of representative government or the excellence of the British Constitution. Whatever is calculated to stimulate a healthy desire to excel in any department in life, whether that department be agriculture, literature, or art, is universally admitted to be worthy of being encouraged and cultivated. Emulation is honourable, and success more then a mere personal gratification to the successful. Even to know that one has been beaten, if the award has been fairly made, and if that which commended the greater honor were the better article is really no discouragement. On the contrary, especially if the competition was close, and an adjudication difficult to arrive at, there is every stimulation to persist, with the hope that continued improvement may bring equal distinction. Of course we know that this latter is positively the condition of things which prevails, and we know that competitors, instead of losing heart because of non-success, are really tempted to make all possible efforts in the direction of increased excellence, for the very reason stated. But the competition, in the case of a Provincial show, is not a simple rivalry between individuals. The reputation of an agricultural district is always more or less affected by the appearance it makes on an occasion of that nature, and we know that men would make even greater efforts to eclipse their neighbours in order to maintain the standing of their district, than they would be capable of doing were it simply a matter of personal success. The motives which instigate a man in this case are more exalted, less selfish, and more intense than when self-interest alone impels him. It is an exemplification to a remarkable extent of the power and strength of unity, especially when the union has a high and unselfish purpose in view. It is unnecessary to say how fully the practical results bear out this proposition. A prize animal at a fair, especially where the constituency is large, is invariably from district where excellence is a general characteristic; so with the productions of the earth; so with art; so with manufactures. This has without doubt been the result of emulation—perhaps not that national emulation, in the first instance, which arises from the various sections of the country entering directly into completion, but that desire to be equal with a neighbour which permeates the soul of every progressive man. The desire to excel, to rise superior to every compeer, is perhaps one of the most blessed, although one of the most abused, of the characteristics of progressive humanity. He who is of low estate, either as regards social position, personal distinction, or the possession of the world's goods, desires to rise to equality with his more fortunate brethren, and they in turn desire to keep ahead of their less favoured rival in the race of progress. This is the characteristic, in its purest and most dignified form, which is stimulated by these exhibitions, and there is not the shadow of a doubt that they have of late years formed a most important element in the general advancement and increasing welfare by which this Dominion of Canada has been marked. Of course they have their drawbacks, but these arise more from an abuse of that which is of itself good than from any fallacy in the principle.

There can be no doubt that agriculture is that branch of human industry in which the people of Canada excel. Our agriculture, although capable of great improvement, is carried out upon the highest and most economical principles. These principles, we admit, might be carried out more perfectly and more elaborately, but we have at least the germ in all its health and freshness, awaiting the further developments which only increased settlement, denser population, and more plentiful labour can afford. Scarcity of labour power, the evil from which Canadian agriculture suffers most, has no remedy in exhibitions or competitions of any kind, except indeed in so far as these show more clearly the rapid strides with which we are advancing, impress favourably the mind of the intelligent settle amongst us. It is true, perhaps, the emigrant to that the result can hardly be said to reach the ordinary agricultural emigrant directly. He has not the time to examine, nor the intelligence to analyze the intricate statistical sequences deduced from these exhibitions, and in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred he would be unable, from his want of a knowledge of the country and its condition, to arrive at anything like correct conclusions even if he had both Those whose business it is, however, to direct emigration into proper channels, are thus furnished with excellent data with which to store their own minds, and upon which to found such pungent arguments as will readily reach the intellect and commend themselves to the judgment of the class we desire to see coming to our shores.

In manufactures we have neither had time nor opportunity to make any eminent progress. The conditions of our country are not favourable as yet to their development, and indeed do not demand them. Whenever that demand exists, the means of satisfying it will have been created. A denser population, increased centralization, and greater secretion of wealth are necessary to the creation of a manufacturing industry upon a healthy business principle. The idea of forcing into a fictitious existence that for which there is no natural demand, and whose ephemeral and unnatural entity serves no good business purpose may be a beautiful theory when applied to the rearing of hot-house plants or the cultivation of gold-fish in a parlour aquarium; but it is scarcely suited to the practical necessities of a country struggling to develop conditions of themselves productive of results which would more than fulfil the aspirations of the protection theorists, and which would have their foundation upon an abiding principle. As the axe of the woodsman and the farmers' plough succeed year by year in laying the soil of Canada tribute to the purposes for which it has been created, manufacturing shall have of necessity increased with the demand for its products, and men will engage in it because they can do so profitably, and without crying and whining like petted children, because poor men refuse to be taxed in order to fill their money-chests.

As with manufactures, so with arts. The pursuit of gold, or of the actual means of living, does not produce refinement, and without refinement there will neither be art nor the desire to possess its productions. Men do not leave their homes and friends to come to Canada or any other country, except to improve their worldly condition, and life is so short and the ambition to possess much goods so long, that there is no time for even the most successful emigrants to cultivate refinement, or admire the productions of art. Art, too, like literature, is entirely cosmopolitan, and until the conditions of the country become favourable to its cultivation—until, in fact, Canada becomes an old country, and rich enough to enable men to relax their chase after material wealth in order to obtain that which is intellectual and sensual—no amount of nursing of our native painters can ever give us a status in the world of art, although of course it will tend to cultivate the public taste. Therefore, if we cannot congratulate ourselves upon the proofs of our national artistic skill afforded by the Exhibition, we can at least comfort ourselves with the thought that the good time is in all probability coming, and that we are no worse and probably a great deal better than other races of men would be if similarly situated.

We may in conclusion add our congratulations to those which have already been showered upon our delegates to Toronto for their success in securing for us the advantages which must necessarily accrue from having the Exhibition at Ottawa next year. We need not dilate upon these advantages. Every business man in the city has already calculated them in his own mind, no doubt, with the utmost minuteness and precision. Let us hope that no effort will be spared to have Ottawa as ready for the occasion as the occasion will be welcome and beneficial to Ottawa.

PROF. ALLAN CURR.

The above distinguished lecturer and author arrived in Ottawa on Saturday. Although but thirty-one years of age he has been for the last eight years ranked amongst the most popular orators of Great Britain. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, London, author of "Adeline," "Poets of the People," "The Last of the Stormonts," &c.; also Lecturer at the Government Science and Arts Department Crystal Palace, London. He has lectured before nearly every lyceum in Great Britain and Ireland. While giving his lecture on "A Night in the British House of Commons," to various audiences in London, the Lord Mayor and various members of the British Cabinet presided. He is an extempore speaker, full of enthusiasm. Some of his sentences fall on the ear like shocks of electricity. His voice is deep and musical, and very powerful at all times. Humour and sarcasm, with fine descriptive powers, are among his peculiarities as a public speaker. As a minister of the gospel he is intensely earnest and pathetic. At home he is a great power in the Sabbath School. He lectures four evenings in Ottawa—this evening in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, under the auspices of the Baptist denomination, with the Hon. Alex. McKenzie in the chair; on Tuesday evening in the Daly Street Presbyterian Church; on Thursday evening, for the Y. M. C. A., in Knox Church, and on Friday in Bank Street Church. We predict for the people of Ottawa an intellectual treat. Prof. Curr was for some time editing the London Star, and private secretary to a noted member of the House of Commons, so that he had every opportunity of mastering the subject he is to deal with this evening,—"A Night in the English House of Commons."

We have pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement, in another column, of a journalist of experience who desires to communicate with some party who may be prepared to enter into an engagement. Having had some professional acquaintance with the advertiser, we may be permitted in this connection, although politically opposed to him, to express the opinion that his services would be an acquisition of importance to any journal of the nature and proclivities specified in his published notice.

Canada Official Gazette.

The Official Gazette of Saturday contains the following appointments:—

Wm. Aird Ross, of the City of Ottawa, in the County of Carleton, and of Osgoode Hall, Esquire, Barrister at Law, to be Judge of the County Court of the County of Carleton, in the Province of Ontario, vice Christopher Armstrong, Esquire, deceased.

Captain Wiley, of Windsor, N S, Master Mariner, to be Harbour Master of the F. Hennigar, of Bear River, to be Harbour Master of the Port of Bear River, N.S.

Joseph Eden, of Gaspe, Quebec, to be Harbour Master of the Port of Gaspe.

Under the head of member returned to serve in the present Parliament, we find the following unique announcement:

"Provencher, in the Province of Manitoba, Louis Riel gentleman, in the room of Louis Riel, who was expelled from the House of Commons, by a resolution thereof, passed on the 16th day of April, 1874."

Among the Militia Orders we find the following:

42nd Brockville Battalion of Infantry, to be Paymaster, Christopher F. Fraser, vice George S. McLean, deceased.

No. 4 Company, Fitzroy, to be Captain, Ensign Robert Walker, junior, vice Brevet Major Allan Fraser, who is hereby permitted to retire retaining his Brevet rank. The resignation of Lieutenant Allan Grant is hereby accepted.

A statement of the Post Office Savings Bank account, shows that on the 31st of August there was a balance in the hands of the Receiver General, to the credit of depositors of $3,204 416 98.

Authorized discount on American invoices 9 per cent.

CITY AND VICINITY

Prof. Allan Curr lectures this evening in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Metcalfe Street, Hon. Mr. Mackenzie in the chair.

PROTESTANT HOSPITAL.—Visitors this week. Directors: Messrs. Geo. Mortimer and R. Cumming. Clergy: Revds. J. Mc Cormack and K. M. Pope. Physician: Dr. James Grant.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Shaw, representative of Mr. Joseph Stovel, tailor, of Toronto, is in the city and staying at the Russell House. He has with him a very large and select assortment of patterns for Fall and Winter Clothing. 3633-2

WISE PRECAUTION.—On Saturday the Chief of the Fire Brigade made an inspection of that murky stream yclept, the By-Wash, and found that the points where the sluces are placed, were completely choked up with boxes, barrels, boards, rubbish of all kinds, dead dogs and cats, &c., &c. The Chief at once gave orders to have these removed, which was done during the day. The tanks sunk in the stream were also in a very filthy condition, being filled with all kinds of rubbish imaginable. The police should be instructed to prosecute all parties guilty of throwing obstructions of any kind into the By-Wash.

THE BLASTING NUISANCE AGAIN.—On Saturday afternoon just as a lady and gentleman stepped from a carriage at the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railway Station, a stone from a blast on Dalhousie street fell on the top of the vehicle, going right throught it to the ground. Had the occupants been half a minute later, there is no doubt that one or both would have been seriously, if not fatally injured. The carriage belonged to Mr. Pierce Mansfield, was quite new, and was of a very superior style of workmanship. The damage done is estimated at something like fifty dollars.

RINK MUSIC HALL.—Saturday evening was presented Buffalo Bil which seemed to give the liveliest satisfaction to the audience. Mr. Brink's acting was immense, his melodramatic performance being perfection. Miss Webster gave a spirited interpretation of the settlers daughter. Mr. Thornton appeared as a facetious darkey and elicited shouts of laughter. The musical melange also gave general satisfaction. To-night is set apart for the benefit of Miss Florence Webster the most deserving lady artiste of the troupe. She has been an Ottawa favorite for the past five years, and by her ladylike demeanour and admirable acting obtained hosts of admirers whom we hope will turn out en masse and give her a bumper. She offers a bill calculated to please all classes. For her lady friends she offers a well written play "The Lady of Lyons," and for her musical friends a grand melange. First time of the G. G. F. G. March, by Lindley & Co. and other vocal specialties, and the melodrama of "Tattered Tom." The curtain will rise half an hour earlier than usual.

The Hon Mr. Mackenzie takes the chair this evening at Prof. Allan Curr's lecture in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Metcalfe Street.

RETURNED.—His Worship the Mayor and the other members of the Civic Deputation, who went to Toronto to see the Provincial Exhibition, returned to the city on Saturday. They all enjoyed the trip, and feel delighted at the idea of securing the Provincial Show for the ensuing year.

THE "CONQUEROR" SOCIAL.—The approaching social of the members of No. 1 Steam Fire Engine Company, promises to be a very successful affair. Nearly all the tickets printed have been disposed of, one of the members alone having sold $35 worth. It is to be hoped that the citizens at large will patronize the efforts of these brave fellows.

CHRISTENING OF A BELL.—The new bell on the Roman Catholic Church at Cyrville, in the township of Gloucester, was christened yesterday amid great pomp, by the Rev. Father Dandurand, administrator of the Diocese. There was an immense procession from the city. The Montreal road was lined for a time with carriages, in addition to which many persons belonging to religious orders in the Church walked in procession to attend the consecration services of the bell of Notre Dame du Lourdes Church. The day was fine, and many others than those interested visited the scene of the somewhat interesting ceremony.

CHARITABLE.—A number of subscriptions are being taken up on behalf of widow Mattingly, and handsome sums are being realized. One list, held by Mr. John Graham, of the Union House, is liberally signed, and is yet open for such as may choose to contribute. Mr. A. H. Taylor, of the Grand Trunk office, has another list, which is headed with the handsome donation of $20, by L. K. Clisby, of the Commercial Restaurant. Some ladies are interesting themselves in this benevolent mission, and are also doing well. The Odd-Fellows and St. George's Societies are too engaged in the good work, and doubtless the unfortunate widow will have secured assistance sufficient to ameliorate her somewhat destitute circumstances.

A NIGHT IN THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF COMMONS.—This is the subject of a lecture to be delivered on Monday evening in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Metcalf Street, by Professor Allan Curr, Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, London, England. The lecture will include amusing and descriptive sketches of its manners and men taken from personal knowledge and observations, including John Bright, Gladstone, Disraeli, &c. Professor Curr has delivered the lecture in nearly every town in England, Scotland and Ireland, and in several cities of America, and is spoken of by the public press as one of the most exciting, interesting and amusing lectures ever delivered. Tickets can be obtained at Durie's and Henderson's Book stores.

MEETING OF CATHOLICS.—A general meeting of the Roman Catholics of Ottawa was held last night in the French Canadian Institute, to take into consideration the advisability of giving the Bishop elect of Ottawa, a public reception on his arrival in this city. Dr. St. Jean, M.P., presided. Mr. John Heney occupied the vice chair, and Messrs. Higgins and Tasse were requested to act as Secretaries. Resolutions congratulating Bishop Duhamel on his appointment were unanimously adopted. It was also resolved to organize a public demonstration to be given to His Lordship on his arrival in the city, and to invite the presence and co-operation of the different Catholic Societies in the neighborhood. A committee was then appointed to make the necessary arrangements, after which the meeting adjourned. The committee will meet this evening in the Bishops' Palace.

"A Night in the English House of Commons"—subject of a lecture to be delivered by Prof. Allan Curr in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Hon. Mr. Mackenzie in the chair.

Police Court.

Before M. O'Gara, P.M.

SATURDAY, Sept. 26.

There were only three cases for hearing to day.

Patrick Fallon was charged with being drunk. He promised to take the pledge for twelve months, and was discharged.

John Jackson, arrested on suspicion of being of unsound mind, was likewise discharged.

Joseph Groulx, charged with shooting at Patrick Hurly on the night of Tuesday last was committed to stand his trial at the next Assizes.

Base Ball Matches.

Quite a large number of spectators visited the Base Ball grounds, foot of Elgin street, on Saturday afternoon, to witness the matches between the Almonte's and Huron's, and Prescott's and Ottawa's. The first called was that between the Almonte's and Huron's. After some spirited play on both sides, the game, which was satisfactorily umpired by Mr. Geo. E. Armstrong, resulted in favor of the Huron's by a score of 18 to 27. The next and principal game was between the Prescott's and Ottawa's. From the reputation of the former club, it was thought a closely contested game would be witnessed, but the Prescott's labored under that disadvantage usually attendant upon clubs leaving home, the loss of some of their best players. From the second innings, however, it was quite evident that Ottawa had the game, although Prescott struggled hard to change the result, and in so doing showed their sharp and active fielding for for which they were much admired. They seemed much pleased with their reception, and expressed a wish to see the Ottawa's and Ogdensburg's engage in a game before the close of the season, as they felt confident Ottawa would win. Subjoined is the score of the game which was impartially umpired by Mr. Duffy of the Mutuals:—

A DEFAULTING ACCOUNTANT.

His Departure for other Lands—Nearly One Thousand Dollars Stolen.

The community was somewhat startled on Saturday by the report that an accountant in the employ of Mr. A. S. Woodburn, Job Printer, on Elgin street, had gone through his employer to the tune of about one thousand dollars. It would seem that this young man, named Trail, and who is respectably connected, was on the recommendation of some of our most respectable citizens, taken into the services of Mr. Woodburn as accountant. He filled the office with every satisfaction, and was never for a moment suspected of being dishonest, although betimes he was addicted to drinking habits, but not enough to prevent him attending to his work. Mr. Woodburn had occasion to attend the Provincial Fair recently held in Toronto to which he started on Tuesday last. Prior to his departure he gave Mr. Trail a considerable sum of money to deposit in the bank to the credit of the Agricultural Society, but this amount was never deposited. In addition to this he had taken and cashed a $400 private cheque, such loose cash as remained in the safe, together with the amount of a number of accounts that he had collected, no doubt with a view to increase his store before his intended departure for the other side of line forty-five. In the absence of Mr. Woodburn, Mr. Duffy, his nephew, who had, from the absence of Trail from his work for a couple of days, suspicions as to something being wrong examined his premises and found his expectations fully verified. He immediately telegraphed to Mr. Woodburn who instructed him to procure the services of Detective Hamilton. No clue to the defaulter's whereabouts could be obtained, but the detective learned that a person answering his description had left by the night express on the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railway on Thursday night. Prior to his departure he had asked Mr. Adam a Commission Merchant on Sparks Street for $200 in greenbacks for which he proffered Canadian money, but Mr. Adam had only $30 and therefore could not accommodate him. Detective Hamilton is now in Ogdensburg in search of the fugative, but with what success time alone can tell. Mr. A. S. Woodburn, in the meantime, will be a loser to the extent of at least one thousand dollars.

OBSEQUIES OF THE LATE H. MATTINGLY.

Last Tribute of Odd-Fellowship—Large and Respectable Cortege.

Yesterday afternoon the remains of the late Henry Mattingly, who so unfortunately lost his life by the accidental falling of a scaffold at the "Union House," nearly a week ago, were conveyed to Beechwood Cemetery, and interred with the solemn and impressive rites of Odd-Fellowship. The cortege that accompanied the body to the grave was a large and respectable one. In front of the hearse walked the members and officers of the Metropolitan Lodge, No. 50, of the Canadian Order of Odd-Fellows, two by two, linked with the little finger, evincing in a marked manner the bond of brotherhood that existed among members of the Order. The members led, and were followed by the officers. Adams' Independent Cornet Band preceded the members of the Lodge, and played in solemn strains "the Dead March in Saul." There was a large turn out of the Order, to pay the last tribute of respect to a deceased brother. The chief mourners, in cabs, followed the hearse, and immediately after came the various Trades' Unions of the city, to one of which the deceased belonged. Citizens followed in the rear, making a very large and imposing funeral. The procession passed through Albert, Bay, Sparks and Rideau streets to the Protestant Hospital where the Odd-Fellows got into carriages and drove to Beechwood Cemetery, the remainder of the cortege returning to the city. The initial funeral service in connection with the Odd-Fellows was read in the hall by N. G. Mowat prior to the members going to the late residence of the deceased, and after service by the Rev. Mr. May of the Episcopal Church, P. G. Featherston read the last rites of the order to a deceased brother, which were of the most impressive and solemn character, causing many a tear to be shed in the assemblage collected around the grave. After the Past Grand had concluded this service he threw the mystic palm into the grave, an act which every brother followed, until the breasts were stripped of the emblems that had previously adorned them in the funeral cortege. This was the first Odd-Fellows funeral in Ottawa, and its solemn and imposing character together with the novelty had the effect of lining the streets for nearly two miles to witness its progress to the tomb. The widow and relatives of the deceased have at least the consolation that a warm and heartfelt sympathy was yesterday evinced towards one of which they were sadly bereaved.

Guards' Rifle Match.

The third annual meeting of the Guards' Rifle Association was held on the Rideau Range, on Saturday, 26th inst., and carried to a successful termination before evening. The day was all that could be desired for good shooting, and, as will be seen by the scores of the winners, it required a little skill and steadiness to carry off the principal prizes. There were eight targets (four [illegible] and four third class) kept going the whole day, and owing to the careful selection of his men by Sergt.-Major Keating, there was no hitch in the scoring from first to last.

During the day the competitors were cheered by visits from their lady friends, whose presence inspired the men to extra endeavours to win praises as well as prizes. Amongst those present we noticed Major and Mrs. Wicksteed, Major, Mrs. and Miss White, Captain and Miss Macpherson, Mr. and the Misses Wright, nearly all the officers of the regiment, in fact all of them who happened to be in town, and a host of civilian friends. We regretted to find on enquiry for the Colonel, whose absence we noticed, that he was summoned hurriedly away the previous day in consequence of the dangerous illness of a member of his family.

The following is the list of officers of the association for the current year, and the prize list, amounting to some $320:—

President, Lieut.-Col Thomas Ross; Vice President, Major White; Committee, Capt. Tilton, Capt. Weatherly, Capt. Lee, Lieut. Patrick, Lieut Todd, Ensign Dunlevie. Treasurer, Major Wicksteed. Secretary, Capt. Walsh.

With reference to this, as well as the Regimental Match, Corporal DesLauriers was well up to the first prize, but owing to having unintentionally discharged his rifle while the danger signal was raised, he was disqualified from further competition in the matches.

The firing was purely accidental, but the Committee wisely ruled that such an accident ought not to have happened, and that the cause of it should be made to abide by the rules laid down for such a case.

The match having been concluded and the prizes paid over on the ground, the meeting dispersed, having first given three cheers for the Secretary and three for the Lieut.-Colonel and officers of the Regiment.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Services by Rev. Prof. Curr.

Last night, one of the largest audiences that has perhaps ever congregated in the Baptist Church, assembled there, attracted no doubt by the announcement that the Rev. Professor Curr, of London, England, a somewhat eminent divine and scholar would conduct the evening services in that church. He proved a treasure [illegible] for it is seldom that the attention of an audience is so electrified and amused as command an enraptured attention for nearly two hours, as was done by this eloquent divine last evening. He began the services by the singing of the 1027th hymn. This was followed by the reading of the 5th chapter of the prophecies of Daniel. He next engaged in devout prayer, which was followed by the singing of the 451st hymn.

He next took the subject of his discourse from the v. chapter of Daniel and the 27th verse,

> "Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting."

The speaker spoke to the following effect:—

There were few more impressive scenes in all history than that to which the words of the text refer. We will glance at the astonishing scenes there revealed, making the picture of Belshazzar's Feast, the back-ground of our remarks. Forgetful of his father's miserable fate, the King had given a splendid banquet, and summoned his guests from the highest and most noble of the earth. Prince's and magnates were there assembled, all owning his mighty sway; from East to West, from Araby to Ind, were gathered the trophies of a hundred victorious battles. Princes and warriors paid to him the subtle incense of flattery, and the gorgeous and glittering scene of his glory was beyond our poor Western fancy. Louder and louder swells the din of revelry, till the King inflamed by wine commits a deadly blasphemy. In the name of that God by whose mighty arm of power his father had been brought low, he ordered the golden vessels of the temple to be brought in; and the King and his princes, his wives and concubines, drank out of them and praised in revelry, their senseless gods of stone and iron Forgetful or ignorant of the nearness of his doom he defies Jehovah. "It is right royal, lords and ladies, to drink your health from these vessels of Jerusalem. Fill and drink to Baal. Who is this Jehovah, the God of the captive Jews?" Still louder waxed the din, and brighter shone the lights of revelry, and faster circled the wine, while the sacred vessels of the temple were profaned. But a strange change passes across the scene. In the midst of the pomp and clamor, the King arises, a drinking vessel in his hand, and gazes on the wall with distended and awful eyes; the vessel drops and crashes on the floor; the King's hand trembles, and the joints of his hips are loosened. What causes this sudden terror? What, see the eyes of the fearful King? Part of a hand traces a mystic writing of letters in fire on the palace wall. He saw this writing and his knees smote together. Is this the great King of Babylon who now quivers in terror, a conscience-stricken coward, so changed from the recent bold, brazen blasphemer? The King, however, called aloud for the Chaldeans and soothsayers to interpret the inscription and promised to the sage who should do so, a garment of purple, a chain of gold, and the honors and powers of the third ruler in all the kingdom The reward was splendid—the most splendid laid by power at the feet of knowledge. But it was offered in vain; for none of the seers or soothsayers, the astrologers and diviners, could read the strange fiery writing. But now steps a woman on the stage as in all crises. The queen comes forward, and suggests the Hebrew captive Daniel, with the ready wit of a woman. Her advice was taken, and then appears Daniel, the central figure, and the only calm figure in all that excited throng. Daniel, said the speaker, was one of the men of whom we have too few in this age; men who speak the truth without fear and with honest sincerity. He was no time-server; he was a Christian in [illegible] the true sense; a leader of the people faithful and fearless. We have need now of just such men to read aright the signs of the times, and to speak their message, with no reference to the judgment of men, but leaving God's blessing to rest on their spoken words.

We will rehearse in brief some of the particulars in which we are all found wanting.

1. Men and women are deficient too often in the simplest requirements of honesty. If any reform should be preached, it is a return to the old-fashioned principles of honesty. Some men, he knew, would inquire what had the ministry to do with matters of business; and would say with a sneer that they would not trouble the preachers in their pulpits, if they would not annoy them in their stores, but the ministry had to deal with such practical questions of every day life and conduct; and they had the warrant of Scripture to do so. The word of Revelation itself had pronounced for a just balance and a full weight, and had denounced the oppressor of the hireling. In times of panic, when bubbles are bursting from speculation and from corruption, then is the time for the man of God to arise and speak the full and fearless truth. What do I mean by honesty? I will answer by giving illustrations. If a poor man, in a time of depression and pressure is forced by a rich man into a hard and unjust bargain, I call that an act of dishonesty. If a poor man is depressed in his honest wage, and is forced by his necessities to work for less than his work is worth, that is an act of dishonesty. In many relations of life, in the intercourse and dealings of men with man, honesty is the one thing needed. It would seem, however, in these days of competition and struggle, of speculation and sudden losses and sudden gains, that poor honesty saw that she was not wanted, and had spread her wings to fly to other realms.

2. "We are found wanting in charity; I use the word in the old English sense of love and brotherhood." The mere giving of alms is included in the duty of charity, but it is not the whole of it, nor even the main part of it. Men of the world had many times thrown in his teeth, 'See how these Christians love one another.' They say so and so of each other, behind their backs—abusing, misjudging and depreciating each other." There was no greater drawback to the spread and success of Christianity among men—than this very absence of any true Christian charity among Christians. Yet how strange is it that it should be lacking; for the uncharitable and unforgiving man breaks down the very bridge across which he hopes to pass into heaven and secure for himself forgiveness. And so with the churches. There is too great a want of charity among them too. Indeed, when we hear their contentions—the feuds into which they are too often engaged, and the controversies they wage with so much feeling, one would think they all believed in different Gods, and had each its own scheme of salvation. The Speaker then narrated an incident which had been told him on the field of the battle of Waterloo, how during that day of blood, a battery of guns was stationed on a mound where now a memorial monument rises; how once it opened hotly on a skirt of woods in which a body of men was supposed to be the enemy was seen moving. The iron Duke rode up, sprang from his horse, and sighted his field glass along the line of cannon. "You are in range," he said to the captain, "but you have been firing on our own 22nd." How often is this same mistake committed by Christians, who fire on each other instead of fighting Satan. He believed if one half the zeal we expended in resisting evil and doing good, that is given to controversy, the kingdom of Christ would have ere this been established among men. However, while we plead for substantial unity, which is practicable and should be supported, there can never be uniformity in either belief or worship. Rowland Hill had said, "I don't want the party walls levelled—only lowered a bit, so we can shake hands across them." This will give us a lever by which we can lift up the whole world to be children of God and heirs of life, so that the love of him who made us life may cover the land from shore to shore. Let us not be found lacking in genuine charity.

3. Humility: The lack of humility lost Nebuchadnezzar his kingdom, and caused also the fall of his son Belshazzar. The pride that apes humility is most detestable, but true humility bends like a bough when it is most richly laden. Any man who remembers the pit from which he was dug; the state of sin from which he was rescued by the grace of God; who realises the doom of death from which infinite mercy saved him, shall have reason to be deeply, truly humble in the sight of heaven. Wanting this sweet force of the Spirit, we shall imitate the example of the Saviour, who bore all his sufferings meekly, and who prayed for his persecutors; for he, though the Son of God, was oppressed and afflicted, yet opened not his mouth.

4. Earnestness: We are deficient in earnestness. Men are not wanting in this quality with respect to matters of business, such as settling a son or marrying a daughter. But are we earnest enough in these spiritual matters which concern our eternal life? The Scotch Presbyterians for whom he has sometimes preached when at home, complained that there was sometimes too much excitement prevalent. Too much excitement! There could not be too much. How could the sinner be too much excited, when he saw hell beneath him and his feet? Excitement—even fanaticism—was better than coldness in the cause of Christ. Many christians get in the church by some chance, and they at once seek the shady hedges and cosy corners; but the earnest christian who is saved himself, at once wants to labor to save other precious souls. The church is not sufficiently earnest as to its true mission in the world. We have fine splendid edifices, and fine orators, fine pews, and grand organs, but something is lacking. It is like a perfect locomotive on the track, which will not and cannot move till the fire is kindled and the steam evoked. The Church is not doing its duty towards those who are not hearing the Gospel. Out of one hundred workingmen of London—not "cadgers" and loafers, but hardworking reputable men, heads of families, with homes—only three went to church on Sundays. The rest spent the day reading the police and foul pictorial papers. The Church was to blame! Blood was on the skirts of Zion—the blood of immortal souls.

Having made these general reflections we will now use the text for a personal application; and, so to apply it, will take types representing different classes of humanity, to see how they would be weighed in the scales of the sanctuary.

1. Take a young man with health, hope, plenty of friends, promise of long life and success. Put him in the scales, and against it this scripture—"Boast not thyself of to-morrow." He flies up like a feather.

2. You, solid man, President of the best bank in town,—with shares in several railways—has sons and daughters growing up—an eminently respectable man. Put against him, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

3. Come forward, man of pleasure and fashion, the man of billiards and brandy, the man who smokes cigars and leans against a lamp post sucking the head of a knobby cane, with some other pleasures, we will not mention, get you into the scale, jolly dog. "Yet for all these things God will bring thee into judgment."

4. Next comes the Minister of the Gospel, with saintly air and a white cravat, commands $5,000 a year, preaches to a large congregation; is sent off to councils and conferences, and that sort of thing, a representative man. "Saving others, himself a castaway," could any fate be more dreadful than that of the man who draws high the gate of Heaven, and claims to have cast out devils in the name of the Lord, only to hear in answer to his prayer, "Depart from me, I never knew you."

Shall we close the scales? There is yet one other to be weighed, and he doesn't want to come forward. He has seen others [illegible] miserable sinner, nevertheless, my friend get into the Gospel scales. What are you? A profane swearer—a thief—a Sabbath-breaker—a drunkard—worse than that. But you are a sinner, but the blood of Jesus cleanses from all sins. Surely not all, yet the poor man in the balance. Yes, there is no exception—from all sin. If you were piled mountains high, the blood of Christ in the balance outweighs them all. So the sinner, believing in fear and trembling, yet with joy and comfort comes out singing, for he has found his Saviour and his everlasting safety.

The speaker reviewed his discourse, and concluded with one of the finest perorations we have listened to for some time.

TORONTO.

Daring Robbery—Veterinary Medical Association—Icelandic Immigrants—Stock Market.

TORONTO, Sept. 27.

Yesterday evening, while the assistants of the Goldsmith's Hall, a jewellery store on King street, West, were in the act of closing up for the day, three men entered and shortly afterwards got up a dispute amongst themselves. This was, doubtless, a "put up" game, for while the controversy was in progress one of them secured several gold watches and a quantity of jewellery with which he managed to get away. The estimated value of the articles stolen is between $5,000 and $6,000, but the detectives are very reticent in giving any information about the robbery, in fact they profess to know nothing about it.

A meeting of Veterinary Surgeons took place in the lecture room of the Veterinary College on Thursday evening last, for the purpose of organizing a Veterinary Medical Association. Mr. Smith, V.S., was chosen as President, and Messrs. Hagyard and Wilson were elected first and second Vice-Presidents. Mr. Cowan, of Galt, was elected Treasurer, and Mr. Sweetapple, of Brooklyn, was appointed Secretary. The object of the Association is for the mutual improvement of its members and the advancement of the profession generally. It was decided that the yearly subscription fee be five dollars, and that a general meeting of the Society be held about the middle of December. All duly qualified practitioners holding a diploma from a recognized college are eligible for membership.

Yesterday afternoon 352 men, women and children, natives of the island of Iceland, arrived at Toronto by the G. T. R. train from Quebec, in charge of the Dominion Interpreter of the Norse languages, Mr. William Andersen. These people are thus late in the season because the sailing vessel chartered to carry them from Iceland to the British port of departure by steamship, was wrecked. They would have come up from Quebec solely in charge of one of the Ontario agents, but it having been observed that certain Americans were around the strangers to lead them from Canada to the States, Mr. Stafford, representative of the Dominion immigration service at Quebec, placed Mr. Andersen in command of the party, he being an experienced travelling conductor of immigrants, as well as Norse interpreter. On handing the party over to Mr. Donaldson, at the Toronto depot, Mr. Andersen came into the city for medical assistance to one sick, and consult with Mr. Hay, the Ontario agent, on the subject of homes and employment for those sons and daughters of the most northerly old colonies of Europe—Iceland of the Sagas and of the Sea Kings. Mr. Andersen reports that another section of Russian Mennonites is expected.

There is little change to note in stocks to-day, the demands continuing to be of a very limited character. At the local Board there were sellers of Bank of Montreal at 193¾ and sellers at 193. For Toronto 190 was asked, and 186½ bid. Ontario was offered at 114 with buyers at 113½. Merchants' was quiet at 119½ to 119¾. Commerce was enquired for at 135¼, held at 136¼. Royal Canadian was saleable at 96¼ and Dominion at 117, with none offering. Hamilton was procurable at 97¼, with 96 bid. There was nothing doing in Building Societies or miscellaneous securities, in which there was no change to note.

TORONTO, Sept. 26.

Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, Hon L. H. Holton, and M. Masson, M. P. went East by the evening train. Hon. P. A. Macdonald and Hon. F. Geoffrion left town yesterday.

The visitors to the Fair have nearly all left the city and the articles on exhibition have been in course of removal all day.

By invitation of Mr. Worts a number of prominent gentlemen made an excursion yesterday over the line of the Nipissing Railway. The party consisted of Lieut.-Governor Crawford, Sir Hugh Allan, Mr. Edward Jenkins, member of the English Parliament and Dominion Agent; Mr. Z. Chipman and Rev. Canon Ketchum, of New Brunswick; Hon. M. Longworth, of Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Dr. Brouse, M.P.; Mr. Wood M. P. P.; Mr. George Laidlaw, Mr. W. H. Howland, Mr. H. P. Dwight, Mr. M. Sweetnam, Mr. John Leys, Mr. Edmund Wragge, Mr. Joseph Gould, Mr. George Wheeler, and a number of other prominent gentlemen who joined the party at Markham and Uxbridge. Mr. Gooderham, Managing Director, also accompanyed the party. The train left Toronto at 8 a.m., reaching Coboconk at noon, where dinner was taken at the Sheddon House. On the return trip Sir Hugh left the party at Midland Junction, where a special was in waiting to go to Port Hope en route for Montreal. Mr. Jenkins also left at this point by the Midland Railway en route to the Muskako District. The remainder of the party reached home at 7 a. m., after a very pleasant and interesting trip.

Yesterday evening a meeting was held at the Agricultural Hall under the auspices of members of the Reformed Episcopal Church for the purpose of discussing certain differences between the church in question and the Church of England. The chair was occupied by Mr. D'Arcy Boulton, M.P.P., who in a short and appropriate speech stated the object of the meeting. He said that he was ready, if it could be shown by members of the Reformed Episcopal Church that they had more reason on their side than the Church of England, to give full consideration to their statements. He called upon the Rev. Mr. Windeyer to move the first resolution, which was as follows:—"Resolved That this meeting of Protestants hereby express their emphatic condemnation of the ceremonies and practices introduced into the Church of England, under the name of Anglicism, Ritualism, &c." The resolution was opposed by his Worship the Mayor who urged that it was bad policy for any further split to be made among the members of the Church of England. If they kept together as a united body they would be able to offer a strong opposing front to Roman Catholicism; but if they separated into sects their strength would be lost. The motion having been put was declared carried. The next resolution was proposed by the Rev. Mr. Gallagher, "Resolved That, viewing the present crisis, in the efforts of the Church of Rome to recover the ground lost at the Reformation, we recognize the importance of the Orange organization."—Carried. The same gentleman also moved the following resolution: "That the position taken by the Reformed Episcopal Church against the Romanizing influences of which large numbers of clergy and laity in the Church of England are subjected, render the Protestant Episcopal Church worthy of sympathy, confidence and support."—Carried. Also Resolved That, inasmuch as the Prayer Book of the Reformed Episcopal Church is based upon a revision of the Commission of 1689, appointed and approved of by King William III., of immortal memory, this Church and the Orange organization have therein a common platform, and can consistently and harmoniously work together in the promotion and confidence of the principles of Protestantism."

QUEBEC.

Real Estate Sales—Found Drowned

QUEBEC, Sept. 26.

Quite a sensation was caused to-day by posters announcing a sale of three hundred building lots at Mount Pleasant. This is the first move in real estate, and is looked upon as a sign that Quebec is going ahead at last.

The agricultural exhibition for the county of Quebec is to be held at Charlesbourg on October 7th.

It is stated on good authority that Mr. D. A. Ross, advocate, of this city, will contest Quebec county in the Liberal interest, against Mr. Garneau.

The Levis and Kennebec Railway now have the rails laid as far as St. Marys, and will open the line for traffic in a few days. The Montreal Telegraph Company are building a line alongside the track, which will be completed next week.

PERTH.

Huron and Quebec Railway.

PERTH, Sept. 26.

The Town Hall here was crowded last night to hear Mr. Fowler's explanations regarding the projected Huron and Quebec Railway, which is intended to run through Perth via Richmond to Ottawa. J. G. Haggart, M.P., occupied the chair. After listening to Mr. Fowler's concise and straightforward statements as securing the promise of the workshops, etc., a resolution to the following effect was carried unanimously, being moved by Mr. James Allan, merchant, seconded by Mr. Robert Meighan. "That this meeting pledge itself on behalf of the Corporation of the Town of Perth to give to the Huron and Quebec Railway scheme the sum of $100,000, on condition of it passing through Perth an independent line to Ottawa via Richmond, also on condition that the workshops for the road be erected here, employing for at least twenty years, not less than one hundred hands; that freight be carried as cheap to Perth by this road as over equal distances on the Grand Trunk, and that the road be commenced next year and completed within two years from the passage of the by-law.

LUCAN.

Suicide.

LUCAN, Sept. 26.

The remains of a man named W. McRoberts, missing since the 6th of June last, who had evidently hanged himself, was found yesterday. The body had dropped away, and nothing but the head was suspended. Dr. Hassack, of this place, held an inquest, the result of which left no doubt as to the fact of the man coming to his death by his own hands.

PRESCOTT.

Death from Tetanus.

PRESCOTT, Sept. 26.

An old man named Digman, of this place, died this morning from lockjaw. He received a severe wound in the hand about two weeks ago by a stick of wood striking him. The injury resulted in lockjaw, from which he died this morning.

CLIFTON.

Body Found.

CLIFTON, Sept. 26.

The body of a respectable dressed young woman was found below the bank yesterday afternoon, a short distance below the ravine road. There were a few dollars in Canada money in her pocket, and beside her a basket with some cake and fruit in it. The initials "M.B." are marked on her underclothes. It is supposed she has been with some pic-nic party to the Falls. She is apparently about twenty-three or twenty-five years of age. An inquest is to be held to-day.

NEWBURGH.

Malicious and Brutal Act.

NEWBURGH, Sept. 25.

A horse, worth one hundred and fifty dollars, the property of Neil McNeil, was killed in a ploughing field on the night of the 23rd. The horse was cut with some sharp instrument in the bowels four or five times, causing part of his entrails to pass out of the cut. When the horse was stabbed he is supposed to have plunged and escaped from his miscreants. After wandering about the field, which is tracked with blood, he lay down, and was dead when found. There is no clue to the wretches as yet.

BERLIN.

Daring Robbery—Died.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—A most daring robbery was committed here on Wednesday last. About nine a. m. on that day two men entered the office of the Dominion Button Works, in the absence of the manager, and boldly carried off the cash-box, containing $110 in money, and quite a number of notes, and other valuable securities. They were met immediately afterwards by the unsuspecting proprietor coming leisurely down the front steps of the factory to the street, after which they disappeared. The cash-box was found yesterday in a swamp behind Mr. Peterson's house, broken open and rifled of the whole of its contents, except two or three unimportant papers and one copper coin. It is believed the robbers went to Toronto, but should they be arrested they can easily be identified by parties here who observed their suspicious movements.

Dr. Pipe, the first Mayor of Berlin, and for many years and active and influential townsman, died this morning of consumption, after a few months' illness, aged thirty-nine years.

St. JOHN, N. B.

The Brown-Morris Race.—Speaker Anglin's House on Fire.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 25.

The all absorbing topic to-day is the boat race to come off between Morris, of Pittsburg, and Brown, of Halifax. Within the past few days visitors from all parts of the Dominion and United States commenced to arrive. Morris reached here on the 15th, with two trainers. He has but one boat with him, the Robert Liddell, which Renforth brought to America on his first appearance in this country. He was taken to his training quarters at Riverside, and ever since has been in active training, practising every day. His style of rowing is much admired. On the 17th Brown came by steamer from Halifax. He is quartered at Torryburn, one and a half miles this side of Riverside. He is provided with two boats, the John Coney, in which he rowed at Springfield, and the one lately received from Elliott. Both were damaged on the day he took them to Torryburn by a drunken man stumbling over them, but have been repaired, and are as good to row a race as before. Dr. Thomas Walker, who was appointed final stakeholder, telegraphed to Frank Queen for the sum in his hands, but the latter refused to hand it over unless an order signed by Cragen, of the Halifax Rowing Club, was received. This, it was thought, would cause a postponement of the race, but everything has been satisfactorily settled by Mr. Queen placing at the credit of Dr. Walker, in some New York city bank, the amount he held. When the refusal first came an attempt was made to raise the full $4,000 here, and to do this Morris asked for the $500 promised him as expenses by some St. John men, but he did not get the money. The buoys have already been placed. The starting point will be at Torryburn Cove, and extend up the river to a point opposite Rothesay. All details were arranged to-night, the remaining $1,000 put up, and the race will come off at seven o'clock to-morrow should the elements so favor.

Little betting was done until last night when about $3,000 were put up at Ross's Billiard Hall; being two to one in Brown's favor.

THE RACE POSTPONED.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 25.

In consequence of the heavy fog prevailing the race has been postponed till seven a.m. to morrow. Over 6,000 spectators lined the banks of the Kennebeccasis. Everything quiet and orderly. Betting—Odds in favor of Brown, finding few takers.

BROWN VICTORIOUS.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 26.

Brown won the race by two lengths. There was great excitement over the result.

A large fire occurred last night. Several barns, stables, and one dwelling house were totally destroyed. The out-buildings in rear of the Hon. Speaker Anglin's house were burnt, and the house itself badly damaged. Mr. Anglin and family are away from home, and the house was closed at the time of the fire. The amount of insurance is not yet known.

KINGSTON.

Fire at Ford's Tannery.

KINGSTON, Sept. 26.

Yesterday morning, about 12.30, a fire broke out over the engine-room of Ford's Tannery. Before its discovery it had spread to such a degree as to render it impossible to save the main building, which was consumed, with the greater part of its contents, consisting of machinery and prepared material. The loss can scarcely as yet be learnt, no examination of the premises being possible as yet, and the condition of much of the material in process of manufacture and in the vats not being ascertained. It is estimated that it will exceed $40 000. The insurance on the building and contents is for $15,000, in the Queen's, Imperial, London Corporation, and British American Companies.

HAMILTON.

Street Cars on Sunday—Settled—For the Central Prison.

HAMILTON, Sept. 26.

The Street Railway Company have decided on running their cars on the mornings and evenings of Sundays, for the convenience of church goers.

The Mayor of Dundas the other day, received a Great Western Railway cheque for $26,255 50 (in addition to $10,000 in June last) in settlement of the arrangement between the company and the town.

Hamilton is not behind hand in furnishing her quota of convicts for the Central Prison; a batch of twelve left this morning for that institution.

CLIFTON.

The Fatal Accident at Niagara.

CLIFTON, Sept. 25.

The verdict of the coroner's inquest on the body of the young woman found over the precipiece near the Ravine road at Niagara Falls, Ont., yesterday afternoon, is that she was killed by accidentally falling over the bank while walking along the usual public pathway. The jury recommend the town authorities to petition Government for public protection in this matter, by placing a guard of some kind between the edge of the precipice and the highway, to prevent further accidents, the present carriage and pathway being so near the precipice as to render it very dangerous to vehicles and pedestrians. The young girl found dead near this dangerous path is thought to be a German

LONDON.

Drowned.

LONDON, Sept. 26.

A young man was drowned this morning in the river at St. John's mills while getting gravel with a team. He stumbled out of the waggon and fell into a deep hole, from which he could not escape.

ORANGEVILLE.

Fire.

ORANGEVILLE, Sept. 26.

Yesterday (Friday) morning about one o'clock, a fire broke out in a large pile of cut wood—over three thousand cords—belonging to the Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway. The wood was situate opposite the freight warehouse, and it was with the utmost difficulty the buildings were saved. A great number of the townspeople turned out and worked with a will, but six hours elapsed before the fire was subdued so far as to consider the danger at an end. Over two hundred cords of wood were burnt. A large gang of men is still employed in damping out the smouldering embers and preventing the fire from again spreading. The origin of the disaster is unknown.

SATURDAY'S DESPATCHES

ENGLAND.

That Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Colonel Stoffel has published a pamphlet vindicating himself in connection with the famous suppressed despatch from Bazaine to McMahon. He charges that McMahon's march to Sedan was caused by Orleanistic intrigues.

SPAIN.

Disastrous Floods.

MADRID, Sept 26.—The river Legree running through the province of Terida, has overflowed, causing great damage to property and serious loss of life. In the town of Terraga, twenty five miles north-east of the city of Terida, two hundred houses were swept away and many persons drowned.

GERMANY.

The Schleswig-Holstein Question.

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—The Volkesblatt, a semi-official journal, has accused Danish agitators with intriguing for the re-annexation of the whole of Schleswig to Denmark, and declares that the North Schleswig question should have long ago ceased to exist.

UNITED STATES.

Steamship Arrivals.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The steamship 'Ganges,' from Liverpool, has arrived.

Startling Revelations.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Tribune has a special from New Orleans which says on the day of the Pinn coup de'etat when the revolutionists seized the State House after Governor Kallogg's election, a large number of official and private letters were found in Archives office and have since been in the possession of the citizens. They implicate prominent men in Washington including two Senators to the extent that they are shown to have asked for and acknowledged the receipt of large sums of money from Kellogg, while the Louisana case involving the seating of Pinchback or McMillan was before the Senate.

International Rifle Match.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The International Rifle Match between the representative Irish and American marksmen at Creedmore to-day will not be concluded it is thought until two o'clock in the afternoon.

LATER—At the International Rifle Match here to-day the Americans won the first event of 500 yards by 326 to 317 for the Irish Team. Fulton of the Americans made 58 and Hamilton made the same for the Irish Team, being the best shooting ever witnessed. The betting is 100 to 75 in favor of the Americans.

Fire Matters.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—General Shaler of New York has been invited by the fire committee to come to Chicago and make a thorough examination of all matters connected with the Fire Department and bearing upon the Insurance question.

Trotting Match—Exciting Scene.

SACRAMENTO, Sept 26.—The Trot for $50,000 came off to-day. Summary—'Sam Purdy' 2 3 1 1 1, 'Accident' 1 1 2 2 2; 'Black Bird' 3 2 3 3 3. Time 2:2, 2:24½, 2:25½, 2:28, and 2:22¼. When it was announced that Purdy had won, beating the famous Californian, an indescribable scene of excitement ensued, the crowd almost carrying the winner off the course. Over $15,000 changed hands on the result.

SATURDAY'S MID-NIGHT DESPATCHES.

UNITED STATES.

Attempted Suicide.

NIAGARA FALLS, Sept 26.—A woman from Tonawanda attempted to commit suicide to-day, by jumping from the Lewiston train running at full speed. The woman was brought to Tonawanda in the next train. She is supposed to be fatally injured.

Antigua Destroyed by Earthquake.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—It is reported here that Antigua, Guatamala, was destroyed by earthquake last night at ten o'clock. The city must have suffered severely, as the earthquake was felt four leagues from Antigua.

The 'City of Peeking,' of the M. S. line, sailed to-day for San Francisco.

Arms and State Property to be Given Up.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26:—McEnery and Penn have issued a circular calling on all parties having arms or other State property to give them to the United States Officers, assuring them that there will be no interference by State Officers.

Demand for Troops.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Governor Moss, of South Carolina, this morning made a formal demand on the President for Federal troops to aid him to maintain peace and order in that State.

The International Rifle Contest—The Irish Team Defeated.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The result of the International shooting match to-day at Creedmore was as follows:—At 800 yards the Irish team made 317, the Americans 326. At 900 yards the Irish team made 312, the Americans 310. At 1000 yards the Irish team made 302, the Americans 298. Total, Irish team 931, Americans 934, the Americans winning by a score of 3.

Terrific Boiler Explosion—Five Persons Killed.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 26.—The Threshing machine accident at Franklin, yesterday, proves to be a serious affair. The boiler exploded with terrific force, throwing the engineer and fragments of the boiler 100 feet. Three persons were instantly killed, and three injured, one of whom has died. The names of the killed are Mrs. M. Barnish, Miss Kate Devine, and Dr. S. D. Grant. Perry Borke has since died. The following were injured: Master Devine, shoulder broken and injured internally; Thos. Cunningham, arm nearly torn off; Perry Borke was thrown about 400 feet from the engine and landed in a swamp.

Rumoured Collision between Italians and Coal Miners.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 26—At one o'clock this morning the operator at McDonald's Station reported the firing of musketry at Briar Hill Coal Mines, half a mile east of there, but could not give information definitely. It is probable that a collision between the Italians and the miners occurred. Later despatches say, that the advance of 50 strikers upon the picket line of the Italian miners was the cause of the firing. Three volleys were fired without effect, and the fire was returned by the Italians. None were injured so far as known. Considerable excitement exists at the different mines, but no further demonstration has been made by either party.

SANDWICH ISLANDS.

Reciprocity with the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 26.—The steamship 'City of Melbourne' brings Honolulu dates to the 12th of September. Honolulu newspapers are urging speedy action in reciprocity with the United States. The King has received a letter of congratulation from the Emperor Francis Joseph.

Transit of Venus.

The steamer 'Scout' with the expedition to observe the transit of Venus arrived at Honolulu. She brings Sydney dates to August 29th. She mail steamer 'Jeddah' took fire at Eden. The mails and passengers were landed and the vessel was scuttled.

MID-NIGHT DESPATCHES,

IN BRIEF.

The bridge between Santarano and Terida, Spain, has been destroyed by the flood, involving considerable loss of life.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin will be entertained to dinner on Monday night in Brooklyn.

There is great rejoicing at the American victory over the Irish Team.

The Mutual Base Ball Club, of New Rork] beat the Chicago's on Saturday.

Lieut.-Governor Morris, of Manitoba, arrived at St. Paul, Minn., on Saturday.

The difficulties among the Indians of the North West have been settled, and the troops were to leave on the 18th inst.

Four negroes attacked a white man on Saturday, and after beating him severely cut his throat. The scoundrels were arrested.

Advices from the British Colonies in the South Seas record a large number of marine disasters. A vast amount of property was destroyed.

The Communist convicts in New Caledonia and Isle of Pines are to be removed to the Island of Bellip.

Two thousand five hundred emigrants arrived in three months in the Province of Canterbury, New Zealand.

A fire in New Orleans yesterday destroyed property worth $100,000.

Mount Etna continues in a state of agitation. An earthquake yesterday shook the mountain to its base.

Seven more German men-of-war are expected to arrive off the Coast of Spain within a week.

WHOLESALE
Ready-Made
CLOTHING.

HAVING disposed of my Dry-Goods Establishment, I am now giving my personal attention to my Wholesale Ready-made Clothing Business. My stock is now ready for inspection, and will be found to compare favourably with any in the market.

Having had a long experience in the Ottawa Trade, I understand its requirements, and have my Clothing manufactured with a view to meet the wants of this market. It is my intention to keep on hand nothing but the best of Goods, both in point of quality and finish, believing as I do, that never in the history of the trade was there such a demand for a first-class article in Ready-made Clothing. I have employed

POND'S EXTRACT

ARTERIAL blood contains the elements of Vitality and Nutrition, which is emptied into the capillary system, and, after supplying the required nourishment, is sucked up by the minute branches of the venous system and carried back to the lungs for vital recuperation. By reason of much that is wrong in living and medical treatment, this stream of blood flowing through the body is not always pure or free from inflammatory particles, which may pass off by insensible perspiration through the skin or with the waste matter through the intestines, but cold or wet may stop their outward escape, and the internal drainage may become inactive, when the corrupt particles are apt to coagulate, causing pestules, scalp eruptions or running sores, bronchitis &c. They may locate about a nerve, causing neuralgia, and by attaching themselves to the arterial tubes and veins, large or small, and inflaming them by their corrosive influence, cause those intensely painful sensations called Rheumatism. Nature struggles to drench out or dislodge if possible these corrosive particles, and the parts become very red from the congestion or pressure of blood therein. This is called Inflammatore Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout. If nature does not succeed in washing out these acremonious atoms she withdraws the undue supply of blood from such parts, ceases to contend, and performs circulation as best she can; however, the passage of the blood through the affected channels still continues painful. This is Chronic Rheumatism, which may exist without its usual antecedant the Acute kind.

The above only true theory points out the correct treatment of this and other distressing maladies. Dissolve these corrupt particles that have lodged in the afflicted parts, so that in the circulation they may be carried off externally or internally, and having thus removed the cause the effect ceases.

The experiment of twenty years in the London Hospital, England, has demonstrated to the Medical Faculty of Europe, that the only medicine having control over this class of diseases, is the

CURE!

It is the result of a lifetime of scientific study and is now for the first time offered to the Canadian public, prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

A BLESSING TO THE POLICE.

MONTREAL, 18th June, 1864.

DEVINS & BOLTON:

GENTLEMEN,—Having been one of the many martyrs of rheumatism that I meet on my every day rounds, I was induced to try the celebrated DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. I had suffered the last five or six weeks the most terrible acute pains across my loins and back, so severe indeed that I could hardly walk with the help of a stick. I commenced the Diamond Remedy—following the directions carefully. Relief came immediately with the first bottle, improved rapidly with the second, completely cured and freed from pain after finishing my fifth small bottle. You are at perfect liberty either to refer to me privately or publicly, as I feel very thankful for the relief, and sympathize with my fellow sufferers from rheumatism.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. CARDINAL,
Sanitary Police Officer,
51 Labelle street.

In simple cases, sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of two or three bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send or it to

JOB MOSES' FEMALE PILLS,

This well known medicine is no imposition but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, they contain nothing hurtful to the constitution.

In [illegible] Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron calomel, antimony or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

For full particulars, obtain free, of the agent a pamphlet, or refer to advertisement.

JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR.

$1.00 and 12½ cents for postage, enclosed to Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agents for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills return mail.

For sale by all druggists. 25

Electric Oil Thomas' Excelsior Eclectric — Worth Ten Times in Weight in Gold.

Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures Catarrh, Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. J. Collard, of Sparts, Ontario, writes—"send me 6 dozen Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful." William Maguire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes. "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Electric Oil, I am nearly run out; nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes—"Send at once a further supply of Electric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well, and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes—"Send me some more Electric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reed, Ulverton, P.Q., writes—"The Electric Oil is getting a great reputation here, and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay." Lemoyne, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P. O., write—"Send us one gross Electric Oil. We find it to take well."

Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 5 cents.

A Beautiful Horse.—There is nothing that can contribute so much to render the horse beautiful and elegant, to improve his condition and make him all that is desirable, as "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," it has been used by many persons who own valuable cattle and other horses with decided success, and all are well pleased are they with it that they always keep it on hand. In case of emergency; it may be given at all times with perfect safety. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

In aid of the

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.

DAY FIXED AND A FULL DRAWING ASSURED.

—ON—

MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE FOR

An Easy Fortune.

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned, that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed, and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 31st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that is the last which will ever be given under this charter and by the present management,

That it will positively and unequivocally take place as announced, on

MONDAY, 30TH NOVEMBER,

That the music will be the best the country affords, and that

PURELY DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA ALCOHOL
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The New York Tribune.

The Consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemburg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to re-assert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the swift-coming phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Tribune, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century scepticism and secularism on the other. Recognizing a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionised through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed reform, the Tribune will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

DAILY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $10 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum. Five copies or over, $3 each; an extra copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time; or, if preferred, a copy of "Recollection of a Busy Life," by Mr Greeley.

KEATING PERSIANS INSECT DESTROYING POWDERS.

This Powder is quite harmless to animals, but unrivalled in destroying Fleas, Bugs, Emmet Flies, Cockroaches, Beetles, Gnats, Mosquitoes, Moths in Furs, and every other species of insect in all stages of metamorphosis. Sold in packets tins, and bottles of various sizes.

CAUTION.—The public are requested to observe that all the above preparations bear the Trade Mark as herein shown. Sold by all Chemists and Druggists.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL.

The distinctive character which has gained for Dr. De Jongh's Oil so much celebrity, the entire confidence of the most eminent members of the Medical Profession, and notwithstanding the active and unscrupulous opposition of many interested dealers, an unprecedented amount of public patronage may be thus concisely enumerated:—

I.—Its genuineness, purity, and uniform strength are ascertained and guaranteed.

II.—It contains all the active and essential principles that therapeutic experience has found to be the most effective in the operation of the remedy.

III.—It is palatable, easily taken, and creates no nausea.

IV.—It is borne with facility by the most delicate stomach and improves the functions of digestion and assimilation.

V.—Its medicinal properties and remedial action have been found to be immeasurably greater than those of any other kind of Cod Liver Oil.

VI.—From the unequalled rapidity of its curative effects, it is infinitely more economical than any which is offered, even at the lowest prices.

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST.

The extraordinary virtues of Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Consumption may now be considered as fully established. No remedy so rapidly restores the exhausted strength, improves the nutritive functions or produces a more marked and favorable influence on the local malady.

The following high testimony to the efficacy of Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil in Consumption is afforded by Allen G. Chattaway, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., of Leominster:—

"Having for some years extensively used Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, both in public and private practice, I have no hesitation in stating its effects are very far superior to those of any other Cod Liver Oil. Nearly two years since, two cases of confirmed Consumption were placed under my care. In both, the lungs were a mass of tubercular deposit, and every possible sound to be heard in phthisis was present. The sole remedy employed was Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil; and now the patients are strong and fat; the diseased (abnormal) sounds nearly inaudible; and in the one case (male) hunting, fishing, and shooting, are freely indulged in, the patient expressing himself quite capable of undergoing as much fatigue as any of his fellow sportsmen."

GENERAL DEBILITY AND EMACIATION.

In cases of prostration and emaciation, where the vital forces are reduced, and where life appears to be even at its lowest ebb, the restorative powers of Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil are remarkably manifested. By its administration the natural appetite is revived, and the functions of digestion and assimilation are improved, reanimated, and regulated; and, when its use has been steadily preserved in, its peculiar tonic and nutritive properties have entirely restored health and strength to the most feeble and deteriorated constitutions.

The actual benefit derived is thus described by Rowland Dalton, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., District Medical Officer at Bury St. Edmunds:—

"In giving my opinion of Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, I have no hesitation in saying that I have not the slightest confidence in any other kind. The effects of Dr. De Jongh's Oil are sure and most remarkable, especially in that broken down state of health and strength which usually precedes and favors tubercular deposit; and I never recommend any other sort. The Oil I have had from you was for my own use, and it has certainly been the only means of saving my life on two occasions, and even now, when I feel 'out of condition,' I take it, and like it, unmixed with anything, as being the most agreeable way. I could wish that Dr. De Jongh's Oil would come into general use, and entirely supersede the Pale and other worthless preparations."

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From innumerable medical and scientific opinions of the highest character in commendation of Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, the following are selected:—

Sir Henry Marsh, Bart., M.D., Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I consider Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil to be a very pure Oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

Dr. David Smith, F.R.S., Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light Brown Oil supplied by Dr. De Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the Oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst so much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness." (Extract from "Consumption: its early and Remediable Stages.")

Dr. Barlow, F.R.S., Sen. Physician to Guy's Hospital.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it be a very pure Oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use that substance is indicated."

Dr. Lawrence, Physician to H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

I invariably prescribe Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil in preference to any other, feeling assured that I am recommending a genuine article and not a manufactured compound in which the efficacy of this invaluable medicine is destroyed."

Sir Joseph Olliffe, M.D., Physician to the British Embassy at Paris.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, and I have every reason to be satisfied with its beneficial and salutary effects."

Lankester, F.R.S., Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this Oil is secured in its preparation by the personal attention of so good a Chemist and intelligent a Physician as Dr. De Jongh, who has also written the best Medical Treatise on the Oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

THE ROYAL READERS.

A NEW SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED ENGLISH READING-BOOKS.

From Mr. M. Patterson, Rector of the Free Church Training School, Moray House, Edinburgh.

"Thanks for the Specimen of your new Reading Books and Sheets. They are admirable in every particular. Nothing, in my opinion, would more contribute to the improvement of Education than the wide circulation of these books, and the intelligent handling of them."

From A. Montgomerie, L.L.D., Principal of Ladies' College Glasgow.

"I have examined very carefully the 'Printing,' and Nos. I., II., and III. of the Royal Readers, and have no hesitation in saying that they are, in my opinion, incomparably the best English Reading-Books that have ever been published. The adaptation of the means to the end in view is perfect."

From T. Morrison, M.A., Rector of the Free Church Normal School, Glasgow.

"I have very carefully examined the Royal Readers. The plan is excellent, and the execution, if I may say so, even better. They are out of sight the best series of Reading-books published and should very speedily be widely used. The illustrations constitutes an admirable features and add much to the value of the Readers"

Caution.

PANCREATIC EMULSION.

The efficacy of these Medicines in the treatment of indigestion, Bronchitis or Pulmonary Catarrh, Consumption, Wasting, &c., &c., depending entirely upon their purity and strength. Messrs SAVORY & MOORE caution the public against imitations of them which are put forth as possessing the remedial properties of the true preparations, but which are in reality either saponaceous compounds, ointments or pomades, without a trace of the Pancreatic principle and entirely unfit and useless as medicines. These imitations are calculated to produce serious disappointment and to injuriously affect the reputation which the true Pancreatine and Pancreatic Emulsion have acquired. It is therefore highly important that purchasers examine the labels on the bottles for the names and Trade mark

Extract from an Analytical Report upon a Foreign Specimen of a so-called Preparation of Pancreatine.

"This compound resembled an ointment or Pomade in appearance and consistency, and was flavored with Essence of Almond or Prussic Acid. It was strongly alkaline, indicating free alkali, which acting upon the fat, produced the usual saponifying result; the whole forming a granular moist mass of fat, soap, glycerine and water. This ointment was physically and chemically different from the true Pancreatic Emulsion which I have also examined, and which, besides being rich in Pancreatic juice, has the delicate smooth appearance and consistency of fresh cream, is palatable and readily taken."

LEA & PERRINS
CELEBRATED
DECLARED BY CONNOISSEURS
TO BE
THE ONLY GOOD SAUCE.

CAUTION AGAINST FRAUD

The success of this most delicious and unrivalled Condiment having caused certain dealers to apply the name of "Worcestershire Sauce" to their own inferior compounds, the Public is hereby informed that the only way to secure the genuine is to and to see that their names are upon the wrapper labels, stopper, and bottle.

ASK FOR LEA AND PERRINS' SAUCE,

Some of the foreign markets having been supplied with a spurious Worcestershire Sauce, upon the wrapper and labels of which the names of Lea and Perrins have been forged, L. and P. give notice that they have furnished their correspondents with power of attorney to take instant proceedings against Manufacturers and Vendors of such, or any other immitations by which their right may be infringed.

Ask for LEA & PERRINS' Sauce, and see Name on Wrapper, Label, Bottle, and Stopper.

"My Son give me Thine Heart."

BY PROFESSOR ALLAN CURR, F.R.S.L., FOR THE VISITOR, (London.)

"I had a dream one Summer even, as on the bank I lay,
Of a clear and rapid river, that, like time, held on its way;
Till in its ocean destiny the deep'ng stream was lost,
And I knew upon that ocean my bark would soon be lost.

"Methought there stood before me, 'ere I launched upon the tide,
A form so fair, and yet so sad—Jesus, the crucified:
Blood trickled from his wounded side, pierced with a cruel dart.
As with a look of love, He said: 'My son give Me thine heart.'

"I gazed upon His bleeding brow, torn by its prickly crown;
I tracked his footsteps by the blood that overflowed down.
I knew it MUST be JESUS, when I heard with sudden start,
Again the words so low and sweet, 'My son give Me thine heart.'

"Up from the grassy bank I sprang and knelt upon the sod,
I'll give Thee all my wealth, I cried, my Saviour and my God;
My houses, lands, all, all are Thine, from them I'll freely part,
But sad and low His voice replied, 'My son give Me thine heart.'

"Jesus, I cried, for Thee I'll leave the friends I love so dear,
I'll build a temple to thy praise, and worship Thee with fear;
The costliest gems of ocean birth, brought from earth's richest mart,
I'll freely give; but still he said; 'My son give Me thine heart.'

"I fell before his naked feet, and kissed the wounds they bore,
I wept to see the bleeding flesh, the cruel nails had tore,
My God! my Saviour! then I cried—He raised me to His breast;
My heart, my all I give to Thee—here let me rest.

"I woke upon the grassy slope, beside the gliding stream;
Surely the vision I had seen could not be all a dream.
And I gazed upon the river till with tears mine eyes grew dim,
And longed to reach the ocean of eternal bliss with Him."

A Marvellous Escape.

The escapes of some of the early Western pioneers from the Red Indians were so remarkable as to be almost if not quite miraculous.

The disastrous expedition of Colonel Crawford, in the spring of 1782, is a matter of history. The Colonel himself was taken by the Indians, and compelled to undergo the most excruciating tortures which their savage ingenuity could devise. A large number of men under his command were killed on their retreat, and a few taken prisoners. On these unfortunate captives the Indians vented their most terrible rage. They seem to have felt no mercy for any one connected with that unfortunate campaign. It was enough for them to know that a captive had been concerned in the wicked expedition, to consign him to the most cruel death. In this there was a species of barbarous, poetic justice. The objects of that campaign were the murder and plunder of Moravian Indian—an inoffensive, non-resistant Christianized sect—and the whites were defeated by brave, determined warriors, who nobly espoused the cause of their innocent brethern. If fearful and vindictive retaliation could ever in any case be justified, their own, under the circumstances, might be regarded as a fit retribution. There were, no doubt, many misguided men, not wilfully guilty of wrong, who suffered for the sins and crimes of others; but such is always the fate of war.

After a pitched battle with the Indians, in which the whites were sadly defeated, we have said that many were killed on their retreat, and a few taken prisoners. Among the latter was a man by the name of Slover, whose wonderful, not to say miraculous, escape from the final tortures to which he was condemned, we propose to relate.

After his capture, Slover was taken to an Indian village called Grenadier Squaw Town, to have his fate decided. This place stood in the centre of the celebrated Pickaway Plains, Ohio. The Grenadier Squaw, from whom this village took its name, was a large, muscular masculine woman, of good intellectual abilities, but of an unprepossessing appearance. She was a sister of the great chief Cornstalk, whose village was on the opposite side of the creek, almost within hail. A few rods below the Grenadier Squaw Town was the council house of the nation; and near it a small elevation, which commanded a view of the level plains for miles around. On this little hillock was set the state of torture and the flames around the victim could be seen by the savage inhabitants of the different settlements and isolated dwellings within a circuit of many leagues.

Slover was considered a great prize by his captors—a prize which would afford them both amusement and revenge. They therefore guarded him with great care, but could not forbear to have a little savage sport with him in the interval between his capture and trial. It was their almost invariable custom, whenever a prisoner entered a village, either to remain or merely pass through on his way to another, to compel him to run the gauntlet, previous to deciding upon his fate; and this Slover had been forced to do several times before reaching Grenadier Squaw Town.

This running the gauntlet was in itself no trifling affair, and many a stout captive has received his death-blow between the lines. Slover had been much beaten and bruised, before arriving at his destination; but the more fierce of the savages had been warned not to kill him, as that would be giving him an easy death, and depriving the nation of a glorious holiday of amusements and revenge. At Grenadier Squaw Town, Slover was received with the most savage delight, and the last gauntlet was immediately prepared for him. Two long lines of men, women and children were formed, extending from the village to the council house, which was a building much larger than the dwellings, and stood, as we have said, some distance below the others, on the open plain. These living lines were armed with sticks and clubs; and, as the unfortunate prisoner ran between them, they rained upon his unprotected head and body a succession of heavy blows, accompanied with infernal yells and screeches. Like their predecessors in this species of torture they had all been duly warned against depriving him of life, and therefore he reached the council-house in a partially exhausted, bruised, and bleeding state, but without any very serious wounds.

The horrid execution of the poor captive was fixed for the day following his trial; and as he was being escorted from the council-house to an unoccupied log hut, which was to serve him as a prison, he was surrounded by a fierce mob of men, women, and children, who vied with each other in heaping upon him the most coarse and vulgar abuse, and in striking, kicking and pinching him at every opportunity—all of which the poor fellow bore with a stoicism that would have done credit to an Indian brave. A number of the savages, in their intercourse with American and British traders, and agents, and renegades, had picked up a smattering of English words, and these they now used with all the venom of their nature.

'You poor squaw baby!' cried an old hag, as she crowded up and struck him across the face with a stick.

'You much squeal in fire!' screamed a third, as she pinched him with all her might.

'White nigger eat fire!' shouted several children in chorus, doing all they could to hurt, annoy, and irritate him.

Slover made no reply to any, but bore all with a meekness and firmness worthy of a martyr. On entering the hut where he was to pass the last night he ever expected to see in this world, the Indian guards of the condemned prisoner proceeded to bind his hands tightly together behind his back. Then making him sit down against a wall of the shanty, they passed a stout buffalo thong around his neck, and secured it to a log in such a manner that he had no power to change his position. In this painful condition, without anything to eat or drink, he passed the long night of horror, his guards keeping wide awake and near him, occasionally making an examination to see that he was perfectly secure, and often taunting him about his unfortunate condition, and describing in the best English at their command the cruelties that would be practised on him on the morrow.

The morning rose clear and serene, and to the excited savages gave promise of a glorious day of sport. At an early hour they began to pour in from the different villages for miles around; and by noon an immense throng had collected, consisting of noted chiefs and warriors, aged veterans and women and children, for it was intended to make the affair in the highest degree imposing. A good, hearty breakfast had been served to the prisoner, not from any feeling of compassion, but merely to increase his strength and power of endurance so that the torture might be prolonged.

As the time drew near for the intended victim to be led forth to the stake, he was stripped naked and painted black from head to foot; and then, as his guards conducted him to the elevated spot where so many, both white and red, had already suffered, the welkin was rent with the delighted screams and yells of the hundreds of both sexes and all ages assembled around the base of the burning ground. At the very apex of the little hill was set a stout stake, to which was attached a rope several feet in length, which was now made fast to the prisoner's hands behind his back. This gave him a circuit of some ten or twelve feet in diameter to move about in, and outside of which was the circle of faggots, intended for the purpose, not of burning him to death, but of roasting him from head to foot in a slow and torturing manner.

Everything being now in readiness for the horrid work, the torch was applied to the dry faggots, and another universal yell of satisfaction rent the air; but just as the flame shot upwards, there came a heavy boom of thunder, as if heaven was displeased at the cruel act; and the superstitious Indians, suddenly hushed to silence looked up in surprise co-mingled with awe. For the first time it was noticed that a black and angry cloud was rolling up in the West, from which issued fierce tongues of flame, each of which was quickly followed by heavy reports, that every moment grew louder and more threatening. The attention of the savages was not divided between the approaching storm and the prisoner at the stake and as they noted the heaving and whirling clouds pushing rapidly and angrily incessantly, and each successive report rolling over their heads with a heavier boom, their superstitious hearts began to fear that the Great Spirit was angry with them for the deed they were about to do.

The progress of the storm was uncommonly rapid. Scarcely had the flame completed its circuit, before the anxious prisoner, standing at the stake in the centre, had begun to feel more than a slight glow of heat, when a fierce gust of wind sent the faggots flying in every direction, and the swiftly descending rain put out the fire. Amid the roar of a tempest most fearfully sublime, the spectators hastened to seek shelter in the village; and the reprieved captive, almost venturing to hope that kind Providence had interfered in his behalf, was returned to his prison.

The storm raged all the rest of the day, and until late in the night; and Slover remained unmolested but closely guarded, being reserved for a more propitious occasion. Late in the night his two guards fell asleep; and becoming aware of this from their snoring, he made a desperate effort to get away. He was secured in the same manner as on the night previous, his hands tied behind his back, and his neck fastened to a log by a stout thong. After a hard struggle he got his hands free, and then eagerly began to work at the thong about his neck. At first he seemed to make no impression on it, and, after labouring for an hour, he became greatly fatigued, and began to despair. One of the Indians now got up and lit his pipe, and Slover trembled for fear he would examine his fastenings, discover his attempt at escape, and deprive him of the little hope still remaining. But the savage did not approach him, and, in a short time he lay down and went to sleep again.

Slover now once more tried the cord about his neck, and, to his utter surprise, found it loose enough to slip over his head—a sort of miracle which he never attempted to explain. At last he was free; and stealing softly out of the hut, over the very bodies of the sleeping Indians, he turned into a corn-field and ran for his life. Taking a zig-zag course, he scarcely knew whither, expecting every moment to hear the yells of his foes in pursuit, he reached a high plain where a drove of horses were quietly feeding. With the thong that had bound his wrists, and which he had brought away with him, he now hurriedly made a sort of halter, caught one of the animals, put it over his nose, mounted his back and dashed away just as day was breaking. He kept the horse at the top of his speed till the poor beast gave way; and then he left him and pushed on, afoot and alone, through the great wilderness, unarmed and naked.

Foot sore, exhausted, and terribly lacerated by thorns and brambles, poor Slover at last reached a civilized habitation, and lived many years afterwards to tell the tale of his wonderful deliverance.

INFLAMATION OF THE LUNGS.—Clifton, N. B., 17th February, 1873. Sir; In behalf of my family, I wish to acknowledge a debt of gratitude I owe Mr. James I. Fellows. My daughter had been ill with inflammation of the Lungs, had raised large quantities of blood and purulent matter, attended with every symptom of Consumption. After obtaining the attention of two eminent physicians, who afforded her no relief, she was persuaded to try Fellows Syrup of Hypophosphites. Upon taking two bottles we had every reason to believe she would be cured. Her physicians were surprised to find her improvement so rapid, and advised her to continue its use, which she did until her complete recovery. Two years have elapsed, during which time she has neither taken nor required any medicine, enjoying good health, and urges all who are afflicted with any Lung or Chest trouble to use the Hypophosphites without fail. My wife, also having been in bad health for some time, and having had Typhoid Fever in December last, which left her much prostrated, was advised by the physicians to use this remedy to build her up. Before taking half a bottle she found herself much benefited, and still continues to use it. I believe, under kind Providence, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has been the means of restoring both my wife and daughter, and I hope the afflicted will avail themselves of its use, for although it is widely used. I think its value is not appreciated. Yours truly, JOSEPH A. EVANS. 3677

The Ottawa Times

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1874.

Advices have reached Ottawa, of the return to Fort Garry of the treaty-making Commissioners and of the success of their mission after a tedious negociation. They have made a treaty which embraces a very considerable extent of country. It is bounded on the south by the international line, and extends as far west as the Cypress Hills—110½ degrees—near the crossing of the Milk River into the United States, thence along the South Saskatchewan to Qu'Appelle Fort, in latitude about 51.30; thence to Red Deer River; terminating at the extreme northerly end of Lake Winnipegosis.

REDISTRIBUTION OF SEATS.

The organs of the Opposition have heard that the Ontario Government intend to propose a redistribution of seats at the forthcoming session, and forthwith they have each formally entered a protest. It is remarkable that the rumour—for as yet it is nothing more or less than that—should have sent so much dismay into the Tory camp. A redistribution, whether it is going to take place or not, is one of the most natural, and one would fancy also one of the least offensive things it would be possible for any Government to propose. We are assured by the organs day after day that the country is thoroughly tired of Mr. Mowat and his colleagues, that at the approaching election the tables will be completely turned, and that we shall within the next eighteen months see a return to Tory rule in the leading Province of Canada. If the unpopularity of the Government is half as general as they represent it, if the indignation of the people is so deep and strong,—in short, if the Tories have the smallest modicum of faith in the doctrine they have been preaching and teaching for the last three years, and more especially since the dissolution has been on the tapis, their dismay is very difficult to account for. Surely the larger the number of constituencies and the more members they elect, the more overwhelming will be the Conservative majority in the new House, and the greater the humiliation of the hated Liberals. The chief Tory organ tells us there will be "a widespread feeling of regret" that the Government should "even contemplate" such a thing. The Mail must have been taking lessons in the art of decent and moderate journalism lately, otherwise how in the world could it have been enabled to speak in such calm and measured tones of this contemplated proposition. We may say in passing that if this moderate style of criticism had been attained, or even approached in its general conduct in the past, the cause which it was, when started, designed to help, would have been in a more advanced and healthy condition to-day. To that personal, indecent, and screaming mode of journalism, whose chief exponent it has ever been, and in which it has been faithfully copied by the lesser lights of the party, we owe those sorrowful reflections which have recently found expression through almost the entire press of Ontario, and the abashed countenances with which leading journalists have been compelled to confess that party strife has been so rancerous and so debasing that such a thing as independent criticism or an honest expression of opinion through a party newspaper has become a practical impossibity. However, we are bound to dissent from the moderately expressed opinion of the Mail in regard to the feeling of the country on the question of a new arrangement of the constituencies, and we believe that if any measure of the kind indicated should be proposed, it will, on the other hand, be received in the country with feelings of pleasure, and indeed in some cases of thankfulness. It is unnecessary to say that in any probable new arrangement, the claims of the various cities, and Ottawa among the rest, to increased representation, would inevitably come up prominently for consideration, and indeed if the Government has entertained the project at all, it is undoubtedly because of the existence of these claims, and the pressing necessity for dealing with them. The changes which would take place in the number and topography of country constituencies, supposing the last Federal redistribution to form, as to some extent it would unquestionably form, the basis of the new division, would be of no great account. There are several new districts, to be sure, which could not properly be passed over without consideration, and there are several inconsistencies as between existing counties, both as regards their comparative population and geographical boundaries, which would necessarily require to be remedied. But redistribution in the aggregate means an increase of influence to our cities—an increase which is only commensurate with their great and growing populations, their material wealth, and their intrinsic importance. No argument which could possibly be advanced could demonstrate the propriety of the city of Ottawa being represented in the Legislature by but one member, while many rural constituencies with fewer inhabitants and more limited and less important interests at stake, are at present, and will in future, be in a position to command greater respect and attention, because of their more commensurate influence in the House. The Mail says that any new division of the constituences is unnecessary. We have shown that in fairness to the cities it is very necessary. The same organ tells us it is not required by the constitution. We reply that it is not forbidden, either by the spirit or the letter of the Act of Confederation, and the simple fact of its necessity is thus enough to justify it. Another argument is attempted to be used—namely, that there is no demand for it. That is simply a matter of opinion. Admitting, however, that there has been as yet no demand for it, it is only another proof of the prescience which is characteristic of Liberal statesmen, who are always ready with measures when they are needed, in anticipation of any great popular agitation, and not like your stick-in-the-mud Tories, after resistance is no longer possible. The Mail holds that although there has been a redistribution of seats for the Federal Parliament, that is no reason why there should be any change, so far as the Local House is concerned. If the question had no deeper bearing than the Mail tries to make us believe, the reasoning might be admissible. But there are such reasons. We ask why were the divisions of Federal constituencies and the number of their representatives applied to the Local Legislature at Confederation, and the Mail presents us with the impotent answer that "it was thought advisable," that it was "convenient, and nothing more." Convenience and advisability are just as potent reasons in 1874 as they were in 1867, and for that matter more so, for we have had time since then to see for ourselves in what respects the arrangement of seven years ago was deficient, as well as to fully consider the best means for its improvement. The arguments of the Mail, in short, are simply a repudiation of of the principle of equal representation, and a stupid adhesion, for the sake of being able to find fault, to an arrangement of the constituencies which does a manifest injustice to the cities as well as some some of the counties, which have each increased since 1867 in population and the possession of those interests which demand Parliamentary representation to any extent which demands a general re-adjustment. The Mail, abandoning the fair and argumentative line of discussion with which its treatment of the subject in the the early sentences of the article was marked, resumes the screaming, alarmist strain which is its leading characteristic, and tells us that this proposition for redistribution—which, of course, has not yet been and may not be made—is "little "short of a conspiracy against the "people of Ontario." The leap from the moderate statement with which the article began to this sensational assertion is surely as illogical as it is remarkable. We are further told that the Federal redistribution was compulsory upon Sir John Macdonald, and that he could not help making it; so that, if we are to believe in the logic of the Tory organ, the Conservative Premier of the Dominion was guilty of a conspiracy against the people, demanded by a constitution which he claims credit for having himself framed, and for which he was thus responsible; while Mr. Mowat proceeds to do the same thing without first having framed and passed a law which makes it imperative. There may be a distinction between the two cases, but it is rather difficult to perceive it. The truth is that the Mail and the whole Conservative party are in mortal terror of the results of the impending election, even under present circumstances, and the prospect that the Provincial Government are going to do anything which would so materially improve the present unsatisfactory and in many respects unjust arrangement of constituencies, and which would inevitably add to their well-established popularity, apparently serves to increase their pertubation. It is only natural in them to suggest that the Administration mean to suit the arrangements to their own necessities. It is the old story of measuring other people's corn by your own bushel. The Tory party have been so much accustomed to do those things with a view to advancing their own interests, of which the present division of Federal constituencies is a striking illustration, that they could scarcely be expected to have much faith in other people's honesty. At the worst, and accepting their own theory in its entirety, it would merely be a case of the pot exchanging compliments on cleanliness with the pan. We refuse, however, to accept that theory, either entirely or partly, and are ready to assure the Government of Ontario that if they consult their own popularity and the desires of a large portion of the people, they will take an early opportunity of doing that of which the Tory organ seems so terribly afraid.

ALLEGED ABDUCTION.—For several weeks past the residents around Fort Henry, New York, have been much excited over the singular disappearance of a young and handsome married lady from her home. It appears, as far as has been gathered from the statement of Dr. C. H. Barber, her husband—he now being in Montreal, that he had been acquainted with his wife from childhood, and that a deep affection sprung up between them. He, after completing his medical studies, proposed to the lady, who accepted him, and they were married about three months ago. The doctor states that during his absence from home his wife was abducted, he has since learned, by two women who were the accomplices, as he alleges, a sewing-machine agent named A. Thibault or William Thornton. He states that besides his wife, the abductors took everything in the house which they could conveniently dispose of, and started for Canada. He followed them and arrived in Montreal last Tuesday, since which time he has been making vain endeavours to find out the whereabouts of his wife. He learned that she and a companion had stopped at a hotel on Chaboillez Square, but they had gone away. This afternoon, Dr. Barber, while prosecuting his enquiries, alleges that he came upon Thibault at a store on Notre Dame street, and that there the latter threatened to shoot him, unless he immediately left. The doctor was so convinced that Thibault was in earnest, that he immediately repaired to the Police Court, where he had a warrant issued for Thibault's arrest. The doctor was very much excited, and stated that he was certain his wife, who is only eighteen years of age, well educated, and an accomplished musician, was forcibly taken away from her home. She is the daughter of a wealthy marble dealer, near Port Henry, N. Y., for whom the doctor has telegraphed. The distressed father and mourning mother are expected to arrive by this evening's train. Where Mrs. Barber is, is as yet a mystery. Her husband, who is only 25 years of age, hails from Wallingford, Vermont. It was through the agency of United States and Montreal detectives that Dr. Barber was able to get a clue to his wife's whereabouts.—Witness.

CITY AND VICINITY

CHEESE FACTORY.—The Village of Pakenham, in the County of Lanark is to have a cheese factory erected there this fall.

NEW CURATE.—The Rev. Father Murray, late of Long Island, has just been appointed Roman Catholic Curate of Perth.

GOOD SUCCESS.—Mrs. James Carroll and Mrs. R. P. Watson, who have been soliciting subscriptions for Widow Mattingly, have realized upwards of a hundred dollars.

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK. An invaluable article; every house keeper should have it; every traveller should have it; every hotel should have it. It is used with a common pen and is always ready. Payson's Ink has endured the test of over 40 years. 3684

PRAISEWORTHY.—Messrs. Wallace and McCullough, who have taken such a warm interest on behalf of Mrs. H. Mattingly, have succeeded in collecting something like $150 for the bereaved widow. The action of these gentlemen is a praiseworthy one, and the response so heartily given by the public, speaks well for the benevolent spirit that exists in the community.

SOVEREIGN MASONRY.—Mr. T. D. Harington, Most Worshipful Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Master Masons of Canada, has received a warrant from the Supreme Council of the 33° authorising him to establish that degree in Canada. It is signed by the Prince of Wales, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of England, by the Earl of Carnarvon, and a host of other dignitaries of the Order in Great Britain.

OTTAWA CHORAL UNION.—Arrangements have been made for the first practice of this society, which will be held in a room rented for the season, over Lang's hardware store, corner of O'Connor and Sparks street. The first practice to take place on Tuesday next the 6th of October. Intending members are requested to sign the roll at Messrs. Orme's and Nordheimer's. The music selected to commence with is Haydn's "Creation," and members are requested to provide themselves with copies of it.

NEW BANK BUILDING.—The Merchants' Bank have a new building almost completed in the village of Almonte, which is said to be a beautiful structure, and fitted up with all modern improvements. Mr. F. A. W. Lester, the agent, will move into it next week. As a proof of his good standing and reputation in connection with banking affairs, Mr Lester has just had the refusal of the Cashiership of the Union Bank, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, but declined for reasons involved in future considerations in connection with his own Bank.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF FIRE BRIGADE CHIEFS.—A grand Convention of all the Heads of the Fire Departments of the United States and Canada, will be held in the city of St. Louis, Mo., on the fifth of October next. The meeting is expected to be a very large one this year, and it is believed that matters of great importance to fire organizations will be introduced and discussed. Mr. Young, Chief of the Fire Brigade of this city, has received an invitation to be present at the Convention, and there is no doubt that the Corporation in their wisdom will see fit to grant him leave of absence, and full compensation for the necessary expense which have to be incurred in travelling so long a distance.

PIONEERS OF CALIFORNIA.—The Pioneers of California were among the most energetic and intelligent men who ever embarked in a grand enterprise, and they, if any one, know when they have a good thing. They are all of them investing in the tickets of the Public Library of Kentucky, for the next and last Grand Gift Concert, to come off November 30th. At this, the very last Concert, which library is entitled by its charter to give, there will be $2,500,000 in cash distributed to the ticket holders; there is one prize to every five tickets, and among the prizes there are such as these, all in cash, $50,000, $50,000, $25,000, $10,000, &c., &c., &c. No wonder the Pioneers are going for them—who wouldn't? All the States, and all Europe are buying up the tickets. 3684

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—On the afternoon of the last day of the races, says the Perth Courier, Thursday, 17th inst., while Mr. McKechnie and his sister-in-law, Miss Julia Shamieur, both of Smith's Falls, were driving in to town from the Course, one of the front wheels of their buggy came off, and that end of the axle falling to the ground, both of the occupants were pitched violently out of the vehicle. Mr. McKechnie escaped comparatively unhurt, but Miss Shamieur was terribly injured—her skull being fractured a little back of the left temple, her left wrist broken, and the whole of that side more or less bruised. She was taken to the residence of a relation, Mr. Richard Williams, at once, and medical aid brought to bear on her injuries—Drs. Kellock, Rugg, and Anderson rendering the sufferer all the assistance in their power. The fracture of the skull having been trephined and the other wounds dressed, the patient is doing as well as can be expected, and very good hopes are entertained of her final recovery. Dr. Kellock performed the operation of trephining.

STORMING THE BASTILE.—"The Storming of the Bastile" or the "Romance and Drama of the French Revolutions," will be the subject of Prof. Curr's lecture in Daly Street Presbyterian Church to-night. The lecture is said to be one replete with interest, and is specially illustrated by very remarkable dramatic and entertaining stories and incidents of French life and character, both ancient and modern. The following syllabus will give the reader some faint idea of the nature of the subject:—Origin of the Bastile; its first victim; the Bastile as a fortress; its early, thrilling history; Louis XI; the Cardinal caught in his own trap; the iron cage; a horrible tragedy; lettres de cachet; the Bastile, its mystery and horror; the fiery chamber; the pit; gold-makers in Paris; the man in the mask; De la Tude; political state of France at the last Century; gathering clouds; a terrible prophecy; revolution at the door; the three days of July; scenes in the streets; thrilling story of the taking and destruction of the hated Bastile; the great lessons taught by its downfall to america and the world." There will be doubtless be a large attendance to hear this important lecture.

A FIRE COMPANY FOR CORNWALL.—The sad experience of Cornwall in the recent disastrous conflagration, has driven the people to provide necessary means to stay the ravages of fire in that town. On one or two occasions fire has visited the place and resulted in sad havoc to prosperity for the want of necessary appliances. The Cornwall Freeholder in writing on the subject says: "A meeting was held in the Town Hall, on Monday evening last, for the purpose of organizing a Fire Company. The attendance was very fair. After spending a short time in discussing the advisability of getting a steam fire engine a list was opened out and a large number of signatures obtained. The meeting then adjourned until Tuesday night, then to meet for the election of officers. At the meeting on that night the following officers were elected: W C Allen, Captain; C J Mattice, 1st Lieutenant; P B Martin, 2nd Lieutenant; Owen Callaghan, 1st Engineer; William Pendergrast, 2nd Engineer; Wm Mack Treasurer; Wm Pollock, Secretary. The Captain and 1st Engineer were instructed to proceed to Prescott for the purpose of examining the new steam fire engine recently purchased by that town. We learn since their return that they were very favorably impressed with the working of the engine."

PERSONAL.—Mr. Shaw, representative of Mr. Joseph Stovel, tailor, of Toronto, is in the city and staying at the Russell House. He has with him a very large and select assortment of patterns for Fall and Winter Clothing. 35 3-2

A NIGHT IN THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF COMMONS.

An Eloquent Lecture.

Last night the Wesleyan Methodist Church, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, was filled to hear the Rev. Prof. Allan Curr, F.S.L.L, the distinguished London Editor and Lecturer, delivered his celebrated lecture on the "English House of Commons."

His Worship the Mayor, in the absence of the Hon. A. Mackenzie occupied the chair, and amongst those present were the Revds. A. A. Cameron, J. McCormac, J. Young and J. Armstrong, together with many of the leading citizens of Ottawa.

The Rev. Mr. Cameron apologized for the absence of the Premier, who had been detained by pressure of business of State, but he was pleased to find an able substitute in His Worship the Mayor, who is at all times ready to help in literary as well as Municipal affairs. (Cheers.)

His Worship in taking the Chair regretted the absence of the Hon Mr. Mackenzie, who doubtless would have done honor to the occasion for which they were assembled. He would not preface the lecture by any remarks, but simply introduce to the audience, Prof. Curr.

Mr. Curr on coming forward excused himself on account of a hoarseness he had contracted from too frequent preaching and public speaking of late and trusted the audience would forbear with him under the circumstances. He prefaced his eloquent and interesting discourse of two hours' length, by a description of the surrounding of the English Houses of Parliament, giving also in detail the means of ingress and egress to the Chamber of the House of Commons. He described the members as being principally lawyers or railway directors, although a few Squires and persons in the ordinary walks of life were also to be found in its ranks. He pourtrayed in a very humorous manner the ways and means for gaining admission to the galleries of the House of Commons, and graphically described the flunkeyism and red tapeism that existed from the Sergeant-at-Arms down to the policeman-usher. He referred to the intense interest that sometimes manifested itself without, waiting for admission when some great question of public import was being discussed, and when it was understood that Gladstone, Disraeli or Bright were to speak there was a perfect rush for admission. He next adverted to the insufficient accommodation in the English House of Commons, both for members and spectators, and stated it to be anything but commensurate with public requirements. He also spoke of the acoustic properties in the House, and the difficulty reporters experienced in reporting speeches. In fact he believed most of such buildings were constructed more for the benefit of the contractor and the glory of the architect, than to attain any degree of success in their acoustic properties. He next alluded to the eccentricities so peculiar among members of the House and the apparent indifference with which the work of legislation was attended to. He next paid a high eulogium to the reporters of the English press, in the reporters' gallery, who did so much to enlighten the public in regard to political matters, and who had well merited for the press the title of the Fourth Estate. He next proceeded to give pen pictures of some of the most noted members of the House, introducing many amusing incidents in connection therewith. Amongst those whom he referred to were Messrs. Gladstone, Disraeli, Bright, Hardy, Mill, Palmerston, Whalley, Osborne, and several other lesser lights. He next spoke of the Committees of the house, and argued that after all the most successful member of Parliament was the one that devoted his time and talents to Committee work. He followed with some amusing reflections to the means adopted to acquire a seat in the House of Commons, which he depicted as a vast pawn-brokers shop full of unredeemed pledges, some of which were not worth redeeming. He next discoursed on the qualities essential to make an orator, and in speaking of gesture, illustrated the eccentric gesticulations of many members of the English Parliament, affording much merriment to his hearers. He concluded a very able, amusing and instructive lecture amid long and continued applause, having spoken upwards of two hours.

The Rev. Mr. Cameron announced the series of lectures for the week by Prof. Curr, and returned his thanks to the Wesleyan trustees for the use of their Church for the evening.

His Worship the Mayor said he had listened with pleasure to the lecture just delivered, and he was sure the audience would join with him in thanking the talented lecturer for his very able and instructive address.

After according Prof Curr a vote of thanks, the meeting dispersed, all feeling that a pleasant night had been spent with him in the "British House of Commons."

CRUISE OF A STEAM YACHT.

How Americans Enjoy Themselves.

A trim little craft known as a steam yacht and named the 'Anita' has lain in the Canal Basin for several days past, having come on a visit to the Capital among other places in Canada and the United States. Her dimensions are 41 feet long, 9 feet 4 inches beam, and is 45 tons burthen. She has a handsome deck with a promenade, which is protected by a neat rail. She is propelled by an engine of 10 horse power, and can attain a speed of 11 or 12 knots an hour. A neat little cabin is found to the aft, and sleeping apartments are to the fore and amidships. She carries the United States flag aft, and a private ensign "H" to designate her owner, who is Capt. Harris, of New York, a retired gentleman of extensive means and who spends most of his time on the water. He is a member of the "American Yacht Club," of New York, in which Institution he takes a deep interest.

THE VOYAGE.

This small craft left Port Washington on the East River on the 15th of July last in charge of Capt. Harris and a crew of three men, and arrived at New York and Brooklyn on the afternoon of the same day. She next steamed up the Hudson as far as Yonkers, where a day or two was spent; thence to Newburgh and Whitehall on Lake Champlain. A few days were spent here after which she steamed up Lake Champlain to Rouse's Point, and from thence up the Richlieu to Sorel, at which point the St. Lawrence is reached. Capt. Harris next pointed his craft up the noble river in the direction of Montreal, which city he reached, after considerable difficulty, on the 6th of August. Next day he left the great commercial city and proceeded through the Lachine canal and upper St. Lawrence, reaching Ogdensburg on the 11th of August. Here a supply of coal was taken, when the 'Anita' steamed up to Alexandria Bay, where she arrived the following day. The party staid there for a day, hunting and fishing, when they proceeded on their way to Cape Vincent. A month was spent in this locality, and through the 'Thousand Islands,' in hunting and fishing. A pleasant time was spent by Captain Harris and his party. At this stage there was an accession to both crew and passengers. A hand to row small boats and assist in camping out was taken on. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, of Rome, N. Y., and Miss Bullie, of Brooklyn, joined Capt. Harris at Cape Vincent. They crossed the river to Kingston, and took the Rideau canal for this city, where they arrived on Friday last. They took a week on the way from Kingston, having spent a great deal of time along the route in fishing and duck-shooting. They are at present doing the capital and seems pleased with the appearance of the city and think it a "real live town" being equalled by but few on the Continent. They will return to New York by the Ottawa River via Montreal. The crew of this little craft consist of Charles Pearsall, Engineer; Montgomery Stoughton, Steward; Martin Black of Kingston, Pilot, and George McDonald of Cape Vincent who attends to the rowing of small boats when the party are hunting and fishing. Another accession will be made to the passengers on their home trip in the persons of General Spicer of the United States Treasury and Mr. C. L. McArthur of the Troy Budget.

Police Court.

Before M. O'Gara, P M.

MONDAY, Sept. 28.

Susan Coteau, arraigned on a charge of vagrancy, was sent to gaol for two weeks

J. B. Cole, arrested on a charge of drunkenness, was fined $2 and costs.

Arthur Cole, another inebriate, was relieved of $3 and costs.

E. H. Kehoe for disturbing the peace on York street on Saturday night, was fined $3 and costs.

Three young lads named respectively R. Higgins, J. Thompson, and J. Warren charged with the larceny of some belts, were remanded till this morning.

Alphonse Laroque, Peter Dinell, and Benjamin Merrineau, three young boys, charged with assaulting a young lad named Engene Ladurante, were each fined $1 and costs.

RINK MUSIC HALL.—Last evening owing to the dampness of the weather, the house was not commensurate with the talents of the beneficiare, although the performance was far above the average. The "Lady of Lyons" was admirably played throughout, Mr. Brink's impersonation of Claude, being vigorous, powerful and intellectual, whilst Miss Webster's 'Pauline' was womanly, graceful and full of pathos. Mr. Masters played Col. Dumas very well, and the rest of the characters were above the average. To-night is for the benefit of Mr. E H. Brink, who offers a grand bill, viz: "Rip Van Winkle," and "Buffalo Bill," in both of which he is excellent, and we hope he will have propitious weather, and a good house. In addition to this "The G. G. F. G. March" will be repeated this evening.

JUVENILE BAZAAR.—Last evening the juvenile bazaar in aid of purchasing a banner for the St. Patrick's Society, of St. Patrick's Parish, of Upper Town, opened in the temporary hall, erected by Messrs. O'Neil, Dodd, Duan, Kehoe and others, in a very judicious manner, being graced by the presence of Messrs. the Hon. J. O'Connor, President; W. H. Waller, and D. J. O'Donoghue, M.P.P., who delivered short and appropriate addresses. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was not as large as was to be wished, but it is to be hoped that this will be remedied this evening, when Mr. O'Neil will be happy to introduce all comers to the "Talking Machine," which is a marvel in its way. We must not forget to chronicle that the bazaar was patronised by Rev. Messrs. Collins and Stenson, and other gentlemen who evinced the greatest interest in the welfare of the bazaar, which is a matter in every way worthy of the patronage of the general public.

MANITOBA.

The following is the second letter of Mr. Finney, published in the London Times o the 2nd inst.—

Winnipeg, the only city at present in Manitoba, is situated near the junction of the Red and Assiniboine Rivers, and is designed by nature to be the centre of a large district. The advantages of this situation are manifold. Being at the junction of those two rivers, Winnipeg and Manitoba the two rival termini of the Saskatchewan line of navigation, it is the centre of the fur trade of British North America, the Hudson's Bay Company having their head-quarters there. It is also the seat of the Dominion and Provincial Governments. Its rapid increase in population is recorded as follows:—In October, 1871, it only reached 700 souls; in October, 1872, it had reached 1,500; while in October of last year it had reached 3,500, and up to the time I left, in July last, immigrants were pouring in so fast that I think the present population of the city may be fairly estimated at about 5,000 souls. To keep pace with this influx no fewer than 500 buildings were erected in the years 1872 73 while this year they are being rapidly increased.

It may be interesting, and may also give a better idea of the character of the city, to enumerate the classes of business in Winnipeg. These comprise 22 general stores, 3 dry goods, 3 druggists, 3 bakers, 2 butchers, 2 clothing, 1 flour and feed, 2 barbers, 2 fur stores, 2 auction rooms, 1 sale stable and veterinary surgeon, 9 hotels, 3 sawmills, 6 blacksmiths, 8 saloons, 4 groceries, 4 hardware, 3 watchmakers, 3 furniture, 3 boot stores, 1 book store, 2 saddlers, 2 photographers, 2 bankers, 3 livery stables, 1 cigar store, 1 woollen factory, 2 furniture factories, 2 carriage factory, 2 or 3 breweries, a distillery, a tannery, and a foundry. There are seven or eight steamers running on the Red River between Moorhead and the city of Winnipeg. All the stores are doing a good business, and the trade by flat boats from the States last year amounted to over $50 000.

Manitoba enjoys a form of Government similar to that of the other Provinces of the Dominion. The Legislature consists of a Legislative Council of seven members and a Legislative Assembly of 24. The Executive if formed of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Secretary of State, Provincial Treasurer, Minister of Public Works, President of the Council, and Attorney-General. The social standing of the population may be estimated by the fact of there existing two colleges, one Catholic and one Protestant. A college for young ladies was opened about a year ago. It contains also many excellent Government besides private schools. There are two cathedrals—one Roman Catholic and one Church of England. The other places of public worship, numbering over twenty, are of various denominations.

When I left the province, a theatre was being erected. Several large halls for balls, concerts, and assemblies already exist. The Freemasons and Orangemen muster very strong. The St. George's, St. Andrew's, and St. Patrick's, Good Templars, and many other Associations are maintained with great spirit.

The Government are now having erected a Custom House, Post Office, Land Office, and large Penitentiary. There is also in the city of Winnipeg, under the wing of the Government, a general hospital, which is most liberally supported by all classes. There are five newspapers published in Manitoba—one daily and four weekly. Of the latter three represent the interests of the English-speaking part of the community, and one those of the French.

The land system is one to which I could devote much space, but I will endeavour to give as concise and definite an idea of it as possible. The land is divided into townships; each township consisting of 36 sections of one square mile each. These sections are subdivided into quarter sections, which contain 160 acres of land in each of them.

By the Homestead Law, all that is necessary to secure a homestead of 160 acres is that the applicant be 21 years of age (I believe the Government have very lately reduced the age to 18 years), and that he remains upon and improves the land for at least six months in each year for three years. There are no regulations regarding the size or shape of the buildings he shall put upon the property, nor the number of acres he shall cultivate. The land officers allow the most liberal construction to be put upon the provisions of the Act, so long as they are satisfied of the good intentions of the applicant. Unappropriated public lands may be purchased of Government at the rate of $1 per acre but no purchase is allowed to be made by the same person of more than 640 acres.

The average price of farms fronting on the Red and Assiniboine Rivers is about $7 per acre. In the new settlements back from the rivers several lots have changed hands at $2.50 per acre. In some favoured spots near Winnipeg, they have fetched as much as $12 to $50 per acre. These apparently high prices are not to be wondered at when it is known that over 10,000 bags of flour, and 15 flat boat loads of turkeys, eggs, butter, cheese and vegetables from Minnesota were disposed of last year in Winnipeg.

The Act for the exemption from seizure for debt of the settler's property is very liberal; and in addition to his ordinary furniture, tools and farm implements in use, there are reserved to him one cow, two oxen, one horse, four sheep, two pigs, and the food for the same for thirty days. The land, to the extent of 160 acres, together with the house, stables, barns, and fences is also free from seizure.

The institutions of Manitoba are as free, the soil as fertile, the climate more healthy, and the taxation much lighter than in the United States.

There are three routes by which the immigrant proceeding to Quebec or Portland may reach Winnipeg—one by way of the Grand Trunk, Great Western, and Michigan Central Railroad to Chicago, thence to St. Paul and Moorehead, where he can either take the steamer or the coach to Winnipeg; another route is to Collingwood, thence to Duluth by Lake Superior steamers, and from there to Moorehead by Northern Pacific Railway, with the same alternative of coach or steamer. The most agreeable and cheapest route next year will, no doubt, prove to be from Collingwood per Lake Superior steamer to Prince Arthur's Landing thence alternatively overland, through rivers and lakes, passing through the most lovely scenery, extending over nearly 400 miles to Winnipeg. This last route lies through Canadian territory, and was constructed at a great cost by the Government for the benefit of immigrants. It is known by the name of the Dawson route.

Any time of the year is favorable to the man of means for going to Manitoba; but if there be any preference I should recommend the spring, as then he would be able to get his house erected, some potatoes, barley, and turnips in, hay made, and general arrangements carried out for passing a comfortable winter. June is the best month for breaking wild lands, especially prairie, but I do not think it should be commenced before the middle of May nor prolonged beyond the first of August, as a particular state of vegetation is requisite to insure the proper decay of the overturned sod.

The cost of breaking prairie land is about $5 per acre, clearing woodland about the same rate. Manitoba possesses this great advantage over the rest of Canada, that while in the latter the stumps require at least from 15 to 20 years to rot, they only take [illegible].

Ordinary ploughing is carried on from August to the end of October, and in the spring-time the land only requires to be harrowed to prepare it for the seed. The usual depth of ploughing is three inches.

The settler commences putting in his wheat from the 5th to the 10th of May and continues as late as the 1st of June; oats and barley to the 20th of June, and potatoes and turnips as late as July.

About the 12th of July haymaking commences, and nothing can surpass the richness and luxuriance of the native grasses (rye-grass is indigenous to the country.) The grass is mainly cut on the swamps and meadows which checker the prairies or fringe the streams and lakes. I think, however, that the first week in July would be better for commencing, as allowing the grass to stand longer deprives it in a great measure of its nutritious qualities.

Harvest commences about the 25th of July, and the crops are all gathered and stored by the end of October. During this month the fall fishing comes, when the settler lays in his stock of white fish and shoots as many ducks [which are returning southward for the winter] as he requires. These are all frozen up and keep well all the winter; in fact, till spring returns with fresh flights.

On the approach of the first frost the farmer kills his sheep and cattle, and can then sell them at the best market prices. During the winter his time is occupied in drawing in hay for his cattle and cutting and drawing firewood, but this season is usually in Manitoba one of rest and enjoyment to the farmer.

A yoke of cattle costs about $160, a cow from $35 to $60, a pig $4, and horses from $60 upwards. Groceries cost about as follows:—Sugar, 17c; dried apples, 12½c; good tea, $1; butter 30c to 40c per lb; flour, $7 per 100 lb. Clothing is high, but not disproportionately so, when the distance it has to be conveyed and the expense of transport are taken into consideration.

I would strongly recommend the immigrant to place himself in the hands of the agents appointed by Government to furnish him with every information and advice how to proceed. Those agents are ever ready and willing to promote the comfort and progress of the new comer, not only with good counsel, but with substantial aid in cases of necessity. Added to this, I would also urge upon those who would wish to succeed to leave all their prejudices at home, and not be above taking the advice of men who have had experience in the ways of the country.

SUDDEN DEATH OF SURRATT'S CAPTOR.—Henry Benjamin Ste. Marie, who captured John H. Surratt, died suddenly in the street, in Philadelphia last week. He had been complaining of feeling ill for several days, and on Tuesday evening he took his supper as usual with the family, but died shortly before midnight from heart disease, and a verdict was so rendered. For the capture of Surratt the Government offered a reward of $25,000. He received from the Government but $10,000, and instituted a suit for $15,000, the remainder of the reward. He obtained a judgement in the Court of Claims, but the case was carried by the Attorney-General into the United States Supreme Court, where it is now pending. He was a native of Canada and was forty-one years of age.

FALL IMPORTATIONS.—N. Faulkner, Sign of the Maple Leaf, Sussex street, will offer for sale from Tuesday, 22nd inst., 500 Ladies' Waterproof Mantles, 40 per cent below cost. Large stock of Ladies' Underclothing, to be sold without reserve. 100 pieces Hoyle's prints at 13 cents; 100 pieces Ashton prints, at 12½ cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 17 cents for 13 cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 20 cents for 17½ cents; 100 pieces Wincey, worth 27½ cents for 23 cents; 200 pieces home[illegible] worth 55 cents for 45 cents; 50 dozen [illegible] woollen drawers and shirts, worth $1 for 80 cents; 50 dozen Men's flesh-coloured drawers and shirts, worth $1.25 for $1.00. A complete assortment of Dry Goods and Millinery on hand, selling at a small advance over cost, owing to the scarcity of money. A call is respectfully solicited, and an inspection of the stock before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the place, Sign of the Maple Leaf. 3679.

BRAIN WORRY.—Many of us pray to be delivered from sudden death, and do we not worry ourselves into it? And if we do can we not help it? "Men do not really die of Heart Disease as often as it is supposed, but of Apoplexy, or Congestion of the Lungs, so they do not die of brain work, but BRAIN WORRY. Scott died of it, Southney, Swift, Horace Greeley, and probably Thackeray."—London Times. As brain worry induces premature dissolution by its depressing influence upon the general nervous health, by eating the brain faster than the waste is repaired, and as the means of sustaining and increasing nervous health is no longer impossible; those who suffer the debilitating influence of mental anguish or extreme mental fatigue, need only resort to the preparation of Hypophosphites invented by Mr. Fellows, as that will conduct the subject safely over the rapids of despair, and create in him strength to grapple with every difficulty. This is no idle assertion but an established fact. 3671

THE TULES ON FIRE.—All over the States the tules are on fire with enthusiasm on the subject of the next and last Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, to come off Novemter 30, 1874. Until recently it was thought that the excitement was confined to the cities and towns, but reliable accounts show that the rural districts are as much in earnest on the subject as the cities. Indeed, the fact is not surprising when it is known that this is positively the last chance which can be given and at this Concert 2,500,000 dollars in cash will be distributed to the ticket-holders in such prizes as gifts as 250,000 dollars, 100,000 dollars, 50,000 dollars, 25,000 dollars, 20,000 dollars, &c. CLOTHING.

HAVING disposed of my Dry-Goods Establishment, I am now giving my personal attention to my Wholesale Ready-made Clothing Business. My stock is now ready for inspection, and will be found to compare favourably with any in the market.

Having had a long experience in the Ottawa Trade, I understand its requirements, and have my Clothing manufactured with a view to meet the wants of this market. It is my intention to keep on hand nothing but the best of Goods both in point of quality and finish, believing as I do, that never in the history of the trade was there such a demand for a first-class article in Ready-made Clothing. I have employed

ONE OF THE BEST CUSTOM CUTTERS

The additional prizes have been awarded by the Council of the Association, in the arts and manufacturing departments—Fancy worsted work for framing, Anna G. Lamb, Smith Falls, diploma; wood working machinery, Cant Gourlay & Co, Galt, diploma; knitted woollen quilt, scarfs and mufflers, Ancaster Knitting Co., 3 extras and diploma; railway car wheels, Canada Car Co., Toronto, highly commended; assortment of iron shafting, iron beams, &c. Union Car Co., 1st extra; woollen shawls, stockings &c., Armstrong, McCrae & Co., Guelph, 1st; Ancaster Knitting Co., 2nd; wood working machinery, Bowmanville Machine Co., diploma.

The Tecumseh Club beat the Young Ontario Club on Saturday, who thus again retain the junior championship of the world.

After the usual service in the Temperance Hall last evening the congregation of the Reformed Episcopal Church were formally organized by the temporary pastor, Rev. Walter Windeyer. The name selected for the new church was 'Christ Church.' Gentlemen were chosen as vestry men. Mr. Booth was elected people's Church-warden, and Mr. Mason clergyman's Warden. A suitable edifice for the use of the congregation will be purchased in a very short time.

MONTREAL.

Fire – Appointment — Change of Guage—Sudden Death — Another Fire — Rifle Match — Found Drowned.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.

Another disastrous fire occurred this morning. J. L. Harmman's tannery on Bonaventure street was totally destroyed. Loss, $40,000; insured for $21,000 in the Citizen's, Queen's, Quebec, North British and Provincial. It was caused by the back draught from the furnace. When the wall fell the men had a narrow escape of being crushed. There was very little water pressure.

It is rumoured that Mr. St. Pierre has received from the Quebec Government the appointment of Substitute of the Attorney General in civil matters and matters of Habeas Corpus.

The change of guage on the G. T. R. East was completed yesterday.

Yesterday morning, Mr. David Laurent, a fish dealer on the corner of St. Dominique street and St. Lawrence Market, died suddenly. At half-past five in the morning his wife left him in his room on his knees praying. About two hours after, not seeing him, she returned to the room and found him in the same position, but dead. Death resulted from congestion of the brain.

A fire occurred last night in a hay loft on Wellington street. The amount of damage done was about $50.

The annual matches of No. 1 Company, Prince of Wales Rifles, took place on Saturday.

The body of a man named Phillips, who resided at 132 St. Urbain street, missing since Tuesday last, was found in the old King's Basin, near the Montreal House. It appears he went to St. Johns on Monday, and returned to Montreal on Tuesday night. He was for the last time seen by a gentleman walking, about half past eleven, on St. Joseph street the same night. The supposed cause of the drowning is that, in consequence of his age—62 years—he went astray after the long drive, and fell into the basin. An inquest was held on his body at the Dead House last evening and a verdict of "Found Drowned" returned. He was a pensioner, and is said to have his life insured for $1,000.

PICTON.

Destructive Fire.

PICTON, Ont., Sept. 26.

A fire broke out here this morning in a small frame building on the south side of Main street, owned and occupied by Jas. O'Reilly as a residence and a grocery, and it spread with great rapidity, extending as far as Wycott's block and east to Mrs. Hubbs' residence, consuming eight buildings. The sufferers are: Mrs. Church, small frame shop, occupied by J. F. Berringer, watchmaker, loss on building $200, insured in London, Liverpool and Globe for $100; Mr. Berringer saved all his stock and goods. Two frame buildings owned by D. McPherson, of Montreal, occupied by W. Dafoe as residence and millinery and dressmaking store; loss on buildings $1,200; no insurance. Mr. Dafoe's loss will be about $500, caused in removal; no insurance. Brick shop, owned by John Carter, and occupied by Wm. E. Norman as residence and grocery; loss on building $1,400; insured in the Imperial for $800; Mr. Norman's loss on stock and furniture $500, insured in the Western for $200. Frame building, owned and occupied by James O'Reilly as a residence and grocery, and Thomas Porter, watchmaker. Mr. O'Reilly saved nothing; loss about $1,200; insured in the British American for $800. Mr. Porter's loss is about $100; no insurance. Frame building owned and occupied by Mr. O'Shea as a residence and dressmaking establishment, and H. Chadd as residence and grocery; loss on building 1,000; no insurance. Mr. Chadd's and Mr. O'Shea's goods were all saved, slightly damaged in the morning. Brick house, owned and occupied by D. Sullivan as a residence and provision store; loss on building $1,000; loss on stock $800; no insurance. Frame building, owned by F. Nallier and occupied by John Hughes as a bakery; loss on building $600; Mr. Hughes' loss is $500; insured in the Western for $800. Frame building, owned by Samuel Skinner and occupied by Frankum & Jickles as a fancy store; loss on building $600; insured in the Beaver Mutual for $400; Frankum & Jickles saved most of their stock; loss about $200; no insurance. Mr. R. Hadden, hardware merchant, sustained considerable loss by the moving of his stock; insured in the London and Liverpool and Globe for $2,000, and in the Western for $1,000. Mr. Wycott's building sustained slight damage; insured in Western for $1,000. The St. Lawrence Bank, on the north side of the street, was badly scorched, as were Mr. Hammon's and Mr. James Hart's blocks, on the same side of the street.

CLIFTON.

Seduction and Suicide.

CLIFTON, Sept. 27.

The young woman who fell over the bank near the Ravine Road, at Niagara Falls, and was found dead on the 25th inst., has been identified as a German girl, Mary Bucknotz, who has been in Canada about two years. She lately served as a cook at Mr. Martin's butcher, of Hamilton, about eighteen months. She was seduced some months since by one John Roadman, who promised to marry her, but deserted her, and lately married another person. The poor unfortunate became enciente, and no doubt preferred death to shame. She had a draft in her basket with her in favour of her sister at Offenburg, Germany, for fifty dollars.

ST. CATHARINES.

Fire.

ST. CATHARINES, Sept. 27.

Last night about half-past eight o'clock, a fire broke out in a small joiner's shop connected with Hellems & Wilson's lumber yard and spread rapidly over nearly half an acre, covered with lumber and buildings. The fire had gained so much headway before the engines commenced to play that it was impossible to bring it under control. They then did their utmost to save the adjoining houses, which were all frame, and took fire rapidly. However, the efforts of the firemen, seconded by those of the citizens, succeeded in gaining a headway over the flames, which were confined to the lumber yard. The property burned belongs to the firm of Hellems & Wilson, and is valued at about $10,000. The buildings were old, but the machinery they contained was almost new and in good order. The property was insured in the Gore Mutual, of Galt, for $2,000 and in the Niagara District Mutual for $2,000.

OSHAWA.

The Grain Market.

OSHAWA, Sept. 28.

The recent high prices paid for barley have stimulated farmers to deliver freely, and already the receipts at the Port of Oshawa exceed those of last year at the close of navigation. The receipts foot up nearly 75,000 bushels. The current price until to-day was $1 per bushel. As soon as it became known that Toronto and other markets had declined, the price fell to 95c., closing with a downward tendency. The quantity delivered is variously estimated at from 50 to 60 per cent. of the crop. Deliveries of wheat have been free, the prices ranging from $1 for spring to $1.06 for white.

NEWBURGH.

Extensive Fire.

NEWBURGH, Sept. 28.

A fire broke out here last night about 7.30 p. m., and in two hours destroyed fifteen buildings. The principal losers are W. J. Webster, John Draffin, Millar Bolton, Wm. Tell and O. Kennedy. The total loss was about $40,000.

SMITH'S FALLS.

Distressing Accident.

SMITH'S FALLS, Sept. 28.

A sad accident occurred this afternoon in the township of Montague. A young man named Robert Burrows while attending a Threshing Machine got caught in one of the connecting rods and had both his legs and one arm broken. He is being attended by Dr. Mackenzie.

BERMINGHAM'S Real Estate Bulletin

READ AND PROFIT!

He sold property during the month of July at Private Sale, in

City Houses, City Lots and Farms,

Amounting in the aggregate to $68,000.

He has now for sale some most valuable properties, as may be seen from the following which is but a small portion of what he has on hand:

A very valuable property of eight buildings, corner of O'Connor and Albert streets, having 132 feet on Albert-st. by 99 on O'Connor, and now bringing in a rental of $1170 per annum, which can be in-creased. To be sold cheap and on easy terms, by

J. BERMINGHAM.

That splendid property, a double brick house with stone basement, adjoining St. Alban's church Daly-st., having each six airy bedrooms, drawing room, dining room, and basement breakfast room, with kitchen, pantries, closets, stables, coach house, &c., &c. They are now rented for $500. $600 can be got for them. To be sold cheap for cash.

East half of lot 20, North side Clarence-st., with double frame building thereon. Rented for $200 per annum. Will be sold at a bargain by

J. BERMINGHAM.

A handsome brick residence on Gloucester-st., Centre Town, with six good bedrooms, dining room, drawing room, kitchen, pantries, cellar, &c., &c.; good yard, and sheds recently built; well finished, having many modern improvements. Will be sold cheap.

West half of lot 27, S. Rideau-st., with a commodious and comfortable brick cottage, having five good bedrooms, parlor and sitting room, kitchen, &c. Good yard and shed accommodation. Now rented for $180 per annum. To be sold cheap by

J. BERMINGHAM.

East half of lot 21, Boulton street, with two tenements rented for $ 2 per month, to be sold very cheap and on very easy terms by

J. BERMINGHAM.

Lots 6 and 48 North Biddy, 41, 42 and 48 South Nepean street, all good building lots. Lots 34 South Stewart and 35 North Wilbred streets Sandy Hill, two choice lots, well situated and in a healthy and respectable locality.

A house and twenty-six acres of land about half a mile from Cumming's Bridge, township of Gloucester, Rideau front, the residence of the late Agar Yielding, Esq. The new bridge now erecting across the Rideau here, brings the property in this locality close to the city, thereby enhancing its value. This will be sold cheap by

J. BERMINGHAM.

A most comfortable and commodious cottage in Rochesterville, on Rochester street, opposite the Catholic Church, having a double parlor, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, six good bed rooms, coach house, stables, sheds, closets and two extensive water tanks, all new. This property which has many recommendations will be sold cheap. The finishers are still on the premises, and if purchased at once, the buyer can have that chance of making any alterations before they leave. Will be sold a bargain by

J. BERMINGHAM.

A valuable property on the corner of Preston and Spruce streets, Rochesterville, with five good dwellings; can rent for about $700 per annum. This is good property; will be found an excellent investment, and will be sold cheap by

J. BERMINGHAM

A block of land in Rochesterville, having 107 feet on Rochester street by 165 on Lydia street, with buildings thereon; this is finely situated in an elevated position, and close to the Catholic Church. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM for particulars.

100 Acres of Good Land south half of lot 23 in the fifth of Templeton, six miles from Ottawa, Sixty acres cleared; good log house, barn and stables. Will be sold a bargain by

J. BERMINGHAM.

50 Acres, south half of north half of lot 16 in the ninth O. F., nine miles from Ottawa, good land and well timbered.

50 Acres of rich land, cleared and cultivated, with good orchard, dwelling and outbuildings, within about three miles of Ottawa, in the third concession Gloucester, Ottawa, front, will be sold cheap. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

200 Acres of excellent land, within four miles of the city, township of Gloucester. A big bargain.

That most valuable property known as Eastman's Springs, with ten acres of very fine land. This property is within twelve miles of the city of Ottawa, and is very valuable, not alone for the fertility of its soil, but for the numerous mineral springs with which it abounds. The quality of these springs are so well known to the people of Ottawa and surroundings, that it is unnecessary to say anything in their praise. Suffice it to say that they are admitted to be the best in this part of Canada. A little expenditure in laying out and ornamenting the grounds and building a large hotel, is all that is required to make them a most remunerative speculation and the Saratoga of Canada. The Springs consists of Saline, Sulphur, Gas, and Minerals, and are admitted to be most valuable for their curative qualities. For full particulars apply to

J. BERMINGHAM.

A furnished house on Gloucester street, Centre Town, to rent. Price moderate.

A magnificent Steinway Piano, nearly new for sale. Apply to J. BERMINGHAM.

A Seven and a quarter octave Piano, D.P. Hale & Co., New York, quite new, to be sold cheap by J. BERMINGHAM.

THEY —ARE— DYING —BY— INCHES!

ARTERIAL blood contains the elements of Vitality and Nutrition, which is emptied into the capillary system and, after supplying the required nourishment, is sucked up by the minute branches of the venous system and carried back to the lungs for vital recuperation. By reason of much that is wrong in living and medical treatment, this stream of blood flowing through the body is not always pure or free from inflammatory particles, which may pass off by insensible perspiration through the skin or with the waste matter through the skin or with the waste matter through the intestines, but cold or wet may stop their outward escape, and the internal drainage may become inactive, when the corrupt particles are apt to coagulate, causing pestules, scalp eruptions or running sores, bronchitis &c. They may locate about a nerve, causing neuralgia, and by attaching themselves to the arterial tubes and veins, large or small, and inflaming them by their corrosive influence, cause those intensely painful sensations called Rheumatism. Nature struggles to drench out or dislodge if possible these corrosive particles, and the parts become very red from the congestion or pressure of blood therein. This is called Inflammatoro Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout. If nature does not succeed in washing out these acremonious atoms she withdraws the undue supply of blood from such parts, ceases to contend, and performs circulation as best she can; however, the passage of the blood through the affected channels still continues painful. This is Chronic Rheumatism, which may exist without its usual antecedant the Acute kind.

The above only true theory points out the correct treatment of this and other distressing maladies. Dissolve these corrupt particles that have lodged in the afflicted parts, so that in the circulation they may be carried off externally or internally, and having thus removed the cause the effect ceases.

The experiment of twenty years in the London Hospital, England, has demonstrated to the Medical Faculty of Europe, that the only medicine having control over this class of diseases, is the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!

It is the result of a lifetime of scientific study and is now for the first time offered to the Canadian public, prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

A BLESSING TO THE POLICE.

MONTREAL, 18th June, 1864.

DEVINS & BOLTON:

GENTLEMEN,—Having been one of the many martyrs of rheumatism that I meet on my every day rounds, I was induced to try the celebrated DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. I had suffered the last five or six weeks the most terrible acute pains across my loins and back, so severe indeed that I could hardly walk with the help of a stick. I commenced the Diamond Remedy—following the directions carefully. Relief came immediately with the first bottle, improved rapidly with the second, completely cured and freed from pain after finishing my fifth small bottle. You are at perfect liberty either to refer to me privately or publicly, as I feel very thankful for the relief, and sympathize with my fellow sufferers from rheumatism.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. CARDINAL,
Sanitary Police Officer,
51 Labelle street.

In simple cases, sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of two or three bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send or it to

Used with a Common Pen without a preparation.

This ink flows perfectly: will write as easily on the finest muslin as ink on paper. It does not dry up, and retains its virtues longer than any other ink known. It will not injure the finest fabric. Payson's ink has endured the test of forty years, and is now the most popular ink in existence and is unrivalled for uniformity, of quality, and durability. It will mark more neatly, quickly and indelibly than any other apparatus. It requires NO PREPARATION of the fabric.

Price. 37 cts. per Bottle.

Sold by all Druggists, Stationers, and Fancy-Goods Dealers.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES OF FASHION

DRESSMAKING BEING THE ORDER OF THE TIMES.

J. W. RYAN

Has much pleasure in informing his numerous Lady customers and others that MADAME OLLIER, the celebrated Cutter and Fitter of Ladies' Garments, has arrived from her New York and Boston trip, and re-engaged with him to superintend his Dressmaking Department,

No. 234 WELLINGTON STREET

It will be remembered that Madame Ollier came direct from Boston last March to make arrangements with him, but was subsequently induced, by large offers for her valuable services, to go into an old established firm in Centre Town; but finding that she had made a change for the worse, again engaged with him. Madame Ollier's attainments in the art of Scientific Measurements enables her to ensure a perfect fit without putting her customers to the inconvenience of removing a single garment.

BERKELEY, Sept. 1869.—Gentlemen, I feel it a duty I owe to you to express my gratitude for the great benefit I have derived by taking "Norton's Camomile Pills." I applied to your agent, Mr. Bell, Berkeley, for the above named Pills, for wind in the stomach, from which I suffered excruciating pain for a length of time, having tried nearly every remedy prescribed, but without deriving any benefit at all. After taking two bottles of your valuable pills I was quite restored to my usual state of health. Please give this publicity for the benefit of those who may thus be afflicted.—I am, Sir, yours truly, HENRY ALLPASS.—To the Proprietors of NORTON'S CAMOMILE PILLS.

JOB MOSES' FEMALE PILLS,

This well known medicine is no imposition but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, they contain nothing hurtful to the constitution.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, those pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron calomel, antimony or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully reserved.

For full particulars, obtain free, of the agent a pamphlet, or refer to advertisement.

JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR.

$1.00 and 12½ cents for postage, enclosed to Northop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agents for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills return mail.

Electric Oil Thomas' Excelsior Eclectric — Worth Ten Times in Weight in Gold.

Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures Catarrh, Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. J. Collard, of Sparta, Ontario, writes 'send me 6 dozen Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful.' William Maguire, of Franklin, writes, 'I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes. "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Electric Oil, I am nearly run out: nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes—"Send at once a further supply of Electric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well, and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes—"Send me some more Electric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reed, Ulverton, P.Q., writes—"The Electric Oil is getting a great reputation here, and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay." Lemoyne, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P. O., write—"Send us one gross Electric Oil. We find it to take well.

Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 5 cents.

A BEAUTIFUL HORSE.—There is nothing that can contribute so much to render the horse beautiful and elegant, to improve his condition and make him all that is desirable, as "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," it has been used by many persons who own valuable carriage and other horses with decided success, and so well pleased are they with it that they always keep it on hand in case of emergency; it may be given at all times with perfect safety. FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

In aid of the

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.

DAY FIXED AND A FULL DRAWING ASSURED,

—ON—

MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE FOR

An Easy Fortune.

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned, that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed, and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 31st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The New York Tribune.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF ITALY! so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful state, with Rome as its capital the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemburg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to re-assert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the everchanging phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Tribune, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century scepticism and secularism on the other. Recognising a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionised through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed reform, the Tribune will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

DAILY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $10 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum. Five copies or over, $3 each; an extra copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time; or, if preferred, a copy of "Recollections of a Busy Life," by Mr Greeley.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL. The distinctive character which have gained for Dr. DE JONGH'S Oil so much celebrity, the entire confidence of the most eminent members of the Medical Profession, and notwithstanding the active and unscrupulous opposition of many interested dealers, an unprecedented amount of public patronage may be thus concisely enumerated:—

I.—Its genuineness, purity, and uniform strength are ascertained and guaranteed.

II.—It contains all the active and essential principles that therapeutic experience has found to be the most effective in the operation of the remedy.

III.—It is palatable, easily taken, and creates no nausea.

IV.—It is borne with facility by the most delicate stomach and improves the functions of digestion and assimilation.

V.—Its medicinal properties and remedial action have been found to be immeasurably greater than those of any other kind of Cod Liver Oil.

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST.

The extraordinary virtues of Dr. DE JONGH'S Light Brown Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Consumption may now be considered as fully established. No remedy so rapidly restores the exhausted strength, improves the nutritive functions or produces a more marked and favorable influence on the local malady.

The following high testimony to the efficacy of Dr. DE JONGH'S COD LIVER OIL in Consumption is afforded by ALLEN G. CHATTAWAY, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., of Leominster:—

"Having for some years extensively used Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, both in public and private practice, I have no hesitation in stating its effects are very far superior to those of any other Cod Liver Oil. Nearly four years since, two cases of confirmed Consumption were placed under my care. In both, the lungs were a mass of tubercular deposit, and every possible sound to be heard in phthisis was present. The sole remedy employed was Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL; and now the patients are strong and fat; the diseased (abnormal) sounds nearly inaudible; and in the one case (male), hunting, fishing, and shooting, are freely indulged in, the patient expressing himself quite capable of undergoing as much fatigue as any of his fellow sportsmen."

GENERAL DEBILITY AND EMACIATION.

In cases of prostration and emaciation, where the vital forces are reduced, and where life appears to be even at its lowest ebb, the restorative powers of Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL are remarkably manifested. By its administration the natural appetite is revived, and the functions of digestion and assimilation are improved, reanimated, and regulated; and, when its use has been steadily preserved in, its peculiar tonic and nutritive properties have entirely restored health and strength to the most feeble and deteriorated constitutions.

The actual benefit derived is thus described by ROWLAND DALTON, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., District Medical Officer at Bury St. Edmunds:—

"In giving my opinion of Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, I have no hesitation in saying that I have not the slightest confidence in any other kind. The effects of Dr. DE JONGH'S OIL are sure and most remarkable, especially in that broken down state of health and strength which usually precedes and favors tubercular deposit; and I never recommend any other sort. The Oil I have had from you was for my own use, and it has certainly been the only means of saving my life on two occasions, and even now, when I feel 'out of condition,' I take it, and like it, unmixed with anything, as being the most agreeable way. I could wish that Dr. DE JONGH'S OIL would come into general use, and entirely supersede the Pale and other worthless preparations."

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From innumerable medical and scientific opinions of the highest character in commendation of Dr DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, the following are selected:—

Sir Henry Marsh, Bart., M.D., Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I consider Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil to be a very pure Oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

Dr. David Smith, F.R.S., Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light Brown Oil supplied by Dr. De Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the Oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst so much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness." (Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

Dr. Barlow, F.R.S., Sen Physician to Guy's Hosp.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it be a very pure Oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use that substance is indicated."

Dr. Lawrence, Physician to H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

I invariably prescribe Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil in preference to any other, feeling assured that I am recommending a genuine article and not a manufactured compound in which the efficacy of this invaluable medicine is destroyed."

Sir Joseph Olliffe, M.D., Physician to the British Embassy at Paris.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, and I have every reason to be satisfied with its beneficial and salutary effects."

Lankester, F.R.S., Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this Oil is secured in its preparation by the personal attention of so good a Chemist and intelligent a Physician as Dr. De Jongh, who has also written the best Medical Treatise on the Oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

THE ROYAL READERS.

A NEW SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED ENGLISH READING-BOOKS.

From Mr. M. Patterson, Rector of the Free Church Training School; Moray House, Edinburgh.

"Thanks for the Specimen of your new Reading Books and Sheets. They are admirable in every particular. Nothing, in my opinion, would more contribute to the improvement of Education than the wide circulation of these books, and the intelligent handling of them."

From A. Montgomerie, L.L.D., Principal of Ladies' College Glasgow.

"I have examined very carefully the 'Printing,' and Nos. I., II., and III. of the Royal Readers, and have no hesitation in saying that they are, in my opinion, incomparably the best English Reading-Books that have ever been published. The adaptation of the means to the end in view is perfect."

From T. Morrison, M.A., Rector of the Free Church Normal School, Glasgow.

"I have very carefully examined the Royal Readers. The plan is excellent, and the execution, if I may say so, even better. They are out of sight the best series of Reading-books published and should very speedily be widely used. The illustrations constitutes an admirable features and add much to the value of the Readers

CLARKE'S

WORLD FAMED BLOOD MIXTURE

Trade Mark—"BLOOD MIXTURE."

The Great Blood Purifier and Restorer

For cleansing and clearing the blood from all impurities, cannot be too highly recommended.

For Scrofula, Scurvy, Skin Diseases and sores of all kinds it is a never-failing and permanent cure.

It cures old sores,
Cures ulcerated sores on the neck,
Cures ulcerated sore legs,
Cures blackheads, or pimples on the face,
Cures scurvy sores,
Cures cancerous ulcers,
Cures blood and skin diseases,
Cures glandular swellings,
Clears the blood from all impure matter,
From whatever cause arising.

As this mixture is pleasant to the taste, and warranted free from anything injurious to the most delicate constitution of either sex, the proprietor solicits sufferers to give it a trial to test its value.

Thousands of testimonials from all parts.

Sold in bottles 2s 3d each, and in cases, containing six times the quantity, 11s each—sufficient to effect a permanent cure in the great majority of long-standing cases, by all chemists and patent medicine vendors throughout the world.

Caution.

PANCREATIC EMULSION.

The efficacy of these Medicines in the treatment of Indigestion, Bronchitis or Pulmonary Catarrh, Consumption, Wasting, &c., &c., depending entirely upon their purity and strength, Messrs SAVORY & MOORE caution the public against imitations of them which are put forth as possessing the remedial properties of the true preparations, but which are in reality either saponaceous compounds, ointments or pomades, without a trace of the Pancreatic principle and entirely unfit and useless as medicines. These imitations are calculated to produce serious disappointment and to injuriously affect the reputation which the Genuine Pancreatine and Pancreatic Emulsion have acquired. It is therefore highly important that purchasers examine the labels on the bottles for the names and Trade Mark

"SAVORY & MOORE,"

The Original and only Manufacturers Chemists to the Queen, H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, H.I.M. Napoleon the Third, His Highness the Khedive of Egypt, &c.,
143 NEW BOND STREET, LONDON.

Extract from an Analytical Report upon a Foreign Specimen of a so-called Preparation of Pancreatine.

"This compound resembled an Ointment or Pomade in appearance and consistency, and was flavored with Essence of Almond or Prussic Acid. It was strongly alkaline, indicating free alkali, which, acting upon the fat, produced the usual saponifying result; the whole forming a granular moist mass of fat, soap, glycerine and water. This ointment was physically and chemically different from the true Pancreatic Emulsion which I have also examined, and which, besides being rich in Pancreatic juice, has the delicate smooth appearance and consistency of fresh cream, is palatable and readily taken.

The Drawn Blinds.

BY ALEX. G. MURDOCH.

There's a hush in the hoose, an' the blinds are a' doon,
For the death-shade has shut oot the glare o' the noon;
And the hearth-stane, that ance was as licht as the day,
Is heavy an' weary wi' sighin' an' wae.

Nae mair will that fond mither's heart-longings greet
The [illegible]-an'-race o' twa fairy wee feet;
An' the faither's heart often will silently bleed,
As he seeks in the gloamin' the vacant stairheid.

Pit by his bit playocks—his barrow an' cart—
The sicht o' them gangs like a knife through the heart;
An' empty's the sound o' that jingling wee bell
Roond the cat's neck o' fur, whaur he hung it himsel'.

The year had gaen roond, and the winter was owre—
The hedges were winkin' in sunshine an' flower,
When the Angel o' Death in the by-gaun look'd in,
An' the tears owre that mither's cheek ran like a linn.

Lang, lang will it be ere the fond parents tire
O' glowerin' wae e'ed thro' the rise o' the fire:
An' aye they'll recount all his kindly bit ways,
An' think what he'd been had he seen manly days.

There's a hush in the hoose, an' the blinds are a' doon,
For the death-shade has shut oot the glare o' the noon;
But God breaks the cloud, an' the fair licht o' faith
Burns like Bethlehem's Star owre the Valley o' Death.

Manitoba

Mr. Finney has a further letter in the London Times containing valuable information respecting Manitoba, and it is likely to prove quite as interesting to those in the older provinces as to the people of Great Britain, we give it in full:—

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES.

Sir,—Since the insertion in the Times of my letters regarding the Great North West Territory, I have been inundated with correspondence seeking for further information on the subject.

This time the object I have in view is to convey to your readers some idea of the ordinary life and occupations of the settlers.

I will presume that he has arrived in Winnipeg, selected a homestead, or purchased his farm as he may decide, and having provided himself with teams, agricultural implements, axes, and tools, laid in a stock of provisions as well as a good tent or two, he starts for his newly acquired home.

The first thing he will do is to select a site for his house; that is taking for granted that he has chosen a homestead, and should this be a prairie section, he would naturally select a spot near to a bluff of timber, or, if a wooded section, near a lake or river. He would be guided by the aspect, distance from water, &c.

For my part, I prefer a wooded section, for the reason that the wood fit for fuel will more than pay for the cost of clearing. The land is decidedly richer, and you can secure a natural shelter during the winter season; while on the prairie he would have some distance to draw his logs for building, which would cost money, while in the wood land he would have them all to hand.

The site selected, he proceeds to clear a space for the foundation, fell his trees for logs, which, of course, should be as straight as he can get them, placing the largest logs at the bottom, and gradually decreasing in size towards the eaves. Having raised the four walls, which two stout men can do, cut the ends smoothly, and made the corners true and square, the next job will be to hew the insides of the logs, making a smooth wall. Some hew the outside, but I think they look better in their natural state. Four days should complete this work, and then a couple of days to prepare the rafters for the roof which being raised, the erection of the chimney or chimneys, as the case may be, is commenced. The best are made of stone, of which there is plenty on the lake shore. The half-breeds make theirs as follows:—A framework, in the shape of four ladders fastened together is constructed according to the size of the chimney required to be erected; this is raised on its end and placed inside the walls of the house. The natives then mix some clay, and having procured some grass or hay of some length he smears the clay over, a small handful at a time, and hangs it over a bar of the framework smoothing it over with a trowel as he goes on, until the whole is covered. The object of the hay is to enable him to suspend it on the framework. A fire is then lighted on the hearth, the clay becomes baked, and is thus rendered as hard as bricks. The inside of the fire-place is of semi circular form and the wood is generally placed on the fire in an upright position as the native considers it draws better and gives out more heat than when thrown on in the ordinary way. It would be cheaper for a settler to hire a native to erect a chimney than to attempt to do it himself. A stone one would cost $10, the clay ones about $5.

The thatching or shingling the roof, as his taste and means dictate, next occupies the attention of the settler, and the sawing of lumber for partitions and flooring follows, unless he prefer to purchase it at the rate of $30 per 1,000 feet. The chinks formed between the logs are filled in with chips, and the crevices are plastered with mud, which excludes all cold, and presents an even surface. The walls are also whitewashed. The lime can be made by the settler, as there is plenty of limestone on the lake shore. The door made, and windows bought and fitted, the house may be said to be fit for occupancy.

A log house, when well finished and the logs carefully selected, presents a most substantial and comfortable appearance.

The erection of stables and piggeries next take up the time of the settler, and the size and locality of these are, of course, a question of taste, and depend upon the quantity of stock to be housed.

Although the settler may wish to assist, I should recommend him to contract with some half-breed for the erection of the buildings, as they are all skilled at it and are good axe-men, and it would decidedly be the most economical plan. A house 16 by 20 should not cost more than from $120 to $150, including a lean-to for a kitchen.

By this time the settler will have become familiar with the use of the axe, and he can commence clearing his land. The usual plan is to fell the trees, cutting up the top branches and brushing and piling them ready to burn, leaving the stumps to rot out. This I consider a slovenly way, and should deem myself more than compensated for the extra labor of grubbing and clearing thoroughly as I went on. The sound timber could be converted into cordwood, while the stumps and roots would be burnt.

Of course the first season the settler would not expect to put anything into the ground but barley, potatoes and turnips.

By the time these were in he would have his hay to make, and when that was carted and stacked he would be able to prepare a house for preserving his root crop during the winter, and to erect a storehouse in which to keep his stock of meat, game and fish.

Having stored his root crops, he could, during the beautiful Indian summer devote himself to fishing and shooting, as at that time there is nothing much to be done on a farm for the first year beyond clearing, and the winter is, par excellence, the season for working in timber.

The white fish are usually taken in gill nets, which requires frequent overhauling, and taking up and scalding every third day. Fishing lasts about a fortnight. When caught, the fish are suspended by the tail from a scaffold, erected where the wind has free access. They are thus cured and are then termed hung fish, though I prefer them regularly salted; but at the present time salt is rather too expensive to make it a paying speculation to barrel them.

The ducks shot early in the fall for winter use require to be drawn, but those shot later in the season are better left as they are allowed to freeze up, when I would recommend their being packed in straw. I tried both ways, and the latter I found to be the best plan for preserving them.

The settler in his spare time, if he desires to luxuriate in the summer season, could erect his ice house, and also a winter house for his fowls.

The winter months are, with the exception of felling timber and drawing hay, as remarked in my previous letter, those of rest and enjoyment to the settler.

As the wild fruits ripen they are gathered and preserved, and it is owing in a great measure to their being so plentiful and of such excellent flavour that the cultivation of fruits has not been hitherto much regarded.

Sleighing, moose hunting, snow shoeing patridge shooting, snaring rabbits, and trapping fur-bearing animals, form the principal occupation of the half-breed during the winter, and these amusements and sports are entered upon with much zeal by most settlers.

Fishing for jack and pickerel under the ice also forms one of the occupations of the native, and as many as 600 and 700 have been known to be taken by a single person during the day. The Indians subsist on them during the winter, but they are usually purchased by the settler for feeding his hogs, poultry, and dogs, as when boiled they make good food.

Dogs are used principally for sleighing; in fact, they are in many instances preferable to horses, as on long journeys there is no trouble in carrying their provender, and they can travel over the snow where a horse could not tread. They can go from 40 to 100 miles a day. A dog will draw from 100 lb to 150 lb with ease, and at night a fish will satisfy him, and he makes his bed in the snow. A good team of four trained dogs could not be purchased for less than from $80 to $100, and I know an Indian who refused $200 for a team of three.

Good female servants are in great demand in Manitoba, and the demand will increase every year as the country becomes settled up.

It would be a very good plan, I think, for a man of means who intends proceeding to Manitoba to take out with him a family of the working class. The services of all the members would be utilized, and he would be benefiting them as well as himself by giving them a chance to better their positions.

This letter and the information I give in it apply to an emigrant or settler who possesses a moderate or small capital—say £200. I will consider the subject in further letters as it regards settlers who have little more than tools to work with and strength and courage to use them, but the subject is by no means yet exhausted as regards the class to whom the letter refers.

I remain, &c.,

A man who had been travelling in the 'Far West' says—but he probably misrepresents the matter—that when an Idaho girl is kissed she indignantly exclaims, 'Now, put that right back where you took it from.'

It is beautiful to behold at a wedding, says a cheerful old bachelor, the sorrow-stricken air of the parent as he 'gives the bride away,' when you know that for the last ten years he has been trying his best to get her off his hands.

Sir Walter Scott says that it is a tradition in Scotland that chaises or chariots were first introduced into that country in 1745. Before that time the gentry were accustomed to travel on horseback, and the nobility in vehicles somewhat resembling 'Noah's Ark.'

One wet morning, a North country Minister, on meeting one of his parishioners besmeared all over with mud, said, 'Good mornin', James; this is no a very good day for walkin'.' James replied, 'Fegs, it's no guid for tumblin' either, minister; for I've tried baith o' them.'

'Do you suppose nobody has got a conscience but yourself?' said a vigorous tongued lady to a severe cross examining barrister. 'My conscience is as good as yours—and better, too, for it has never been used during the course of my life, while yours must be nearly worn out.'

In Scotland there is a remarkable predominance of certain names in particular localities. Thus, we have Campbell, Cameron, Maclean and Kennedy, in the west; Macdonald, Mackenzie, Robertson and Stewart, in the north; Gordon, Forbes, Grant and Ogilvy, in the east; and Scott, Kerr, Johnstone and Maxwell, in the south.

Thompson always thought he could write a good comedy, and he got Johnson to sit down and hear him read it. But at the end of the second act, Johnson got up and said, 'It's first rate old fellow, I assure you, only I can't stop any longer, because I've got a particular appointment; but, look here, I'll send my little boy up to you and you can read the rest to him.'

Some time ago a son of Auld Scotia arrived in Boston, and meeting an old friend they forgathered into a saloon, to chat over the days of 'Auld Lang Syne.' The new arrival called for refreshments and the barman produced a large black bottle of whisky. Sandy asked, 'Hoo much is that?' 'Thirty cents, sir.' 'Thirty cents, fifteen pence, that's no-oot o' the way.' Filling up their glasses, the barman essayed to remove the bottle; but the keen eye of Sandy observing him he grabbed the bottle and exclaimed, 'Na, na, Maister Yankee, I may be green enough, but after geein ye thirty cents for yer whisky, then to tak' it frae us is oot o' the question!'

The Ottawa Times

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER, 30, 1874.

Hon. Mr. Anglin, the Speaker, leaves to-day for St. John, N. B.

The farmers in the vicinity of Sarnia at a recent meeting passed resolutions unanimously supporting the proposed Reciprocity Treaty.

The writ for the new election in the County of Essex has been issued, and the nomination has been fixed for the 15th of November—the Registrar of the county to be Returning Officer.

We understand that Sir Hugh Allan of Montreal, will proceed from Quebec to England next Saturday by the Royal Mail Steamer 'Circassian.' He will be accompanied by his two sons Messrs. Hugh and Bryce Allan.

Judge Ambrose, the recently appointed Judge of the county of Wentworth, the other day gave an important decision in relation to the claims of those who think they are entitled to vote on property owned by their wives. His Honour holds that they have no such title under the new "Married Woman's Act," if they have entered wedlock since that measure came into operation.

The Kingston Whig says: "The negotiations which have been pending for a considerable time in reference to the transference of Rockwood Asylum from Dominion control into the hands of the Ontario Government are about being completed; and it is understood that the transfer will be made within a few months. It is about time the Institution was handed over to the authorities who contribute almost the whole expense of its management, and that some of the minor officials learn that they are paid for their public services instead of outside missionary labours."

The Manitoba Gazette announces that Mr. Lindsay Russell has gone to the Saskatchewan to complete the surveys of the Canada Pacific, make the connections and otherwise furnish the locating of the line. In the course of a few weeks he is to pay a flying visit to Winnipeg again, after which he will return to the Saskatchewan for the winter, and during that season will make arrangements for his spring expedition to the Peace River country, where he intends to go for the purpose of making base lines. The Gazette says it is not yet known whether he will detach a party to explore the Bow River country or not, but the latest accounts from that district are of a very encouraging nature. It adds that the territory is very extensive, the obstacles to be met with are of a dangerous character and difficult to overcome, and the probability is that to a separate party will be relegated the duty of making an examination of it.

The Canadian News (London, Eng.), of the 10th inst., states that during the week previous to that date one hundred and fifty persons were booked through the head emigration office of the Dominion for Canada, making something like six hundred persons who had embarked for this country during the preceding fortnight. It states also that the business of the office is greatly on the increase, and that in the matter of disseminating information, answering inquiries, giving advice to persons desirous of emigrating to Canada, and investing their money here, the bureau is doing some most important work. The statement is added, that among the fruits of this will be a superior class of emigrants, less disappointment and more confidence on the part of those who contemplate settling in the country, and a general improvement in everything connected with the emigration department.

REFORM DEMONSTRATION AT PRESCOTT.

The Skating Rink at Prescott was yesterday a scene of one of the grandest and most enthusiastic Reform demonstrations which has ever been witnessed in Eastern Canada. We give in another column a synopsis of the proceedings, and even from the meagre idea which is there conveyed of the Prime Minister's speech it will easily be seen that it is one of vast importance and significance at the present juncture, and it is our intention to place before our readers within the next few days a verbatim reproduction of both it and the utterances of the Hon. R. W. Scott which was also able and eminently appropriate to the occasion. The honour conferred upon the constituency of South Grenville—itself represented in the House of Commons by an able member in the person of Dr. Brouse and in the Local Legislature and in the Local Administration by one of the most promising of Canada's young statesmen, who is one of which it may well be proud. But after witnessing yesterday's enthusiasm and unanimity it need never be said that South Grenville was insensible either to the deference paid to it, or the fortunate position it occupies with regard to its representatives. We may say in conclusion that the key note for the impending contest for the Local Legislature in Eastern Ontario has been struck and it sounds well—better than ever the most sanguine anticipated.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL CHURCH.

The Montreal Herald, speaking of Dr. Church, the new Attorney-General of Lower Canada, says in effect that he may be a very good doctor and a very excellent man, but he appears not to be possessed of some qualifications of the greatest importance to the efficient discharge of the duties which appertain to his new office. The Herald has made a minute scrutiny of the tableaux upon which the names of all members of the bar engaged in practice—at least those who pay for so doing, and men do not often pay for what brings them no equivalent—who can appear in Court, or issue a writ, are inscribed, and it has failed to find that of Dr. Church, at any period within the last seven years. He has been made a Queen's Counsel since his appointment, but according to the Herald, some of his colleagues at the bar—if he is really a member of the bar at all—are anxious to know if a man to whom the prothonotaries must refuse the power of issuing the most trumpery process is qualified to take precedence over the entire profession and to advise the Crown on the difficult problems which sometimes occur in the administration of justice and the conduct of the country's legislation. The Herald adds that it remains "a "question whether the Queen can have "for Counsel a gentleman who is practically at the moment not a counsel at all, "or whether if she can, it is desirable that "she should be provided only with such "assistance as is thought to be too worth"less to be used by any of her subjects."

THE FARMERS AND RECIPROCITY.

Sheriff Gibbons, President of the Ontario Agricultural and Arts Association, delivered the usual annual address to the members on Thursday last, as is the custom, before the breaking up of the Exhibition. The Mail, commenting upon this address in an article entitled the "Way to Agricultural Improvement," says it conveys many lessons which ought to be heeded. How far this assertion of the organ is true, may be learned from the fact that Mr. Gibbons made use of the following remarks, anent the question of the proposed Reciprocity Treaty:—

> "The new Treaty of Reciprocity is as yet only in the formative process, and awaits the action of those legislative bodies which have a voice in its negotiation and ratification. Meantime its proposed terms are undergoing that ordeal of criticism to which all public measures are subjected in free countries like our own. That the general welfare of the country, and in particular the agricultural interest, will be promoted by a fair Treaty of Reciprocity there can be no doubt, and in all discussions on this subject it ought to be borne in mind that the greatest good to the greatest number is the object of all wise legislation. It will be difficult, if not impossible, to frame a Treaty which will not effect some individual and local interests unfavorably, but the question involves the general prosperity of our country, and surely that will be best secured by an open market between Canada and the United States. Hence the prospect of renewed Reciprocity should be hailed with pleasure by the people at large, and by none more heartily than by the farmers of the land."

Now, if these expressions in the worthy Sheriff's oration had contained the sentiments which the Mail specially considered worthy of being heeded, we would be bound to give it credit for having acquired some common sense and a little judgment, and to believe that it was not altogether insensible to the real interests of the people of Canada. But the Tory organ does not believe in the doctrine, and therefore can scarcely be expected to "bear in mind that the "greatest good to the greatest number is "the object of all wise legislation." In truth there is no doctrine in existence in which the Mail and its disciples have less faith. With true Tory instinct, it and they entertain the most profound contempt for the swinish multitude. The favoured with their big heads, clumsy feet, dirty, mud-bespattered boots, ungetlemanly looking clothes, and homely, rough and ready manners, are entirely beneath their consideration. Let our agricultural friends take notice that never a single Tory organ, never an opponent of the proposed Treaty, has spoken or written of our agricultural interest except to say that they were of secondary importance. Their time and attention has been monopolized by the kid-gloved gentry, who have already made a good few dimes, and who want not only to see the farmer excluded from the benefits of reciprocity, but to fill their coffers with his hard-won earnings, and he is appealed to on the ground of patriotism to quietly submit to be fleeced for their benefit. There is an attempt being made to hood-wink the farmers on this point, to make them believe that the Opposition of the Tory organs to the Treaty is based upon the alleged unfairness to the country of some of its clauses, and to incite his partizan feelings against it. But this policy of deceit and dissimulation is expending itself, and it must be every day becoming more apparent to agriculturists, as the controversy becomes gradually narrowed down from pompous and sensational generalities to first principles, that the battle is being fought, not in their interests, not in the interests of the greatest number, not in the interests of our progress or advancement as a people, but to serve the purposes of a small clique of whinning speculators and moneyed magnates who have invested some little portion of their means in manufacturing under the specious guise of "infant industries," who want to make the largest profits possible for the smallest possible expenditure, and who have neither courage nor enterprize enough, with a cheap labour power at their command, to defy competition and boldly challenge the American producers, or United States markets, to produce a better article for the money if they can.

Mr. Gibbons offered a few well-timed remarks upon the danger there is of exhausting the producing powers of the soil by too constant cropping with grain, and advocated a rotation of crops in order to correct the evil. "Grass and roots," he says, "must alternate with the "grain if the production of the soil is to "be maintained." The Mail admits that this is quite true, but thinks something of which the farmer has not yet thought is necessary in order to bring about this state of affairs for which Mr. Gibbons contends. And how does it propose to induce those desirable conditions. By cropping less acreage, and cultivating and manuring more thoroughly the portion which is cropped not quite. By encouraging emigration, and stocking the labour market with a better and more plentiful supply of human hands, thus enabling farmers to till with greater care and perfection the labour starved land? Oh, dear no, something of a far grander nature, some infinitely more intricate conception than a plain, common sense proposition of this kind. It tells us—will the farmers believe it? that "the "only sure and certain way to compel "good farming is to foster the rise and "extension of manufacturing industry, "filling the country with a large popula"tion of consumers, who make for the "farmer a home market at his own door." And then will come a period of prosperity and national bliss which we fancy can be none other than the millenium. This is the picture the imaginative writer in the Mail draws of the glorious time:—"This "once secured, the adoptions by the far"mers of the identical system of farm "culture recommended by Mr. Gibbons "and his predecessors will follow as a "matter of course. Where before there "was chiefly wheat, barley, and summer"fallow, there will be clover and turnips, "orchards and vineyards." What intolerable trash men are sometimes gravely expected to accept at reasoning. This whole argument, gush and all, is a parcel of arrant nonsense. Does the writer expect any man of common intellect to believe that any amount of what he calls "fostering" could possibly call into existence within the next hundred years an amount of manufacturing upon Canadian soil which would furnish the farmers of Canada with "a home market at their own door?" He must have a poor idea of the common sense of the people if he indulges in the vain expectation. If we had all the manufactures which our present grain producing power could furnish with the necessaries of life—the array would be an imposing one, and no mistake—what, pray, are we going to do with their productions? Shall we be able to produce everything ourselves we require and require everything we can produce? The proposition is so absolutely absurd and ridiculous, so clearly in defiance of every law of nature, trade, and commerce, that we only suggest it in actual bewilderment. Would exportation relieve us of our white elephant? If that elephant owed its existence to protection—which simply means the exclusion of foreign manufactures from the Canadian market by the imposition of high tariffs on imported goods, and an assurance to the Canadian producer of a monopoly of the market — of course the United States would retaliate. Protection, we are told, means higher wages to the mechanic, and if it does it also means a much greater increase in the proportionate cost of living. We would thus be quite unable to compete with Great Britain, with her cheap labor and established trade, either in her own or any other market, supposing even that competition were open to us on equal terms. The writer tells us in effect that the secret of the prosperity of the United States is its protective system, while some of the most eminent authorities in the States maintain the very opposite; but he forgets that the very example which he cites affords a striking illustration of the fallacy of his whole argument. "Sending "grain out of the country in large quan"tities" says this oracle "leads inevitably "to the exhaustion of the soil." It would be interesting to know whether this exponent of the views of the Conservative party really is under the impression that the manufactures of the United States provide now or are ever likely to provide a market for all the agricultural productions of that country, has he any idea that they really export grain from there to the European markets, and, if so, would he be kind enough to give the farmers of Canada an estimate of the extent of that exportation? If he only takes the trouble to hunt up the figures, perhaps the result will surprise him a little, and go far to convince him that the United States, after all the protecting it has done, is still, according to his own reasoning, fast getting exhausted and going to the dogs. When the farmers of Canada are asked seriously to believe that "increased inducements"—we quote the Mail—"to export wheat and barley to "the United States might be a temporary "advantage to some farmers, but would "prove in the long run nothing less than "a national calamity," they need be in no further doubt as to the position they occupy in relation to the Conservative party, and they may rest well assured that however much these may hate Mr. George Brown, and however much they might abuse his treaty in consequence, they hate reciprocity itself with a deeper hatred, and would leave no stone unturned to prevent any measure for the establishment of reciprocal trade relations between the two countries from being consummated.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Shaw, representative of Mr Joseph Stovel, tailor, of Toronto, is in the city and staying at the Russell House. He has with him a very large and select assortment of patterns for Fall and Winter Clothing. 36-3 2

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK. An invaluable article; every house keeper should have it; every traveller should have it; every hotel should have it. It is used with a common pen and is always ready. Payson's Ink has endured the test of over 40 years. 3684

THE DAILY TIMES can be procured every morning for 15 cents per week. The "Weekly" Friday morning's, in time for English Mail, at E. A. Perry's Elgin St; Battle Bros., Rideau St., and Russell House; Lacy, Bridge St., Chaudiere; L'Echo Office, Hull; St Lawrence & Ottawa, and Canada Central Railway Stations

PIONEERS OF CALIFORNIA.—The Pioneers of California were among the most energetic and intelligent men who ever embarked in a grand enterprize, and they, if any one, know when they have a good thing. They are all of them investing in the tickets of the Public Library of Kentucky, for the next and last Grand Gift Concert, to come off November 30th. At this, the very last Concert, which library is entitled by its charter to give, there will be $2,500 000 in cash distributed to the ticket holders; there is one prize to every five tickets, and among the prizes there are such as these, all in cash, $250,000, $50,000, $25,000, $20,000, &c., &c., &c. No wonder the Pioneers are going for them—who wouldn't? All the States, and all Europe are buying up the tickets. 3684

BRAIN WORRY.—Many of us pray to be delivered from sudden death, and do we not worry ourselves into it? And if we do can we not help it? "Men do not really die of Heart Disease as often as it is supposed, but of Apoplexy, or Congestion of the Lungs, so they do not die of brain work, but BRAIN WORRY. Scott died of it, Southey, Swift, Horace Greeley and probably Thackeray."—London Times. As brain worry induces premature dissolution by its depressing influence upon the general nervous health, by eating the brain faster than the waste is repaired, and as the means of sustaining and increasing nervous health is no longer impossible; those who suffer the debilitating influence of mental anguish or extreme mental fatigue, need only resort to the preparation of Hypophosphites invented by Mr. Fellows, as that will conduct the subject safely over the rapids of despair, and create in him strength to grapple with every difficulty. This is no idle assertion but an established fact. 3671

Reform Demonstration.

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION OF THE PREMIER.

[Special to THE TIMES.]

PRESCOTT, Sept. 29.

One of the most enthusiastic and successful Reform demonstrations ever witnessed in the Province of Ontario came off here to day in the large and commodious building, known as the Skating Rink. Over 2,000 of the most influential electors of the Riding and prominent gentlemen from a distance were gathered by 1 30 p.m., the hour of meeting. Captain Chapman was appointed Chairman, and on the platform were the Hon Mr. Mackenzie, Premier; Hon. Messrs Huntington and Scott, members of the Dominion Government; Hon. Messrs Mowat, Premier of Ontario, and McKeller and Fraser, members of the Local Administration; Messrs. Brouse, M.P., Buell, M.P., Archibald, M.P., Cole, W. Cooke, Reeve, of Morrisburg; Rev. Father Roche, Mr. Keller, Deputy Reeve of Edwardsburg; Messrs. John Wardrope, John Laffyette, John Buckley, Andrew Wilson, ex-Reeve of Augusta, Dr Chamberlain, Reeve; Messrs. Brair, John Blyth, Robert Blyth, M. Ryan, &c.

Dr. Brouse, M.P., for the County, having been first called upon made a neat and appropriate introductory speech, in which he detailed upon the importance of the occasion and remarked upon the bonum done to the Constituency by the presence on the occasion of the leading statesmen, both of the Province and of the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Mackenzie was received with loud and enthusiastic applause and in a speech of considerable length and great power held his audience in close attention, and was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause throughout. The British Columbia dispute, the proposed Reciprocity Treaty, the lying canards and sensational despatches of the Opposition press, as well as the miserable system of key-hole espionage and eaves-dropping to which those who concocted those despatches resorted to, were treated in turn, and the conduct of the Tories in each case treated with withering scorn and scorching criticism. He charged in regard to the British Columbia matter, that the late Government were responsible for it, that their leader had openly counselled the dismemberment of the Dominion and the cession of British Columbia; that his newspaper organ rejoiced even in rumours of their own creation if they pointed in that direction, and that their conduct throughout was characterized by complete disregard of the interests of their country if they could only benefit their party thereby. He stated, moreover, that nothing was less likely to occur than the complications which they predicted, and so keenly desired, as to the Treaty. He condemned as impatriotic, unjust and premature the discussion which had been kept up regarding its provisions which has not yet been submitted to either the Dominion Parliament or the Senate of the United States; and he contrasted the tactics they had presumed in this Convention, with the forbearance displayed toward Sir John Macdonald in connection with the Treaty of Washington. He remarked, moreover, that it would be news to the farmers of Canada of some import that the Tory party had staked their existence on the question of Reciprocity. The sensational stories of dissentions in the Cabinet he stamped as unfounded and malicious falsehoods and without betraying any secret of the Cabinet. He might just say in passing that the relations of every one of his colleagues to each other had always been most friendly and hearty. He reminded his hearers of the success which had attended the negociations of the Government in regard to the difficulties in the territory of the North West. He paid a high tribute to the qualities of the Ontario Government, which, while declaring that there was no possible connection between that body and the Dominion Administration, he gave it as his deliberate opinion that the Ministry of Mowat was one of the best in the world.

His speech extended over two hours, and dealt with every public question of the day.

Hon. Mr. McKellar followed with a speech of some length and great ability, which bristled with humor and excited repeated rounds of applause and merriment, and in which he pictured the Toronto Quartette to a nicety.

Speeches were also made by Hon. Messrs Huntington, Scott, Fraser, Mowatt, and Col. Buell, M.P., all of which were enthusiastically received.

The meeting broke up at six o'clock, to meet again at a banquet in Brady's Hall in the evening. The Ministers were invited to dinner in the interval by Mr. J. P. Wiser.

The banquet in the evening was a grand success. Mr. Kellar occupied the chair, and with the exception of the Prime Minister all the other notables who were present in the afternoon were around the board. A large number of ladies were also present.

The evening was occupied with toasts and speeches, and pleasantly and profitably spent.

The proceedings came to a close about midnight.

CITY AND VICINITY

BASE BALL.—The "Ottawa's" leave for Pembroke on Thursday to play the return match with the "Forest City" club of that place. They will also engage in a game of Lacrosse. We wish them success.

SMALL-POX.—The school authorities in Rochesterville have deemed it advisable to close the school in that place, owing to the prevalence of small-pox in a very epidemic form in that neighbourhood and the suburbs of the city generally.

COAL SUPPLY.—Mr. W. M. Beattie has been awarded the contract for supplying the Public Schools with coal. The new furnaces, it is said, will prove a decided acquisition in the way of comfort for the children during the ensuing winter.

RENFREW ASSIZES.—The Renfrew Assizes opened at Pembroke on Tuesday the 22nd September before Justice Wilson. There were three cases on the criminal calender and a like number of civil cases. The Court took the entire week to dispose of this amount of legal business.

THE GUARDS' BAND.—The band of the G. G. F. Guards will play this evening in Parliament Square, for the last time, a well selected programme. Should the weather be favorable there will doubtless be a large turn out to enjoy the last open air Concert of the season.

CHANGING THEIR MIND.—The Chaudiere Fire Company have, it is said, changed their mind in regard to the purchase of a steam fire engine. They are reported to have ordered a Chatham engine valued at $4,000 and manufactured by Hyslop & Ronald of Chatham, Ont.

THE DEFAULTING ACCOUNTANT.—Intelligence of the defaulting Accountant Trail was received by Mr. A. S. Woodburn yesterday. He was seen in Syracuse and was on the eve of taking a train for Buffalo. The detective will probably be in a position from this point to bring back to Canadian soil this fugitive from justice.

ARRIVALS AT THE RUSSELL HOUSE.—W J Whitmore, Brooklyn, N Y; Wm Beith, Pembroke, W Scott, Ottawa; C Berkeley Paget and wife, Georgia; Colonel Fitzeryrone, London; Mr and Mrs Major M Stewart, Lewis A Hall, P A Rodier, John Blackie, Montreal; Wm Fisher and wife, British Columbia; John Ross, Homer, Ont; Thos C Newburn, Hamilton, Ont; J Bruce, Toronto, L L Kenyon and L C Kenyon, Oswego; Wm Wallace, Simcoe; Charles Mohr, Mohrsville; R S Edwards, Boston.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The Edward's Wesleyan Methodist Church, Wilberforce, will be dedicated on Sunday, October 4th Rev. Messrs. Whiting and Jenkyns of this town will take part in the dedication, and the excellent choir of the Pembroke Wesleyan Church have agreed to attend and supply music for the occasion.

CHAUDIERE FIRE DIFFICULTY SETTLED.—The claimants for damages from losses sustained by the small-pox fire at the Chaudiere, have been recompensed. The matter was left to arbitration and an award made reducing the somewhat exorbitant claims to the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars. Ald. Rowe gave a cheque for the amount yesterday and the matter has therefore been finally settled.

AMPUTATION.—The young French boy who a couple of weeks ago had his leg injured by falling in a sand pit, and who has since been in the Hospital, had the injured leg amputated yesterday below the knee. The surgical operation was performed by Drs. Beaubien and Grant. As the knee joint has, since the operation, been found to be seriously affected, a second amputation may yet have to take place above the knee.

BAZAAR.—A fancy Bazaar under the auspices of St. Joseph's Orphan Society is now open in the new building of Mr Egleson near the corner of Rideau and Sussex Streets. A fine variety of articles are on exhibition and for sale, principally contributions of ladies' work. The organization is one that is engaged in a good work, and as such we commend the Bazaar to the liberal patronage of the community.

DESTINED FOR THE WOODS.—The lumbermen are beginning to despatch men to the woods. The number going is rather limited, yet not a few are already on the tramp for the timber regions. Mr. Glazier, of Eddy's establishment, past through Pembroke, on Wednesday last, with 35 men for Fort Eddy. They are going to take out logs. A Latour sent through 12 men; the Hamilton Bros. 21 men; James Black, 4 men; Bronson & Weston 30 men; Hurdman Bros., 13 men; and D. McLaren, 32 men. These numbers are small as compared with previous years.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A man named Petrie, working at Mr Perley's new house at the west end of Wellington street, met with a somewhat serious accident on Monday last, by falling over the embankment in rear of that structure. It would seem that he was engaged in carting earth for the purpose of levelling the site, when he was suddenly by the falling of his horse, precipated down the embankment some 30 or 40 feet. The injuries received are of a somewhat serious nature and the man lies in a precarious condition.

NEW LAW FIRM.—The retirement of Mr. W. A. Ross, who has recently been appointed to the Judgeship of the County of Carleton, from the firm of Scott, Ross & Stewart has necessitated a change in the late firm. Mr. Bruce of Toronto, a man of considerable ability, has been taken into the new firm so that nothing will be lost by the retirement of Mr. Ross. The new firm of Scott, Stewart & Bruce are now fully prepared to give every attention to any legal business that may be entrusted to their care.

GOWAN'S OPERA HOUSE.—The inimitable Cool Burgess, with one of the best variety troupes that has perhaps ever been organised, opens to-night in Gowan's Opera House, and will continue to perform for the remainder of the week. Prof. Logrenia will make his first appearance before an Ottawa audience in his wonderful feats and magical wonders. He is pronounced the greatest illusionist of the age. The European troupe of learned birds, together with the performances of white mice and a trained Russian cat, are new features, and cannot fail in being attractive parts of an exceedingly varied programme. One hundred presents will be given away each night. There will be a matinee on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The house will doubtless be crowded each evening.

PROF CURR'S LECTURE.—A large and appreciative audience attended Daly Street Presbyterian Church last night, to hear Prof. Curr's thrilling lecture on "The Storming of the Bastile." Mr J. Thorburn, A. M., Rector of the Collegiate Institute, occupied the chair. The lecturer in his usual eloquent and impassioned style, ably handled his thrilling theme. As he passed on from one scene to another in the awful history of that tragic prison, he held his hearers spell-bound, which was only relinquished with the animated and vivid description of the final storming of the stronghold by 100,000 infuriated Parisians. We regret that want of space forbids our even giving a resumé of this able address. Prof. Curr lectures to-night in the Baptist Church, on "How to win souls to Christ" It is more particularly intended for young people who will greatly profit by attending the lecture. There will be no admission fee to the lecture this evening.

FIRE AND LIGHT COMMITTEE.—At a meeting of the Fire and Light Committee held last night, it was determined to establish fire districts and adopt the principle of a paid department similar to that in vogue in Montreal. These recommendations will be submitted for the consideration of the Council and will in all probability be approved. Should it be adopted it will involve the abolition of our present volunteer system altogether, and the substitution therefor of a Reel and Fire Station in each district in charge of a number of paid men. Two hook and ladder trucks, a fire escape and a salvage corps will also be necessary as auxiliaries to the reels. Two, if not three, steam fire engines will doubtless be kept and so located as to be ready in case of an emergency to do duty either in the city or at the suburbs. This change will no doubt cost a little more, but the degree of efficiency that it will eventually bring about will more than compensate the city for the additional outlay. The fire alarm telegraph about to be commenced will be completed shortly, which, with the acquisition of the water-works, will give our citizens a sense of security not hitherto enjoyed.

A SURPRISE PARTY.—The Rev. Mr. McDiarmid, Presbyterian Minister at Taylorville and his good lady, were visited by a number of friends on Thursday evening last, and presented with a handsome carpet, and other elegant articles appertaining to household furnishing. The Manse is a new building and has only been recently occupied, so that the presentation came in a very opportune time. Mr. Joseph Baskerville, Deputy Reeve of Gloucester, presented the articles on behalf of the donors, for which the Rev. gentleman returned the warmest thanks on behalf of himself and Mrs. McDiarmid. The party brought baskets full of all kinds of edibles and a pleasant time was spent for the remainder of the evening. A noticeable feature of the affair, was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson of the Methodist Church, who joined heartily in the demonstration and contributed materially towards the entertainment of the evening. After some singing and devotional exercises the party dispersed, well pleased with the result of their impromptu gathering.

Y. M. C. Association.

Last night the Rev. T. D. Phillips, delivered a lecture before the above Association, in its room, on "The First Three Centuries of Christianity in Great Britain." The speaker, drawing his facts with regard to the extension of the Gospel to the Western Isles and regions beyond the sea, which designations were usually applied to the British Isles, from both sacred and profane historians, framed upon them inductions as to the very early spread of the truth to this old land, hard if not impossible to resist. Tradition, patriotic references, probabilities connected with the Jewish and Roman persecutions were all intelligently and artistically used to prove this theory of the establishment of Christian communities in England from Apostolic times. The historic evidences of the existence, progress and influence of the new and true faith in the second and third centuries, as well as the first, were also reviewed and analyzed, reference being made to such particular places as St Albans, the scene of the death of the first British martyr. The lecturer noticed the presence of British Bishops at the early councils of the Church in the fourth century, and accounted for the subsequent decline of the Church and religion by the Scandinavian invasions. He held that St. Augustine did not proclaim the truth in England for the first time, but only reiterated and revived it, having the aid of native Christians, including those driven into ancient Cambria or Wales in preceding times of peril. The rev. gentleman's sketch was clear, practical and instructive, and was cordially appreciated by the audience. Col. Kingsmill warmly acknowledged its merits at the close, and a vote of thanks was unanimously passed on motion of Mr. Topley. Rev. Mr. Phillips acknowledged the compliment in good taste, promising his services in aid of the Association's projects in future, thus acceding to the expressed wishes of several of the members. The proceedings closed with the singing of a hymn and the Benediction, pronounced by the rev. gentleman.

Police Court.

Before M. O'Gara, P.M.

TUESDAY, Sept. 29.

Timothy Duggan, for being found drunk on a pile of shavings in a new building on Rideau street, was fined $2 and costs.

Michael Quinn, arraigned for drunkenness, was fined $2 and costs.

John Traynor, for assaulting and otherwise abusing his better half, was mulcted in $2 and costs.

Bernard Mulligan and R. Farrah, charged with a breach of the peace, were relieved of $3 and costs each.

The young lads, Warren, Higgins and Thompson, remanded from the previous day for the larceny of some cadets' belts from the Collegiate Institute, were arraigned and plead innocence of the charge. The charge was however proven, when the Magistrate sentenced Warren to a week's imprisonment and the others to one day each at hard labor.

A. Clement, for stealing a ham from Kavanagh's store, on Wellington street, was again remanded till this morning.

Frank McCormick, Joseph Burke and Thomas Burke, charged with assault, were also remanded till Saturday.

A man named Flynn charged with the larceny of a pair of boots from the residence of the Rev. T. D Phillips, was discharged, that gentleman declining to prosecute.

County of Russell Exhibition.

The usual annual Exhibition of the County of Russell took place yesterday at the village of Metcalfe some 20 miles to the south of this city. The attendance was not so large as on previous occasions. Many reasons are assigned for this laxity on the part of the farmers of the county of Russell. Early in the season it had been determined to dispense with this season's exhibition altogether and invest the funds in procuring thoroughbred stock in the interest of the agricultural community; this idea was in turn exploded a short time ago and a decision arrived at to hold an exhibition, but many farmers were unprepared for the sudden change. The unpropitious state of the weather had a good deal to do with the diminution in the attendance, for many who had entered were unable to reach the village. The great drouth is attributed as another reason for the paucity in the number of competitors this year. Notwithstanding all these desponding circumstances a good number turned out. The usual quiet village was astir with excitement, flags flaunted in the breeze and lads and lasses walked up and down street donned in holiday attire, bent on seeing what was to be seen and being seen themselves. Mr. John Kennedy, the veteran President of the Society, was at his post as usual, a place which he has fully honored for the last seventeen years. Mr. Ira Morgan, the indefatigable Secretary of the Society, moved around in the most active manner, doing his utmost to promote the success of the show. These two officers were ably seconded in their endeavors by Messrs. Alex. Stewart, Jas. Severight, P. McDonald, J. McNab, J. Campbell, J. McInnis, George Lang, J. Johnston, W. Fenton, W. Eadie, and Duncan Cummings, the Directors of the Institution.

The show of agricultural products was not very large, but the samples exhibited were really good.

There was a good display of stock. The horses were particularly good, and the show of thoroughbred and grade cattle reflected creditably upon the exhibitors.

The Dairy products, fruit, and contributions to the Ladies' Department, were of the most varied character, and the assortment in each fully up to that of any previous Exhibition.

We have much pleasure in giving a list of those who were awarded premiums at the Exhibition yesterday, together with the articles taking the prize.

PRIZE LIST.

Gloucester Road Meeting.

A number of leading men of the township of Gloucester and many leading citizens from Ottawa, met on Monday evening, at Laporte's Hotel, on the Montreal Road, to hear the report of the Committee appointed at a previous meeting to solicit subscriptions in aid of the construction of a sidewalk between Rockville and the City of Ottawa. Amongst those present were Messrs. Lees, County Attorney, P. A. Egleson, and P. O'Meara, for the city; and R. Cummings (Reeve), D. McLachlan, Wm. Macfarlane, H. Robillard and Z. Wilson of the township of Gloucester.

Mr. Cummings was voted to the chair, and Mr. R. Brewer requested to acted as Secretary.

The chairman stated, in a neat speech, the object for which they had met together, and called upon Mr. O'Meara as representing the Committee appointed at the last meeting, for their report.

After a few pleasing remarks from Mr. O'Meara, relative to the interest all the inhabitants of the road seemed to be taking in the project, he stated that in a great measure through the instrumentality of their worthy Reeve, they had received a grant from the Municipal Council of Gloucester of $400 and had no doubt that in a short time they would be favored with a similar grant through the exertions of some of the Aldermen from the City Council, and that the prospects of an easier road for pedestrians up the Lime Park Avenue was in every way probable.

Several other gentlemen spoke in glowing terms of the brilliant prospects in future for the people of the Avenue. Among the speakers were Mr. Lees, Mr. Wilson and McLachlan, who were all unanimous in their opinions that the object of the meeting would be attained. Mr. Lees gave a short sketch in a very interesting manner of the difficulties he and several other gentlemen had experienced in raising funds for the macadamized road in that section, and that their exertions had met with that success which was sure to be the lot of those interesting themselves in the platform movement.

The following resolution was then adopted unanimously. Moved by Mr. P. O'Meara, seconded by Mr. Z. Wilson, "That whereas the Municipal Council of Gloucester has granted $400, towards erecting a side walk on the Montreal road, and that it is advisable that the work should be proceeded with without delay; be it therefore resolved

"That the following gentlemen be a Committee on behalf of this meeting to ask for, receive and accept tenders for the building of a section, say a mile and a quarter in length, of the said sidewalk:—Messrs. Z. Wilson, P. O'Meara, H. Robillard, D. McLaughlin, W. McFarlane, and P. A. Egleson."

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. P. O'Meara, for his having effectually obliterated the infamous den from off the road, by purchasing the handsome residence lately belonging to Mr. Bradley, and which he means to convert into a handsome private residence.

After a vote of thanks to Mr. Cummings for his unremitting attention to his duties as Reeve, and for the manner in which he had conducted the proceedings this evening, the meeting adjourned.—COM.

LENNOXVILLE.

Great Fire—Half the Town Burned Down—Loss $100,000.

LENNOXVILLE, Sept. 29.

Yesterday morning a fire broke out in a hay loft over Brook's stable. The fire spread very rapidly, and before it was subdued, which was done with great difficulty, owing to the scarcity of water, and an engine having to be brought from Sherbrooke, nearly the whole business portion of the village was destroyed. Casswell's hotel, Burke's Hotel, Clough, Robinson & Co's store, and the Post Office, and about 30 private residences were burnt. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

SOUTH RENFREW.

Enthusiastic Meeting—Mr. Bannerman Asked to Retire.

RENFREW, Sept 28.

The meeting called by Mr J. L McDougall for this evening in the Town Hall, was very numerously attended. Mr. John Smith, the Reeve, was called to the chair, and Mr. G. W McDonald was requested to act as Secretary.

Mr. McDougall spoke at considerable length on political matters, and on Mr. Bannerman rising to reply, it appeared he agreed with the general principles enunciated by his opponent, except as to the policy of the present Government with respect to the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Reciprocity Treaty, and on the abstract question as to whether Protection or Free Trade was best suited to the wants of a young country like Canada.

Not one of the charges of treating, bribery, buying wheat, &c., &c., which have hitherto served as the stock-in-trade of complaints of the local opposition to Mr. McDougall, was referred to in the remotest manner.

The following resolutions, moved by Mr. Smallfield of the Mercury, and seconded by Mr. H. Airth, was carried as the Chairman announced, by ten to one:—"That this meeting has listened attentively to the remarks on political matters of the two candidates, and have been much edified by the discussion on Protection and Free Trade principles, but with still greater satisfaction have found that not one single charge of non-attention to the interests of his constituents, has been made against Mr. J. L. McDougall, his opponent hereby recognizing the fact that he had efficiently discharged his duty, as the representative of the listing. We therefore pledge him our hearty support, and our unpurchased and unpurchasable votes, with the intention of returning him at the head of the poll, in the event of a contest, and to respectfully request Mr. Bannerman to retire gracefully from the contest, and so allow the existing election troubles to be effectually quieted by Mr McDougall being allowed to be returned by acclamation. The meeting itself was most quiet and orderly, but at its close a suggestion from Mr. Bannerman that the protest fund should be handed over for the benefit of the Agricultural Society, led to a scene of excitement in which Mr. Smith and Mr. Bannerman, bore the principal share, the former indignantly denouncing as entirely false the statement made by the latter, that Mr. Smith had admitted having spent $1,500 himself to secure Mr. Longeaia's return in the late election, the entire disbursements having been only $1,367.

Mr. McLachlan, of the Arnprior Review was vigorously assailed with denunciations of his conduct, which were only suppressed by the intervention of Mr. McDougall.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Arrived, the ss. 'Ethiopia,' from Glasgow, 'Lessing,' from Hamburg, and 'Maas,' from Rotterdam also 'Silesia,' from Hamburg, and the ss. 'Atragon' from Bristol.

Fire Losses.

NEW YORK Sept. 29.—The losses by the fire at Long Branch are—$40,000 on the building, owned by L. J Philip; $4,000 by Rushton, and a number of others in small amounts. The total loss is $60,000; partly insured.

Personal.

Pio Rosado, the Cuban who fought a duel recently on the Belgian frontier with De Conto, editor of the Spanish newspaper Cronista, has arrived in this city.

Cuban Sympathisers.

The conflicting elements in the Cuban Revolutionary Society here have again broken out in open warfare upon each other.

Probable Candidate for the Mayoralty.

William H. Wickham, diamond merchant, who was a member of the late Committee of Twenty, is spoken of now as Tammany's candidate for mayor.

Fire.

The Atlantic Block, formerly Helmbold's Block, in Long Branch was totally burned last night.

The Charges against Kelly.

John Kelly, Chief of Tammany Hall, having sought the records of the Police Courts to disprove the figures in Mayor Havemeyer's charges against him, it is found that most of the records have been destroyed.

A young lady in a Pennsylvania town put a piece of wedding cake under her pillow and went to bed with the happy belief that she would dream of seeing her future husband. That evening, however, she had eaten two plates of ice-cream, about a pint of strawberries, several sweet cakes, and two large pickles, and she now says she would rather remain single all her life than marry the man she saw in her dream.

MID-NIGHT DESPATCHES

ENGLAND.

SPAIN.

The Spanish War—Carlist Defeat.

MADRID, Sept. 29.—Official despatches have been received here stating that the fighting in the Province of Navarre, between Carlists and Republican troops, under General Moriones, was discontinued on Friday last, making four continuous days of conflict. These despatches state that on that day 22 battalions of insurgents attacked Gen. Moriones' army, at Barrain, near the town of Quafalls. A sanguinary conflict ensued resulting in the repulse of the Carlists along the whole line. Their loss was very heavy, and they were compelled to ask the Republicans for medical assistance.

UNITED STATES.

The Fall River Disaster—Inquest.

FALL RIVER, Sept. 29.—The inquest into the late horror was continued to-day. Several witnesses were examined, including the Treasurer, who testified that they had more fire appliance than were required by the Insurance Commissioners.

The Irish Rifle Team—A Challenge.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—In order to test the qualities of breech-loading rifles, J. Rigby, of the Irish Team, proposed a match between five men, at 1,000 yards each, a man in addition to have two sighting shots, Mr. Rigby and his side to use muzzle loaders; their opponents breech loaders. No cleaning of rifles to be permitted during the shooting by either side. Captain Leech, of the Irish Team, prints a card of thanks to the Americans for courtesies received, and concludes with a challenge to a return match at Dublin next June, the Team to consist of no more than eight.

Acquatics—Another Challenge.

George Brown has sent another challenge to row Joseph H. Sadlier, champion of England, a five mile race for from $2,500 to $5,000 a side at Springfield Mass., Halifax or St. John, N. B., in the last week of October or first week in November.

Fatal Railway Collision.

FALL RIVER, Sept. 29.—The morning passenger train from Utica on the Utica and Chenango Valley Railway, came into collision with a gravel train between Oxford and Norwich, about 12 o'clock. The passenger train was badly wrecked. Mr. Childs, Mail Agent, and Grillings, newsboy, were killed. Some of the train hands and several of the passengrs were badly injured.

Moulton to give Bail.

Moulton will to-morrow furnish bail in $20,000 in two sureties to appear for trial for alleged libel of Edna Dean Proctor. The case has been transferred to the City Court.

The Austrian Expedition to the North Pole.

From the New York World.

Austrian journals are now engaged in making their readers better acquainted with Charles Weyprecht and Jules Payer, the two chiefs of the Austrian expedition to the North Pole. According to their sketches of the lives of these now famous explorers, the former was born at Trieste, and is more than thirty years old. At an early age he embraced a naval career, his education having been received at the Naval Academy of Fiume. His abilities were so evident that, after his graduation, Admiral Tegethoff gave him an appointment on his staff as lieutenant, when he went with the Novara to Mexico to convey to Austria the remains of the late Emperor Maximilian. M. Weyprecht again came into notice when, in company with M. Payer, he undertook an expedition to the Arctic Ocean on board the Isbjorn in 1871. At that time the explorers penetrated to the seventy-ninth degree of north latitude. Mr. Payer, like his colleague, is also a young man. His father was an army officer. He was born at Toplitz in 1842. During the Italian campaign of 1848 the elder Payer, then chief of a squadron of Uhlans, was killed, and the son was placed at the military school of Wiener-Neustadt, where he distinguished himself by his aptitude in geographical studies and by his skill as a cartographist. He was at the battle of Solferino, where he was decorated for gallant conduct. Afterwards he became connected with the Geographical Institute. In 1869 he took part in the second German Arctic, expedition on board the 'Germania, and his cartographical works on that occasion are deemed of great value. Many honors have been shown in Austria to the returned explorers. The Emperor of Austria has sent them a telegraphic despatch congratulating them on their safe return, and M. Payer has been invited by the King of Sweden to visit him at Stockholm.

THE TULES ON FIRE.—All over the States the tules are on fire with enthusiasm on the subject of the next and last Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, to come off November 30, 1874. Until recently it was thought that the excitement was confined to the cities and towns, but reliable accounts show that the rural districts are as much in earnest on the subject as the cities. Indeed, the fact is not surprising when it is known that this is positively the last chance which can be given and at this Concert 2,500,000 dollars in cash will be distributed to the ticket-holders in such prizes or gifts as 250,000 dollars, 100,000 dollars 50,000 dollars, 25,000 dollars, 20,000 dollars. For further information, address, Governor T. E. Bramlette, Louisville, Ky. 3681.

INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS.—Clifton, N. B., 17th February, 1873. Sir: In behalf of my family, I wish to acknowledge a debt of gratitude I owe Mr. James I. Fellows. My daughter had been ill with inflammation of the Lungs, had raised large quantities of blood and purulent matter, attended with every symptom of Consumption. After obtaining the attention of two eminent physicians, who afforded her no relief, she was persuaded to try Fellows Syrup of Hypophosphites. Upon taking two bottles we had every reason to believe she would be cured. Her physicians were surprised to find her improvement so rapid, and advised her to continue its use, which she did until her complete recovery. Two years have elapsed, during which time she has neither taken nor required any medicine, enjoying good health, and urges all who are afflicted with any Lung or Chest trouble to use the Hypophosphites without fail. My wife, also having been in bad health for some time, and having had Typhoid Fever in December last, which left her much prostrated, was advised by the physicians to use this remedy to build her up. Before taking half a bottle she found herself much benefited, and still continues to use it. I believe, under kind Providence, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has been the means of restoring both my wife and daughter, and I hope the afflicted will avail themselves of its use, for although it is widely used. I think its value is not appreciated. Yours truly, JOSEPH A. EVANS. 3677

ARTERIAL blood contains the elements of Vitality and Nutrition, which is emptied into the capillary system and, after supplying the required nourishment, is sucked up by the minute branches of the venous system and carried back to the lungs for vital recuperation. By reason of much that is wrong in living and medical treatment, this stream of blood flowing through the body is not always pure or free from inflammatory particles, which may pass off by insensible perspiration through the skin or with the waste matter through the intestines, but cold or wet may stop their outward escape, and the internal drainage may become inactive, when the corrupt particles are apt to coagulate, causing pustules, scalp eruptions or running sores, bronchitis &c. They may locate about a nerve, causing neuralgia, and by attaching themselves to the arterial tubes and veins, large or small, and inflaming them by their corrosive influence, cause those intensely painful sensations called Rheumatism. Nature struggles to drench out or dislodge if possible these corrosive particles, and the parts become very red from the congestion or pressure of blood therein. This is called Inflammatory Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout. If nature does not succeed in washing out these acrimonious atoms she withdraws the undue supply of blood from such parts, ceases to contend, and performs circulation as best she can; however, the passage of the blood through the affected channels still continues painful. This is Chronic Rheumatism, which may exist without its usual antecedant the Acute kind.

The above only true theory points out the correct treatment of this and other distressing maladies. Dissolve these corrupt particles that have lodged in the afflicted parts, so that in the circulation they may be carried off externally or internally, and having thus removed the cause the effect ceases.

The experiment of twenty years in the London Hospital, England, has demonstrated to the Medical Faculty of Europe, that the only medicine having control over this class of diseases is the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!

It is the result of a lifetime of scientific study and is now for the first time offered to the Canadian public, prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the profession, in the trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

A BLESSING TO THE POLICE.

MONTREAL, 18th June, 1864.

DEVINS & BOLTON:

GENTLEMEN,—Having been one of the many martyrs of rheumatism that I meet on my every day rounds, I was induced to try the celebrated DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. I had suffered the last five or six weeks the most terrible aches and pains across my loins and back, so severe indeed that I could hardly walk with the help of a stick. I commenced the Diamond Remedy—following the directions carefully. Relief came immediately with the first bottle, improved rapidly with the second, completely cured and freed from pain after finishing my fifth small bottle. You are at perfect liberty either to refer to me privately or publicly, as I feel very thankful for the relief, and sympathize with my fellow sufferers from rheumatism.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. CARDINAL,
Sanitary Police Officer,
51 Lapelle street.

In simple cases, sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of two or three bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send or it to

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA,

Tuesday, 22nd day of September, 1874.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

On the recommendation of the Honorable the Minister of Customs, and under and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Merchant Shipping Act," 1854" and the Acts amending the same, and of the Act passed in the 36th year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled: "An Act relating to Shipping, and for the "registration, inspection and classification thereof."

His Excellency the Governor General, by and with the advice of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada has been pleased to constitute and appoint Port Rowan, in the Province of Ontario a Port for the registration of Shipping, and such Port is hereby constituted and appointed accordingly.

His Excellency under the authority aforesaid, has further been pleased to constitute and appoint the Collector of that Port to be Registrar of Shipping thereat, under the provisions of the said Act.

WHOLESALE

Ready-Made

CLOTHING.

HAVING disposed of my Dry-Goods Establishment, I am now giving my personal attention to my Wholesale Ready-made Clothing Business. My stock is now ready for inspection, and will be found to compare favourably with any in the market.

Having had a long experience in the Ottawa Trade, I understand its requirements, and have my Clothing manufactured with a view to meet the wants of this market. It is my intention to keep on hand nothing but the best of Goods, both in point of quality and finish, believing as I do, that never in the history of the trade was there such a demand for a first-class article in Ready-made Clothing. I have employed

ONE OF THE BEST CUSTOM CUTTERS

Ever in this section, as Foreman.

He also has a good knowledge of the growing wants of this market. The party to whom I refer is

Mr. GEORGE DIXON

So very favourably known throughout the Ottawa Valley.

This circumstance is merely mentioned to show that it is my purpose to place in the market a class of Clothing to meet the growing tastes of the public.

JOB MOSES' FEMALE PILLS.

This well known medicine is no imposition but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, they contain nothing hurtful to the constitution.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, those pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron calomel, antimony or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully reserved.

For full particulars, obtain free, of the agent a pamphlet, or refer to advertisement.

JOB MOSES, NEW YORK, SOLE PROPRIETOR.

$1.00 and 12½ cents for postage, enclosed to Northop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., general agents for the Dominion, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills return mail.

For sale by all druggists. 25

Electric Oil Thomas' Excelsior Eclectric! — Worth Ten Times its Weight in Gold.

Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures Catarrh, Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. J. Cottard, of Sparta, Ontario, writes "send me 6 dozen Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful." William Maguire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes spendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes. "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Electric Oil, I am nearly run out: nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes —"Send at once a further supply of Electric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well, and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes—"Send me some more Electric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reed, Ulverton, P.Q., writes—"The Electric Oil is getting a great reputation here, and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay." Lemoyne, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P. O., write—"Send us one gross Electric Oil. We find it to take well."

Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 5 cents.

A BEAUTIFUL HORSE.—There is nothing that can contribute so much to render the horse beautiful and elegant, to improve his condition and make him all that is desirable, as "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," it has been used by many persons who own valuable carriage and other horses with decided success, and so well pleased are they with it that they always keep it on hand in case of emergency; it may be given at all times with perfect safety. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ontario, proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers. 3671m

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

In aid of the

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.

DAY FIXED AND A FULL DRAWING ASSURED,

—ON—

MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE FOR

An Easy Fortune.

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned, that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed, and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 31st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT

Is the last which will ever be given under this charter and by the present management,

That it will positively and unequivocally take place as announced, on

MONDAY, 30TH NOVEMBER,

That the music will be the best the country affords, and that

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE. FREE FROM ALCOHOL. PURELY. DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA. EUREKA. VINEGAR BITTERS.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The New York Tribune.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF ITALY! so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemburg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to re-assert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the everchanging phases of our tidings from the Old World. The Tribune, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand and Nineteenth-Century scepticism and secularism on the other. Recognising a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the government of our State has been revolutionised through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficent and vitally needed reform, the Tribune will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

DAILY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $10 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum. Five copies or over, $3 each; an extra copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time; or, if preferred, a copy of "Recollection a Busy Life," by Mr Greeley.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL. The distinctive character 1st which have gained for Dr. DE JONGH'S Oil so much celebrity, the entire confidence of the most eminent members of the Medical Profession, and notwithstanding the active and unscrupulous opposition of many interested dealers, an unprecedented amount of public patronage may be thus concisely enumerated:—

I.—Its genuineness, purity, and uniform strength are ascertained and guaranteed.

II.—It contains all the active and essential principles that therapeutic experience has found to be the most effective in the operation of the remedy.

III.—It is palatable, easily taken, and creates no nausea.

IV.—It is borne with facility by the most delicate stomach and improves the functions of digestion and assimilation.

V.—Its medicinal properties and remedial action have been found to be immeasurably greater than those of any other kind of Cod Liver Oil.

VI.—From the unequalled rapidity of its curative effects, it is infinitely more economical than any which is offered, even at the lowest price.

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST.

The extraordinary virtues of Dr. DE JONGH'S Light Brown Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Consumption may now be considered as fully established. No remedy so rapidly restores the exhausted strength, improves the nutritive functions or produces a more marked and favorable influence on the local malady.

The following high testimony to the efficacy of Dr. DE JONGH'S COD LIVER OIL in Consumption is afforded by ALLEN G. CHATTAWAY, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., of Leominster:—

"Having for some years extensively used Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, both in public and private practice, I have no hesitation in stating its effects are very far superior to those of any other Cod Liver Oil. Nearly four years since, two cases of confirmed Consumption were placed under my care. In both, the lungs were a mass of tubercular deposit, and every possible sound to be heard in phthisis was present. The sole remedy employed was DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL; and now the patients are strong and fat; the diseased (abnormal) sounds nearly inaudible; and in the one case (male), hunting, fishing, and shooting, are freely indulged in, the patient expressing himself quite capable of undergoing as much fatigue as any of his fellow sportsmen."

GENERAL DEBILITY AND EMACIATION.

In cases of prostration and emaciation, where the vital forces are reduced, and where life appears to be even at its lowest ebb, the restorative powers of Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL are remarkably manifested. By its administration the natural appetite is revived, and the functions of digestion and assimilation are improved, reanimated, and regulated; and, when its use has been steadily preserved in, its peculiar tonic and nutritive properties have entirely restored health and strength to the most feeble and deteriorated constitutions.

The actual benefit derived is thus described by ROWLAND DALTON, Esq., M.R.C.S., L.S.A., District Medical Officer at Bury St. Edmunds:—

"In giving my opinion of Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, I have no hesitation in saying that I have not the slightest confidence in any other kind. The effects of Dr. DE JONGH'S OIL are sure and most remarkable, especially in that broken down state of health and strength which usually precedes and favors tubercular deposit; and I never recommend any other sort. The Oil I have had from you was for my own use, and it has certainly been the only means of saving my life on two occasions, and even now, when I feel 'out of condition,' I take it, and like it, unmixed with anything, as being the most agreeable way. I could wish that Dr. DE JONGH'S OIL would come into general use, and entirely supersede the Pale and other worthless preparations."

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From innumerable medical and scientific opinions of the highest character in commendation of Dr DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL, the following are selected:—

Sir Henry Marsh, Bart., M.D., Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I consider Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil to be a very pure Oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

Dr. David Smith, F.R.S., Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light Brown Oil supplied by Dr. De Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the Oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst so much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness." (Extract from "Consumption its early and Remediable Stages.")

Dr. Barlow, F.R.S., Sen. Physician to Guy's Hosp.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it be a very pure Oil, well fitted for those cases in in which the use that substance is indicated."

Dr. Lawrence, Physician to H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

"I invariably prescribe Dr. De Jongh's Cod Liver Oil in preference to any other, feeling assured that I am recommending a genuine article and not a manufactured compound in which the efficacy of this invaluable medicine is destroyed."

Sir Joseph Olliffe, M.D., Physician to the British Embassy at Paris.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. De Jongh's Light Brown Cod Liver Oil, and I have every reason to be satisfied with its beneficial and salutary effects."

Lankester, F.R.S., Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this Oil is secured in its preparation by the personal attention of so good a Chemist and intelligent a Physician as Dr. De Jongh, who has also written the best Medical Treatise on the Oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

THE ROYAL READERS,

A NEW SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED ENGLISH READING-BOOKS.

From Mr. M. Patterson, Rector of the Free Church Training School, Moray House, Edinburgh.

"Thanks for the Specimen of your new Reading Books and Sheets. They are admirable in every particular. Nothing, in my opinion, would more contribute to the improvement of Education than the wide circulation of these books, and the intelligent handling of them."

From A. Montgomerie, L.L.D., Principal of Ladies' College Glasgow.

"I have examined very carefully the 'Printing,' and Nos. I., II., and III. of the Royal Readers, and have no hesitation in saying that they are, in my opinion, incomparably the best English Reading-Books that have ever been published. The adaptation of the means to the end in view is perfect."

From F. Morrison, M.A., Rector of the Free Church Normal School, Glasgow.

"I have very carefully examined the Royal Readers. The plan is excellent, and the execution, if I may say so, even better. They are out of sight the best series of Reading-books published and should very speedily be widely used. The illustrations constitutes an admirable features and add much to the value of the Readers"

PINE LANDS.

OVER 900,000,000 FEET, well located mainly on the rivers leading into Lake Michigan. The numerous streams and lakes surrounded with pine timber along the line west of Reed City, offer the best of locations for mills, where logs can be held safely free of expense and free from the annoyance of Boom Companies. Caution.

GENUINE PANCREATINE

PANREATIC EMULSION.

The efficacy of these Medicines in the treatment of Indigestion, Bronchitis and Pulmonary Catarrh, Consumption, Wasting, &c., &c., depending entirely upon their purity and strength, Messrs SAVORY & MOORE caution the public against imitations of them which are put forth as possessing the remedial properties of the true preparations, but which are in reality either saponaceous compounds, ointments or pomades, without a trace of the Pancreatic principle and entirely unfit and useless as medicines. These imitations are calculated to produce serious disappointment and to injuriously affect the reputation which the Genuine Pancreatine and Pancreatic Emulsion have acquired. It is therefore highly important that purchasers examine the labels on the bottles for the names and Trade Mark

"SAVORY & MOORE,"

The Original and only Manufacturers Chemists to the Queen, H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, H.I.M. Napoleon the Third, His Highness the Khedive of Egypt, &c.

143 NEW BOND STREET, LONDON.

Extract from an Analytical Report upon a Foreign Specimen of a so-called Preparation of Pancreatine.

"This compound resembled an ointment or Pomade in appearance and consistency, and was flavored with Essence of Almonds or Prussic Acid. It was strongly alkaline, indicating free alkali, which, acting upon the fat, produced the usual saponifying result; the whole forming a granular moist mass of fat, soap, glycerine and water. This ointment was physically and chemically different from the true Pancreatic Emulsion which I have also examined, and which, besides being rich in Pancreatic juice, has the delicate creamy appearance and consistency of fresh cream, is palatable and readily taken."
